

JUST A PART OF THE 1954 KUHS graduating class at the annual Senior Banquet last Friday, May 21, in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel.

Out of a class of 213 — over 200 were greeted at the door by Mrs. Richard Maxwell and Mrs. Lloyd Prock, co-chairmen and hostesses for the event.

Another successful rummage sale engineered by Mrs. Prock for Parents and Patrons paid the big tab for the "turkey-and-all-the-trimmings" feast served at 6:30. Kay Halas at the organ played background music during dinner.

Just before the first course, Mrs. Maxwell greeted the Senior Class guests — then asked Mrs. Prock to take a bow for the many hours she labored for the "Cause."

After the dessert course, Don Dexter, senior class president expressed the group's heartfelt and genuine thanks to Parents and Patrons for an elegant meal and memorable evening. A number of KUHS faculty members were special guests.

Kappa Chapter Beta Sigma Phi

The last yearly meeting of Kappa Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi was held May 18 at the home of Mrs. Phil Britner, director of the group.

An outdoor potluck preceded the meeting. Card tables were set up in the yard with Mrs. Britner's many flowers forming a beautiful background.

During the business meeting presided over by Mrs. Owen Badley, new president, two delegates were chosen to attend the district meeting in Medford, May 22. They were Mrs. Owen Badley and Mrs. Arthur Parr the new vice-president.

Mrs. Badley announced new committee chairmen for the coming year: ways and means, Mrs. Ernest Thaller; social, Mrs. Lowell Netzer; service, Mrs. Virgil Stippich; program, Mrs. Pat Boran; membership, Mrs. Arthur Parr; and publicity, Mrs. Rod MacPhail.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Britner and Mrs. William Nelson, retiring president, by Mrs. Lowell Netzer and Mrs. Noel Flynn, respectively, in recognition of their services during the past year.

MALIN COUPLE WED 40 YEARS

MALIN — Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Daniel of Malin celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday, May 23, when their daughter Mrs. Joe Halousek invited relatives and old friends in for the afternoon.

The lace-covered buffet table, decorated with striking arrangements of pink candles and colorful flowers, was centered with a large cake inscribed "Happy 40th Anniversary."

Guests who called during the afternoon to offer their congratulations were Mr. and Mrs. Don Urell and daughters Carol Ann and Janet, daughter and son-in-law of the honored guests; their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Daniel, Sandra and Debra; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Urell and Mr. and Mrs. George Hostetter; all of Redmond; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Emma Wilson, Mrs. Dila Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Enmett Lahoda and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Loosley.

Other invited guests included, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Halousek, Mrs. Marie Ottoman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmor, Mrs. Clay Combs, Mrs. Ada Sparretor, Miss Gusta Voss, Mrs. Marie Kalina and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Voss.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel were married in Merrill in 1914, and started housekeeping on a homestead near Malin. With the exception of about 14 years, which they spent at Redmond, they have lived in Klamath County all their married life. They have two daughters, one son and six grandchildren.

Faculty Wives Spring Banquet

Eighty seven members of the Faculty Wives' Club and their guests attended the third annual spring banquet at Jen-Eth, May 14.

Chairman for the event was Mrs. John Lake. Mrs. Paul McCall, president of the organization, was mistress of ceremonies for the program which followed the dinner.

Parents' 48th Wedding Date Chosen by Daughter for Her Wedding in Salem on May 16th

In a pretty afternoon ceremony in the First Christian Church of Salem, on May 16, Bernice Britt became the bride of Ralph R. Houck. Both are from Klamath Falls.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Gossard, Salem, who were celebrating their 48th wedding anniversary on their daughter's wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. Gossard were attendants at the double ring ceremony, read at 4 p.m. by the Rev. Wayne Green in the presence of intimate friends and close relatives.

The bride wore a pale gray, summer weight tulle suit with small white flowers hat, white accessories and a lavender orchid at the shoulder.

White gladioli and white roses were used at the altar.

A wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Houck cut the first piece of their all-white three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Houck has been office manager for 15 years for the Shoop and Schultz Service. Her husband is associated with the Coleman Union Service.

They are now at home at 226 1/2 North Third St.

Bonanza GL Mothers' Tea

BONANZA — The annual Mothers' Tea given by the Girls League of the Bonanza High School was held in the auditorium Friday afternoon, May 14. Each mother and guest was presented with a lovely carnation corsage by the girls.

Patty Burk gave the welcoming address. Velda Rodgers speech was on "What the U.N. Means to Me."

Velda entered and won alternate in the contest sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges.

The 7th and 8th grade chorus sang "Wonderful Mother of Mine," and "Kentucky Babe." Joan Dayley gave a story called "The Shoes of a Happy Man." Judy Sutherland recited "A Boy and His Dog," and "The Fellow Your Mother Thinks You Are." Sherry Crawford, Velda Rodgers, Sidney Ketchum and Margaret Rodgers sang "I Love You Best of All."

Table decorations were an arrangement of colorful spring tulips and candies surrounded by dainty pansies floating in the candle holders.

Piano background music was played during the tea by Nancy Givan, Janice Hazeline, Mitchell Brett and Nora Spillane. The senior girls poured.

Friendship Circle WOTM

MERRILL — The Friendship committee of Merrill Women of the Moose met May 14 at the Moose hall. Two new members were welcomed to the Friendship Circle, Eleanor Waits and Ellen Fiegl.

The members worked on a quilt. Potluck dessert was enjoyed by Ellen Fiegl, Hazel Hundley, Myrtle Kucera, Eleanor Waits, Blanche Fies, Susan Williams, and co-worker Beale Duncan.

LOOM 306 and WOTM held their annual potluck dinner May 16, honoring all charger members.

Fifty guests and members were present. Two guests, Stella Shulmire and Lillian Rossion from Klamath Falls attended, and helped with the program after the 8 o'clock dinner. Cards were enjoyed following dinner.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER SCHMIDT of Toketee Falls announce the engagement of their granddaughter, Sharon Elizabeth Curran, to Randolph Robert David Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph David Sr., of Chiloquin. Plans have been made for a July wedding at the Bible Standard Church.

David is a graduate of Chiloquin High School and attended Oregon State College before working for the Klamath Agency. Sharon has attended the local high school during the past year when she moved to Sprague River to make her home with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Bodner Jr.
