It again from the CAPC. We've told you some of what CAPC is, some of its history, how we're financed, and what some of our missions are. This time we'd like to tell you about our cadet program, what we learn, and who is eligible for CAPC.

The cadet program was designed to develop in youth an awareness of the social, political, economic, international and vocational aspects in aviation. As junior members of the Civil Air Patrol organization, the cadets were provided with a comprehensive background in aviation fundamentals and military procedures.

Cadets are acquainted with flight fundamentals and are trained in ground search and rescue techniques. Cadets do not get flight instruction, however, with the parent's permission, orientation flights are given cadets by CAP cadets and Air Force personnel at various intervals throughout their training.

The cadets also receive training in the power of flight, the path of flight, weather, air traffic control, national and international problems of safety and control, vocational opportunities in aviation, radio, code, navigation, photography, and meteorology.

Anyone 15 years old or in high school is eligible for CAPC if their parents are American citizens and if they have satisfactory grades in school. To join CAPC, visit the unit in Klamath Falls, which holds meetings every Monday night, 8:45 to 9:45, at Allamont Junior High on South Sixth Street.

CAP Cadets will not be expected to join the Air Force, nor will they be in cadets hold any bearing on their draft status.

CAP Cadets may wear the Air Force uniforms with certain distinctive insignias. CAP and CAPC members are expected to purchase their own uniforms. The local squadron or the state wing does not buy the uniforms.

We would like to thank all the people that made our recent rummage sale a success. A special thanks to The Herald and News and to KFLW and KFJF for their help.

At our last meeting it was announced that the Klamath Falls Cadet Squadron had been deactivated as a separate squadron and had been activated as an attached squadron under the sponsorship of the Klamath Falls senior squadron as of April 27, 1954. This announcement was made through Col. Jordan, Wing Commander for the state of Oregon.

We would like to invite any interested persons to attend our meetings either as a guest or as a prospective member. A cordial invitation is extended to all parents of cadets to attend our meetings and learn more about the cadet program.

Democrats Kill Eisenhower Request For 18 Year Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's request to lower the voting age from 21 to 18 years was doomed for this session of Congress today by a solid line of 24 Democratic senators.

The minority party members—mostly Southerners—killed the proposed constitutional amendment in the Senate late yesterday when supporters were able to round up only 34 votes. That fell far short of the two-to-one majority required to approve the constitutional change and send it to the house for a similar test.

While Eisenhower's request was also pending in the House it was believed futile for that body to even consider the amendment at this session after the senate turn-down.

Not a Republican opposed the amendment in yesterday's record vote although two, Hugh Butler of Nebraska and Malone of Nevada, were paired against it. Only seven of the 47 Democrats voted for it, while seven others were paired in its favor.

It was the second recent setback for an Eisenhower legislative proposal by the Senate. Democrats earlier were chiefly responsible for shelving 50 to 43 Eisenhower's request for changes in the Taft-Hartley Labor Law.

Opponents of the proposed constitutional change were led by Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), who bitterly assailed it as "an implied insult" to governors and legislatures of all the 48 states.

Russell's home state of Georgia now is the only one that permits 18 year olds to vote. Although the Georgia senator said he is not

Shakespearean Plays Slated

ASHLAND—Eight veterans and six newcomers to the Oregon Shakespearean festival stage in Ashland, have been awarded scholarships to the 1954 festival, according to Angus L. Bowmer, producing director.

The group of scholarship winners will form the nucleus of the company of approximately 50 actors who will appear in the four plays of the 14th season of America's oldest Shakespeare festival, which opens in Ashland August 1 for a month's run.

Although actors winning awards represent every section of the United States, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, Pa., leads all institutions in numbers receiving scholarships with six.

Among the veteran actors and actresses returning on scholarships are William Oyer, professional radio actor, Hollywood; Dick Ittso and Brad Curtis, drama students at San Jose State College; George and Helen Davies Peppard, Carnegie Tech.; Jesse Womack, of the same university; Knox Fowler, U.C.L.A.; and Frank Pinnock, Colorado University. All except Oyer appeared in last season's company, and he returns after a year's absence. In 1952 he played an outstanding Brutus in "Julius Caesar."

Scholarship winners were chosen by Bowmer out of over 150 applicants from every section of the country and several foreign countries.

New to the company this year will be Eda Reiss Merin, a professional actress of broad experience in New York and Hollywood; Patricia Barrett, Claude Jenkins, and Robert Eads, all of Carnegie Tech.; Robert Symonds, Texas University, and James Madison, University of Idaho. All have had a wide range of experience in Shakespearean drama elsewhere, according to Bowmer.

To be produced at the festival this season are "Hamlet," "The Merry Wives of Windsor," "The Writter's Tale," and "Henry VI, Part 2." Information can be had by writing "Shakespeare," Ashland, Oregon.

Steel Talks Still Secret

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A wall of silence and quick retorts of "no comment" met a published report today that the big CIO-United Steelworkers Union is seeking a 50-cent-an-hour pay package boost from basic steel producers.

Some industry observers, although surprised at the figure, felt the union—following an old labor custom—was asking for more than it knew it could get. Others called the report ridiculous.

Officials of the union and U.S. Steel Corp., contract pacesetter of the industry, generally were mum but one union representative did say:

"We prefer to negotiate our contracts at the bargaining table, not in the newspapers."

U. S. Steel and union negotiators wound up a preliminary three-day bargaining session last Thursday at which the USW outlined its demands. Now the nation's No. 1 steel producer is studying the proposals and expects to have an answer ready in about two weeks.

Contracts expire June 30. The USW represents some 600,000 workers in basic steel who now earn between $2.14 and $2.24 an hour.

last January, Eisenhower said: "For years our citizens between the ages of 18 and 21 have, in time of peril, been summoned to fight for America. They should participate in the political process that produces this fateful summons."

Actress Charges Mental Cruelty
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Betty Hutton charged extreme mental cruelty in a divorce suit filed yesterday against dance director Charles O'Curran, 39.

The 33-year-old star asked return of her maiden name and said there is no community property. The couple married March 18, 1953. Miss Hutton divorced Ted Brinkin, Chicago camera manufacturer in April 1950 and again, after a reconciliation, in January 1951.
