U.S. Backs S. Korea Plan

GENEVA (AP) — The United States Friday threw its weight behind the South Korean formula for unifying that war-divided nation through free elections under United Nations supervision.

Walter Bedell Smith, U. S. undersecretary of state, told the 19-nation Geneva Conference on Korea the 14-point proposal presented by South Korea Saturday represented an "act of faith in the United Nations."

The South Korea proposals further provide that Chinese Communist troops must be withdrawn a month before elections are held, but that some U. N. troops must remain until after the election has been certified by the United Nations.
