PTA

SHASTA

By Mrs. John W. Insley

George Elliott, principal of Henley High School, was guest speaker at the May 19 meeting of Shasta PTA. Elliott explained the operation of Henley School, what is available in the way of subject matter; that it is an accredited high school, offering the same curriculum as most high schools throughout the country, and is operated on the premise of helping the child become a better citizen. With Elliott on the program were Rosemary O'Keefe, who gave a serious reading, and Roberta Pruitt, who gave a humorous reading. Both are students at Henley High.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Harold Gresdel, PTA president, who thanked the members for their support and cooperation throughout the year.

Flag salute was led by Mrs. James Bratton. Mrs. Vera Ochs' room won the room count.

A history of Shasta's activities for the year was prepared by Mrs. T. C. Wiles.

Report of the April convention at Salem was given by Mrs. D. L. Dunkeson, who stated that $15,538 had been contributed by Oregon PTAs toward tuition scholarships, $370 of which was contributed by Klamath and Lake Counties. Fifty-seven new scholarships were sponsored in Oregon this year.

Mrs. Thelma Janssen's room is leading in the coffee band contest to secure a new coffee urn for Shasta PTA.

Mrs. M. C. Mayes reported an excellent sale of savings stamps; Mrs. John Insley reported 41 children were examined at the preschool clinic.

PTA voted to sponsor Cub Pack No. 2 and that $150 received from the year's money-making projects, be set aside towards lights for the school stage.

Mrs. Robert Cheyne was appointed summer library chairman. Mrs. Ida Kurtz, Mrs. Floyd Joiner and Mrs. John Insley were appointed to audit the Treasurer's books.

The award for 100 per cent participation of Shasta School in the forest conservation program was presented to Jack Ziegelmeier by Mrs. Isabelle Brixner, elementary county school supervisor.

The following officers were installed for the year 1954-1955: Mrs. D. L. Dunkeson, president; Mrs. Dean Augustus, first vice president; Mrs. James Bratton, second vice president; Mrs. Ronald Phair, secretary; Mrs. Gladys Morrison, treasurer.

Scholarships Award Told

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, O. S. C., CORVALLIS — Two graduating high school seniors from the Klamath Falls area have been awarded state scholarships for study next year at Oregon State College.

They are Janis Ann Bubb and Myron Robert Huribut.

The scholarships, which cover tuition and partial fees, are sponsored by the state system of higher education to encourage promising Oregon high school graduates to continue their education. To be eligible, students must rank in the upper two-thirds of their graduating class.

Miss Bubb plans to study chemistry at Oregon State. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Bubb, 131 Dahlia.

In high school Miss Bubb has made an outstanding scholarship record, and is a member of the National Honor society. She has also been active in Tri-Hi-Y, French club, student council, Future Homemakers of America, Art Club, and Ski Club. She received honorable mention in the 13th annual Westinghouse Science Talent Search.

Huribut, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Huribut, Rt. 3, Box 352, intends to register in the school of engineering, with emphasis on mechanical engineering. He has won several awards in speech work, and has participated in his class play. Huribut is salutatorian of his class at Henley High School.

Bible, Prayer Book Stolen

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A thief who snatched a small overnight bag from the car of Eva Duncan of Winters may have felt some pangs of conscience when he opened the bag.

In it — among other things — were a Bible and a prayer book.
