REFLECTIONS FROM

POLLY SCHROEDER — back from the BPW convention (in Portland last week)—reports on some "real visitin'" on way north with former Klamathites—Tuesday with Lillian and Wilbur Arnold in Medford—they've continued to be identified with civic and social life—and Lillian was "Queen of the Nile" last year—and her full program includes serving a day each week as a Gray Lady at Camp White—son Dick is considered one of the outstanding boys in the valley town—very musical—he's in the school band—and was recently elected yell leader of the senior high.

In Eugene spent some time with Mrs. George Barnhart in her "sumptuous" apt in the Osburn—all antique and Chinese furnishings collected over a period of many years—Polly was Mrs. B's girl Friday when Barnhart's store was local headquarters for women's wear here—on this trip Mrs. B. gave her a number of "treasures"—and is Polly ever a delighted gal!

The Roy Whytals are firmly established in Eugene where Janice is "going places" in music and Becky was all enthused about the milestone in her young life—she was confirmed in the Episcopal Church last Sunday.

Also saw the Cooper Fords—who've just moved into their recently completed and outstanding home in a new residential district near the U of O campus—All of the former Klamath dwellers asked Polly to be sure to remember them to KF friends—and declared that they were all cherishing fond memories of their days here.

LOU AND HARVE — Horeline headed up Eugene way yesterday for a very special reason—to see new grandson David Wayne Bissell—whose name they were too confused to ask when they got the phone call announcing his arrival—young scion's mama is Harve's dir Shirley.

MIDWEEK VISITOR—was Orva Beard's brother Roy L. Orem from Portland—also brother to Ira F. Orem who has extensive cattle interests—who moved from Fort Klamath to recently purchased J. Frank Adams Ranch—famous Merrill landmark—a third brother is Rear Admiral Howard Orem—who just returned to Washington as assistant of Naval Affairs after another tour of active duty. The above was all occasioned by Roy's presence in the Herald and News plant the other day—and some reminiscing about the building oc-

PLAYERS CLUB

The Library club room was gaily decorated in vacation theme for Players Club last meeting of the season.

After a short business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Grant Bailey, a large group of members and their guests enjoyed an evening of cards.

The hostesses, Mrs. Clark Blair, Mrs. Earl Murphy, Mrs. Robert Egge, Mrs. B. M. Simon and Mrs. H. E. Kusler served delicious refreshments.

Prizes for bridge went to Mrs. E. H. Hultman (high); and Mrs. Jesse Litwiler (second).

Pinochle to Mrs. Sam Jones (high); Mrs. Herbert Madole, (second).

A special prize was won by Mrs. John Merryman.

The previous meeting on May 5, the new officers were installed by the outgoing president Mrs. E. H. Hultman. They are Mrs. Grant Bailey, president; Mrs. J. R. Rhodes, vice president; Mrs. Orman Gildow, secretary treasurer; and Mrs. H. H. Madole, social chairman.

The theme chosen by the hostesses was "May Day." The club room was beautifully decorated with Maypoles and many spring flowers.

Members and guests wore original hats of their own creation. Prizes for the most original went to Mrs. J. E. Thorton; Mrs. Bert Hensen, prettiest; and to Mrs. D. P. Groves for the funniest.

Cards were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening with prizes going to Mrs. H. Kranenberg for high in pinochle; and Mrs. June Wallmark, low. In bridge, Mrs. Orman Gildow, high, and Mrs. Charles Dakin, low.
