Lucky Traveler Finds Suitcase
PORT KLAMATH—A tribute to the honesty of Lakeview citizens is contained in the following unusual story: T. B. Maxwell, sales representative for the Ashley Shoe Company, whose home is in La Grande, arrived here at 8:30 p.m. one evening last week. After registering at the Wood River Hotel, he discovered that his suitcase was missing. Maxwell had checked out of the Lakeview Hotel at 10:30 a.m. and set his luggage on the sidewalk in front of the hotel, he was also sure that he had put all the bags in his car. Van Iderstine, motel owner, called the Lakeview Hotel and explained the situation. The desk clerk investigated and on looking on the curb in front of the hotel, lo and behold, there sat the missing grip, needless to say Maxwell was overjoyed. The desk clerk promised to send the luggage by bus to the salesman's home in La Grande.

Oregon Food To Expand
 Construction got under way this morning on a new 1 1/2 story addition to Oregon Food Store No. 3, 4400 South Sixth Street, that will give 50 by 100 more feet of floor space for the expanding business that has outgrown present quarters. The announcement was made by Mrs. Nellie Angstead, general manager of the three Klamath Falls stores.
 Joe Fales is owner.
 The concrete and brick structure with redwood finish, will be built on the east side of the original store built in 1950.
 Plans have been made to meet the growing public demand for more service under one roof.
 The variety and housewares departments will be moved to the new addition. The self service meat department will be enlarged and service for special meat cuts will be available. This department is to be moved to a more advantageous place in the building. The frozen foods department will be enlarged and the grocery departments modernized.
 A "Los Angeles" display window, new to Klamath Falls grocery stores, is planned. A canopy will tie the new and present units together.
 More parking space, will give a 50 by 100 foot paved area on both sides of the store. Offices will be on the second floor of the new section.
 Thomas Harper, Klamath Falls, is the contractor.
