Topics For Oregon Flower Show Announced By Leader

Topics for instructors in the third course in the Oregon State Flower Show School, scheduled for June 28, 29 and 30, have been announced by Mrs. Scott McKendree, chairman of the school.

Mrs. Orrin Hale "Aunt Emmy," will instruct classes on roses, delphiniums, fruits and vegetables.

Fruits and vegetables are required subject matter for the school; Mrs. Hale is the only accredited instructor on the West Coast who teaches these subjects.

Mrs. Rae Pennington will instruct flower arranging, with emphasis on scale and proportion, and analogous colors and harmony.

Mrs. Hale is commonly known in garden club circles as "Aunt Emmy," co-editor and publisher of "Pacific Gardens and Homes," the official organ of the Oregon State Federation of Garden Clubs, published in Seattle.

"Aunt Emmy Says," a regular column in the monthly publication, is familiar to gardeners throughout Washington, Oregon, Idaho and California.

The author is a nationally known horticulturalist, and is outstanding in her fields of instruction locally.

Rae Pennington, foremost colorist, has studied flower arranging in San Francisco at Rudolph Schaeffer's School of Design and in Los Angeles. She has taught flower arrangement and color in Portland evening schools for more than 10 years.

Miss Pennington has instructed in judging schools, like the one to be held in Klamath Falls, in Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and Albany. She serves many people as interior decorator and color consultant from her home.

Both instructors will speak each morning and afternoon of the two day instruction period. The third day will be given over to examinations for those who are studying to qualify as nationally accredited flower show judges. The lectures are open to the public, but those interested in taking the examinations must have completed either course No. 1 or course No. 2.

The reading list for this third course includes "Art of Color and Design," Graves; "Color Notations," Munsell; "All About House Plants," Free; "The Complete Book of Flower Arrangements," Rockwell and Grayson, review Chapter 4; "Woman's Home Companion Garden Book," Wister, Chapters 39 and 49.

Mrs. McKendree has urged all garden and flower enthusiasts to participate in the school, whether or not they are working towards being accredited judges. She stressed that the opportunities of learning from flower arrangers and horticulturalists of such note as Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Pennington are rare, and the response of the public to such instruction will be of benefit to the entire community.

Fees are $5 for two days of lectures; $3 for one day. Interested persons may enroll with Mrs. McKendree, 1893 Del Moro, telephone 4349.
