GUESTS FROM ALL OVER THE BASIN enjoyed the hospitality of the Academy Mothers Club at its annual Silver Tea held Saturday afternoon in the parish hall. Serving her sons, Billy and Jerry, is Mrs. James Hammond, with Mrs. Dick Cook to the right, all from Merrill.

SACRED HEART MOTHERS CLUB ENTERTAINS AT SILVER TEA

In a setting of lawn swings, umbrella tables and a profusion of spring flowers, the Mothers Club of Sacred Heart Academy entertained more than 400 guests from all over the Basin at the annual Silver Tea in honor of the Sisters of St. Francis. The parish hall was converted into a garden patio, and the informal hospitality of modern outdoor living prevailed. Guests entered the tea room and passed by a brick planter, constructed for the occasion by committee members, and filled with pots of blossoming geraniums and ivy. In the receiving line were Mrs. Norman Moty, Mrs. Ray Kann, Mrs. Mike Lavenik, Mrs. William Ely, Mrs. Bert Igl and Mrs. Willard Linehan. A wooden shrine with a statue of St. Francis formed an appropriate background for the silver dish in which contributions were placed. The theme, "Lilac Time," was carried out also on the tea table.

Women of Moose

MERRILL Twenty-four co-workers were present at a regular meeting of Women of the Moose Chapter No. 18, May 18. Standing committee reports were read and accepted. Catherine Schweigert and Ila Frost were reported ill with the flu. Bertha McKeon is the mother of a baby boy; and Grace Gray has a new girl. Recorder Rose Van Meter reported that the Oregon State Moose convention will be held in Klamath Falls on June 18, 19, and 20. Co-workers are urged to donate suitable reading material for the baby-sitting project. Election of officers will be held at the June 1 meeting. The executive board will meet at the hall on Friday, May 28.

7th BIRTHDAY

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Claude Brown gave a birthday party at the Brown home Saturday, May 22, in honor of son Jimmy who was 7 years old. The boys enjoyed a wiener roast and an afternoon of games. Present for the gay time were Jimmy, Benny, and Billy Brown; Kenny and Wayne Scott; Jimmy, Tommy and David Seater; and Rodney and Langden Bieler.

Job's Daughters Installation

New officers of Job's Daughters were installed at the May 20 meeting in the Masonic Temple. Installing officer was Phyllis Poole, past grand guardian of Oregon, assisted by members of the Bethel. Reta Boudon (Mrs. George) is the new guardian. George Boudon is associate guardian. Council members are Dorothy Loomis, guardian secretary; Pauline Brockman, guardian treasurer; Madelon Adler, guardian of music; Dorothy Hawthorne, guardian of hospitality; Leola Helbringer, guardian of sociability; Thelma Leonard, guardian of merits; Kaye Bellinger, guardian of paraphernalia and Reba Martz, guardian of publicity. Outgoing officers are Freda (Mrs. Joy) Ustick, guardian; Joy Ustick, associate guardian; Reta Boudon, guardian secretary; Fannie Mae Thompson, guardian treasurer; Luster Nerseth, guardian of music; Ruth Boyd, guardian of hospitality; Georgianna Clark, guardian of sociability; Ada Matthews, guardian of merits; Dorothy Hawthorne, guardian of paraphernalia; Eunice Howard, guardian of publicity. Mr. and Mrs. Boudon were presented with a silver gift and gifts were also presented to Mr. and Mrs. Ustick by Judy Clark. The pretty refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Boudon who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on May 20. New officers of Job's Daughters will be installed June 5, with Jackie Ackerman, queen; Nancy Warren, senior princess; Mary Lou Craig, junior princess; Pat Smith, guide and Mary Margaret Addison, marshal. Mary Margaret was elected recently. Daughters will entertain fathers at the next regular meeting, Thursday, June 3.

WOTM MERRILL OFFICERS HONOR

MERRILL—All officers of Merrill Chapter No. 18, Women of the Moose, were present at a special meeting May 12, honoring regent Kay Mahaffey of Los Angeles, California. She was escorted by the College of Regents, and introduced by guide Ila Frost. Susan Williams, senior regent, and Dovie Reeder presented gifts to Mrs. Mahaffey. Chapter night program was presented by the hospitality committee. A ballet routine was presented by Bonnie Icenbice; and a tap dance by Betty Ann Chapman. The encore featured the two in a tap dance. Ila Frost accompanied by pianist Thelma Donathon sang several selections. The 36 chapter members in attendance balloted on the application of one candidate. Sixteen co-workers of Klamath Falls chapter were invited guests. Four candidates were initiated, Cleo Denham, Elsie Newness, Inga Davis, and Anna Howard. Highlight of the evening was the grand regent's inspiring address. She spoke at length on Monstari, our child city just outside Chicago, where 1,000 children are cared for and educated. The new high school building there is nearly completed, and will be dedicated August 22. She also spoke of Moosehaven, home for the aged on St. John's river in Florida. After the meeting adjourned refreshments were enjoyed.

CARD PARTY

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Charles Schmidl entertained with a pinocle party at her home May 18. High prize for the afternoon went to Mrs. George Fernlund; and traveling to Mrs. Ed Scott. Spring flowers were used for the decorations. Guests enjoying the party were Mrs. Ed Scott, Mrs. Kermit Keyser, Mrs. Frank Grohs, Mrs. Leater Leavitt, Mrs. George Fernlund, Mrs. Russell Walsh, and Mrs. Joe Poucek.
