

Guatemala Government Braces For Revolution, But No Action Seen Yet

GUATEMALA (AP)—Guatemala's leftist government kept a close watch on Latin-American embassies today for fugitives from a roundup of underground opposition leaders.

Local newspapers said widespread police searches so far had uncovered nothing to support the government's charges Sunday that plans were under way for an uprising and arms had been assembled secretly.

One diplomatic source viewed this as evidence that anti-government forces had "well-organized intelligence" forces, enabling them to learn "an hour or two before the raids that they are coming so they can escape or seek refuge."

Five leading opponents of President Jacob Arbenz's regime already have found asylum in the embassies of El Salvador and Ecuador in accordance with the Latin-American political tradition that sanctuary must be given to political fugitives. Reliable reports said the government was maintaining a guard on these and other embassies to prevent other fugitives escaping to them.

Guatemalans have been jittery since the United States began blasting their government for receiving a large shipment of arms from Communist Poland two weeks ago.

The newspaper El Espectador said "recruiters" for Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, a leading opponent of Arbenz now living in neighboring Honduras, had been discovered near the Honduran border. Without giving any source for its report, the paper said the government had found evidence of a "vast conspiracy" to build up a rebel army.

In Tegucigalpa, capital of neighboring Honduras, a 45-year-old man identifying himself as a Guatemalan named Rafael Mendez Rodriguez summoned correspondents to a news conference yesterday and said Guatemala's present secret police chief had sent him to kill Col. Castillo.

Mendez said he told Castillo of the plot the day after he arrived in El Salvador, in March.

McCarthy Set On Army Probe

CHICAGO (AP)—The Tribune said Tuesday that Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) has announced he will resume his investigation of Communist influences in the military upon the conclusion of hearings in the McCarthy-Army dispute.

In a dispatch from Washington, Willard Edwards said that McCarthy announced he would summon Army Secretary Stevens as the first witness in a public hearing to determine why Maj. Irving Peress received "preferential treatment" in the Army despite "an open Communist record."

The Tribune said: "Now openly at war with the Eisenhower administration, McCarthy vowed he would not be sidetracked from an inquiry into 'vised circus' which started April military subversion by the 'tele. 22.
