Second Straight Conquest

By DALE BURGESS
INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Without taking any credit from a great driver in Bill Vukovich's second straight 500-mile auto race victory yesterday, the cold statistics show that his pit crew deserves a big chunk of cash when the purse is distributed tonight.

Jack McGrath, who holds the Indianapolis Motor Speedway qualifying record, set out to run off from the field like Vukovich did last year. He was screaming around the track at an almost impossible 140 miles an hour early in the contest.

Vukovich won and McGrath finished in third place behind hard-driving Jimmy Bryan of Phoenix. Vukovich was 1:09.55 ahead of Bryan and 1:57 ahead of McGrath. Vukovich had made two pit stops for fuel and tires and his crew got him back on the track with a total loss of 1:42. Bryan had to make three stops and lost 2:04. McGrath stopped three times and lost 3:39, including once when his engine stalled.

Fresno friends of the short, dark and untalkative Vukovich probably will contend, with considerable reason, that if Vukovich hadn't held a full lap lead over Bryan late in the race, he would have been pushing his fuel injector special even faster than his new record of 130.840 m.p.h. He certainly wasn't loafing after starting in 19th place.

McGrath, from South Pasadena Calif., had a phenomenal average speed of 139.860 for the first 50 miles and Bryan was hardly a car length behind him at that point. McGrath reported later he was forced to abandon the torrid pace because of magneto trouble. He said he was faced with the choice of spending time in the pit while the part was changed or giving up the all-out speed.

Vukovich got ahead of Bryan during one of the latter's pit stops and stayed in front till the end. Jimmy Daywalt, later involved in a spectacular accident, led 8 laps; McGrath, 53; Bryan, 45; Sam Hanks, Burbank, Calif., 1; and Art Cross, La Porte, Ind., runner-up to Vukovich last year, 2.

Daywalt hit the northwest wall, 11 laps past the midway point of the race, and bounced off into Jim Rathmann's car, in which Pat Flaherty of Glendale, Calif., was driving relief. Neither driver was hurt but the yellow "slow down" light was on 12 minutes.

Other accidents slowed the race a total of 21 minutes and 9 seconds, but still failed to prevent the first three finishers from breaking Troy Ruttman's 1952 record speed of 128.922 m.p.h. No one was hurt.

Oregon Captures NCAA Berth

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — The University of Oregon won a berth in the NCAA national playoff at Omaha June 10 when Capt. Pete Williams tapped out a homer to defeat Fresno State 1-0 in the Far West final here Monday.

The winning run came in the third inning of the game which was halted at the end of the fifth by rain. It was one of two hits given up by Fresno State pitcher Ted Willis.

Left fielder Don Perella crashed into the barrier and knocked himself out trying to grab Williams' hit.

The Fresno Staters, who got four hits off Oregon pitcher Norm Forbes, threatened several times. They left two men on base in the first inning and in the fourth, first baseman Bob Phair was put out trying to stretch a double into a triple.

The bases were loaded in the fifth inning on two walks and a single by shortstop Ron Hager. Then J. D. Peterson popped out over Fresno State in the double play.

It was Oregon's second victory over Fresno State in the double elimination playoff here. Fresno State lost 9-5 and Seattle and Southern California were eliminated in Saturday's round.

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Oregon placed five players on the all-star team selected by tournament officials and sportswriters.

The team: Catchers—Neal Marlett, Oregon, and Bob Bennett, Fresno State; pitchers—Ralph Pausig, Southern Cal; Norm Forbes, Oregon; Ted Willis, Fresno State; first base—Dick Schlossstein, Oregon; second base—J. D. Peterson, Fresno State; third base—Pete Williams, Oregon; shortstop—Gerry Masco, Southern California; outfielders—Jack Hannah, Fresno State; George Shaw, Oregon, and Ron Hager, Fresno State.

Mason and Hager were unanimous choices.

RETRIEVES CADDY
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A golf player, Dick Sprouse, automobile salesman off the course, had to retrieve his caddy.

Sprouse tossed his club in the air, in a moment of exasperation over a missed shot. It got caught in a tree. The caddy climbed up and got caught, too, when one leg wedged in a crotch. Sprouse climbed up and made a rescue.

Seals Travel To Second

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Seals are the sensation of the Pacific Coast League, a distinction ably earned by soaring from the cellar to second place in three weeks.

They arrived Monday by way of a double win over Portland, 7-0 and 16-1, before nearly 20,000 fans who poured into Seals Stadium to welcome the team home. They had won 18 of their last 22 games.

The two additional victories over Portland put them 3 1/2 games behind the league-leading Hollywood Stars and bumped Oakland into third place.

San Diego and Sacramento advanced to fourth place, which they share, the Padres conquering Oakland 6-4 and 2-1 and the Solons edging Hollywood 1-0 and 3-2.

In Seattle the rain held off long enough for the Rainiers to win the opener, 3-1, from Los Angeles, but the second game was called after half an inning.

Elmer Singleton hurled the Seals to a two-hit shutout in the opener and Tony Ponce held Portland to five hits in the nightcap. San Francisco blossomed out with eight runs in the fat fifth inning of the second game, the Seals' most notable rally of the season. The day's work added up to six straight wins, the third time this year that San Francisco has won six straight.

Two home runs, by Diptero and Chesno, otherwise highlighted the second game.

At Seattle, Bill Evans stalled the Angels, allowing only three hits. Evans and Bill Molson, who started for Los Angeles, parried for six and one-half innings before Seattle scored. Jacques Moret tied things up with a two-out none-on homer in the top of the eighth, but Seattle came back with three singles and a sacrifice which were good for two runs and a victory that stopped a four-game losing run for the Rainiers.

San Francisco and Portland meet again Tuesday night for the only game scheduled in the league, the rest of which rests until Wednesday.

Richards Finds Cure For Problem In Kell

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
NEW YORK (AP) — (NEA)—The telephones are still ringing in Boston, but in selling George Kell the Red Sox did nothing more than dispose of a third baseman who had a bad back who has slowed down to the Pirates' pace.

Perhaps the most unusual thing about the transaction is that Thomas Austin Yawkey after all these years got a considerable sum for a performer instead of paying it. The White Sox, obviously scouting for the works and desperately attempting to repair the leak that has bothered Paul Richards most since he took over, forked over $75,000 and Grady Hezon, who was expected to be assigned to Louisville.

The timing was bad, from the Hub viewpoint, for after a miserable start, the Sox had just taken two of three at Yankee Stadium, the veteran Kell making three hits in five trips, driving in three runs, including the tying one in the eighth, and scoring twice in the rubber game.

Suspicion can't be blamed for bursting that Owner Yawkey and Joe Cronin have given up on the Red Sox at this early date.

The decision on Kell was made in Cleveland, when the one-time Arkansas Traveler, crowding 32, hit the ball all the way down the left field line and was thrown out at second base. That always has been an automatic double for anybody but a combatant with no more speed than what was possessed by Schnozzola Lombardi. Too many balls were bouncing by Kell, too.

So Junkman Richards gets a chance to repair another broken-down star. He at least has the authentic hitter whom he has been seeking.

Something had to be done about the Red Sox infield, and in the judgement of General Manager Cronin this is the first step.

The Red Sox' principal headache now is that Billy Goodman's proper spot is first base, where Harry Agganis has more than made good with the long ball and all.

A spot had to be made for Goodman, who now is the hope at third base. Versatile Billy the Kid, who also has led the league in batting, lacks the sure hands required at second base, where he could not satisfactorily make the double play. There is some question about the frail-looking North Carolinian being a replica of Billy Cox at third.

Billy Consolo, the 20-year-old bonus baby who promised so much at second base throughout the training period, was too frequently fooled at the plate.

Ted Lepcio saved a sad situation somewhat by turning out to be a pleasant surprise at second base, where there is less concern about his hitting than there is in connection with the shortstop, Milt Bolling.

Unless Jackie Jensen, who went five for 55, picks up, Goodman's services may be required in right field.

Jensen was removed for a pinch-hitter in the pay-off game with the Yankees.

When did you last see a clean-up man yanked for a pinch-hitter? Come to think of it, that's what the Sox require as much as a couple of infielders who can hit a lick.

A good fourth-place hitter swinging behind Ted Williams should come close to breaking the runs-batted-in record.

Grey-haired Johnny, now 65, watched the flashy Brooklyn kid easily whip Cleveland's Mickey Mars last night on a unanimous decision after 10 fast rounds at St. Nicholas Arena.

"Both Lulu and Ma's had better learn how to move," said Kilbane. "They're both too easy to hit. The only way to beat Perez is by leading."

Perez goes to training camp Friday to get ready for his 12-round elimination bout with Percy Bassett June 25 at Madison Square Garden. The winner has been promised a title shot at champion Sandy Saddler in the fall.

As Perez had been out of action for three months, due to a glandular condition, since he stopped ex-champ Willie Pep in two rounds, Feb. 28, his handlers were more than satisfied.

Lulu breezed home as a 3-1 favorite should, 10-0 on the card of referee Barney Felix, 9-1 from Judge Americo Schisvone and 8-2 from Judge Harold Barnes.

He floored Mars with a solid right in the fifth round, staggered him in the first, third, eighth and tenth.

In the championship flight Beeber's 227 strokes was the best in the tournament, while second place went to Adolf Zamsky with rounds of 76-78-80 for a 234 total.

The net scoring of the championship flight was won by Jim Boyle with a 208 and Howard Scroggins managed to pick up the second place prize with his 217 strokes.

Norm Moty and Eddie Hall supplied the closest race of the tournament in the first flight, when Moty registered in with his 253 stroke score and Hall was right behind with a 254.

Net in the first flight was won by Stan Miller, and John McGinnis placed second. Miller's total was 206 while McGinnis stroked a 215 total in three rounds.

Second flight action was led by Clint Harvey and Ted Bingham in the low gross action as they posted 272 and 277 scores respectively.

Earl Hamilton and Paul Angstead tied for the lead in the low net honors in the second flight with scores of 273.

In yesterday's special attraction, Cal Bonney won the hole in one contest on the seventh hole by placing his first shot just inches away from the cup.

Over 30 golfers took part in the three day tourney that finished yesterday and the whole Klamath Basin as well as representatives from other states was represented in the open golf meet according to Earl Schmeier, pro at the local golf course.

Schmeier also stated that club members, whose handicap is between 15-20 and 20-29 will be eligible for this Sunday's Derby.

Qualifying rounds will be made all this week with Saturday night being the final time limit on qualifications. The Derby will be run off at 1:15 and 2:15 Sunday afternoon.

Experts Looking For Track Champ

NEW YORK (AP) — The experts who annually select the 1954 turf champions are going to have to do a lot of head scratching this year unless some horse manages right soon to put together a respectable winning streak.

Of course June 1 is a little too early to start nominating 3-year-olds for honors but usually by this time the situation in the 3-year-old and handicap divisions is pretty well settled. It was last year with Native Dancer dominating the 3-year-old division and Tom Fool bossing the handicap aces.

The grey Dancer figured to have his way this year in the handicap class but right now he is on the sidelines nursing a sore tootsie. Just when he'll return to the races not even owner Alf Vanderbilt or trainer Bill Winfrey can say. Winfrey says not even the vets have been able to find out what is hurting him.

And with Vanderbilt's big grey absent, the other members of the division have been beating each other almost with every shift in weights. Straight Face has a claim to the title off his victory in yesterday's Suburban at Belmont Park, after being noosed out by the Dancer in the mile of the Metropolitan Handicap two weeks ago.

Imbros looked like he was going somewhere on the West Coast for Andy Crevelin, but he has been whipped in his last three starts. Royal Vale, who offered Tom Fool an argument a couple of times last year, hasn't raced anywhere near his 1953 form. And so it goes right down the line.

Native Dancer can save the experts a lot of brain work if he gets back to work shortly. The Brooklyn Handicap at Aqueduct on July 10 offers the next big opportunity for the grey to show he's still boss.

The 3-year-olds, are in just as much trouble. Right now Determina has the inside track off six straight stake victories on the West Coast and a surprise triumph in the Kentucky Derby.

But Brewin's little grey is headed back West after his Derby conquest and unless his owner decides to ship him East again, he may lose face. Especially should Porthouse live up to his reputation as the 2-year-old champ of 1953.
