

Cleveland's Win Streak Shattered By ChiSox

Connolly's Net Plans Undecided

PARIS (AP)—With Maureen Connolly planning marriage there is a glimmer of hope for the remainder of the title-starved field of women tennis players.

So far it is only a glimmer because "Little Mo" has not decided what she will do after she is married, she may continue to make tournament rounds and she may not.

"It depends on so many things," she said today. "We don't know if Norm will be able to travel."

Miss Connolly said she plans to marry Edna Norman Brinker, who expects to be released from the U. S. Navy in November.

"I'll never give up tennis because it has been so much to me," she said. "I'll always play it and enjoy it but I just don't know if I'll be playing in so many tournaments."

Little Mo has completely dominated women's tennis singles field since 1951. She has won the U. S. title for the past three years, won the Australian title in 1953 in her only trip Down Under and will make her bid for her third straight Wimbledon crown next month.

And now she is in the semifinal round of the French championships and appears to be a shoo-in for her third straight title since her outstanding rivals, Shirley Fry and Doris Hart, passed up the French tournament to play in English tournaments.

Miss Connolly has lost only eight games in three matches in advance of the semifinals, where she'll meet Italy's Sylvia Lazzarino.

The championships continued today with the quarter-finals of the doubles in both divisions.

The men's singles are down to the semifinals with three Americans still in the running. Tony Trabert of Cincinnati entered the round of four yesterday with a 7-5, 4-6, 6-2 victory over Mercurio Rose, Australian champion.

Art Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., upset Wimbledon champion Vic Seixas 6-4, 1-6, 8-6, 6-1.

Others in the semifinals are Rudge Patty of Los Angeles and Argentina's Enrique Morea.

BASEBALL HELP
LARAMIE, Wyo. — Bill Wilson, second string catcher, is practically a foreigner on the University of Wyoming baseball team.

He's the only player on the squad who hails from Wyoming, nine men come from Chicago and others make their home in Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Michigan, Colorado, Missouri and California.

But the midwesterners and easterners will see the last of Bill this year. He's one of two seniors on the team.

American League umpire John Fishery served with the Marine Corps in the South Pacific during World II and won a battle field commission.

BONUS BABIES AND THE BAT BOYS—Bonus babies make it difficult to separate Detroit players from the bat boys. There's a scant age difference between the bonus beauties and Francis McGarry, 18, second from left, a high school student, and Johnny Robb, 19, second from right, also a student, who look after the bats. A year ago, infielder Reno Bertoia, 19, left, was a college freshman and outfielder Al Kaline, 19, center, and pitcher Bob Miller, 18, were in high school. (NEA)

The Cleveland Indians might have known that when their winning streak was broken the villains would be the Chicago White Sox.

The Indians put an 11-game string on the line in Chicago last night and the White Sox promptly snapped it with a 4-2 decision. If the streak had been the other way around, Cleveland probably would have won.

That's the way these perennial runners-up in the American League have been doing at each other regularly during the past three seasons in one of the most evenly matched rivalries in either circuit.

Dating back through 1951 the series stands 37-34 in favor of the Indians. Cleveland's slight edge is reflected in the standings since it has finished second all three years. The White Sox own two thirds and a fourth.

A year ago the clubs broke even against each other, 11 apiece. Chicago now has won three of five from the first-place Indians this season. Cleveland leads the league by a game and a half over the Sox with the third-place New York Yankees uncomfortably close only two games out.

The Yanks took advantage of the Indians' misfortune last night to close the gap. They beat Washington 9-3. Detroit shaded Baltimore 5-4 in 12 innings. Boston left Philadelphia in last place all alone by winning 3-2.

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves won their eighth in a row, 3-1 over Cincinnati. The New York Giants slammed 22 hits in beating Pittsburgh 21-4. St. Louis defeated the Chicago Cubs 8-4. The Brooklyn-Philadelphia game was called off because of weather.

In beating Cleveland the White Sox not only broke the team's winning streak but they planned the first loss of the season on Bob Lemon, who had won six.

Whitely Ford went the distance for the first time this season as the Yankees ruined Bucky Harris' Night in Washington with a 17-hit assault.

Detroit's long-ball attack ruined Baltimore's hopes of breaking out of a losing streak which now runs to five games. Trailing 3-2, the Tigers tied the game in the last of the ninth on a home run by Jim Delsing. The Orioles scored in the 11th only to have Johnny Pesky get his first hit of the season, a pinch-hit homer, in the last of the 11th. In the 12th Al Kaline singled and Bill Tuttle drove him home with a triple.

Catcher Sammy White turned from goat to star with a ninth-inning home run for Boston over Philadelphia. White had hit into three double plays earlier in the game.

Two home runs sewed up Milwaukee's victory at Cincinnati. Joe Adcock doubled in the fifth and Hank Aaron homered. Then pitcher Warren Spahn followed with a home run.

New York's assault on the hapless Pirates was the second heaviest of the young season, topped only by Chicago's 23-13 victory over St. Louis late in April. The Giants scored 11 runs in the eighth inning, tops in either league so far. In the seventh they had scored five when Whitey Lockman hit a grand-slam home run.

The Cardinals' victory over the Cubs was a runaway for rookie Wally Moon, who stole four bases. Stan Musial hit a single, double and triple and Harvey Haddix fanned nine in winning his sixth game.

BOWLING SCORES

MOOSE MA'S TOURNEY

The Moose Ma's Handicap Tournament drew to a close last night with the completion of the doubles, singles and all event classes.

Clara Beard and LaRayne Harris took the top honors in doubles with their 1992 score, while the team of Clara Bold and Daisy Douglas rolled the second highest doubles score of 1975 pins. Third place went to Beverly Evans and Ruth O'Connell with a 1967 total.

In class A singles, Doris Ryser had the highest total for first place honors with a 580, and Doris Benedict had a second position score of 578, just two pins out of first place. Third spot went to LaRayne Harris with her 561 score.

In class B singles, Jean Robinson and Bernadine Long placed one-two with scores of 553 and 549, while Clara Bold collected the third place honors with her 547 pin total.

All-Events was won by LaRayne Harris with a 1710 score. Second and third places were registered by Beverly Evans and Doris Benedict with scores of 1659 and 1638.

WORST FOOT FORWARD

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Just when the Salt Lake Bees baseball team wanted to look its best it suffered a 31-5 defeat. It was the largest one-team run total in Pioneer League history.

The Bees, a farm club of the Philadelphia Phillies, were leading the league and Eddie Collins Jr., assistant farm supervisor for the Phils, had come to see them play.

Campbell, Stranahan Lead US In England

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP)—Bill Campbell and Frank Stranahan led 13 Americans into a busy third day of play of the British Amateur Golf Championship today—a session that calls for stamina as well as skill.

When play began this morning only eight of the 112 survivors of an original field of 280 had advanced to the fourth round.

The others were called upon to settle third-round arguments with the winners then scheduled to play another 18-hole round during the afternoon. This was a tough schedule for amateurs on this 6,806-yard, par-72 links, where strong winds whip in from the North Sea.

Campbell, 31, betting shot from Huntington, W. Va., met Scotland's long-hitting John Mill in an early third round match. Mill is the reigning West of Scotland champion.

Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, 6-1 joint choice with defending champion Joe Carr of Dublin, was matched against Dr. R. J. Henderson, little known Englishman. Frank Stranahan, Garden City, N. Y., veteran, faced Andrew G.

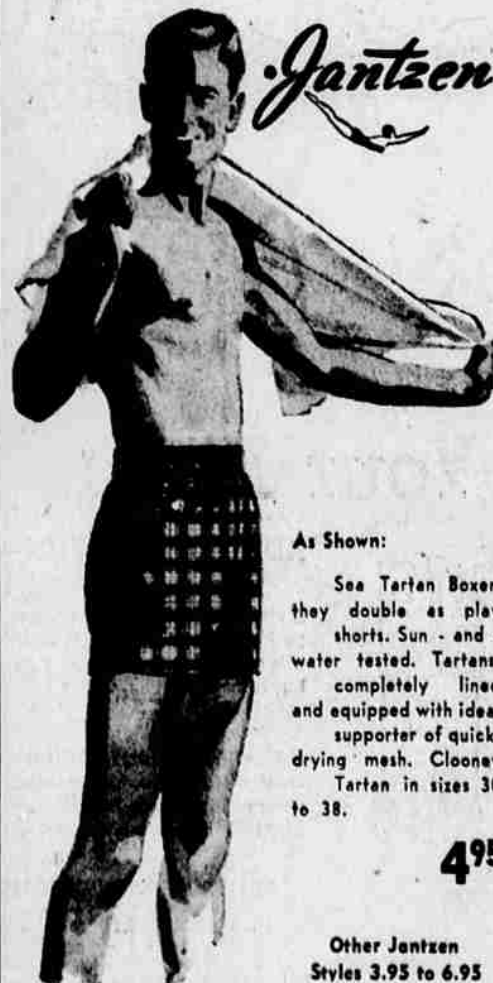

Huskies Whip Washington State

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—Three-hit pitching by Bill Reams gave Washington a 5-4 victory over Washington State in their wrapup Northern Division baseball game Tuesday and tied the Huskies and Oregon State in second place in the final standings.
