

YOUR NEW WALLPAPER can lead you all through the house with delightful room-to-room color tie-ins. Here you see the dining room from a kitchen view. Like soft background music, the textured wallpaper in the dining room echoes the bright and beautiful colors of the tropical pattern framing the kitchen door. To give your home a spacious look, the Wallpaper Council advises that you start your color scheme in the living room and carry it all through the house. Avoid monotone, but choose complementary colors for contrast.

"YOUNG SOPHISTICATE," a shortmaker from the Rose Marie Reid collection, was created to fit with the easy flattery of a favorite pair of shorts, and to take a firm hand with wayward figures because it is elasticized. Actually embroidered with cloud-and-star patterns on white, navy, ocean pearl, brown or jade. Available locally, it comes in sizes 12 to 20.

Lenox Patterns Used in Fabrics

Lenox china patterns and service plates have been used as the basis for a group of chintzes in the fall line being introduced by Seneca Textile Corporation.

The fabric house has based its new collection, in varying color combination, on Lenox's Cascade, Ming, Pine, Rhodora, Starlight, Wheat and West Wind patterns. Fruit service plates also have been used.

Solid colors derived from the Lenox palette include emerald, spruce, rose, dove, parchment, blue and cerise.

GIVE A HANKY

A favored gift for centuries, dainty handkerchiefs are now available enclosed in greeting cards which are suitable for birthday anniversaries or an "bread and butter" gift for those by whom you have been entertained.

Blueberry Cake Roll

Here is a fruit roll from Nancy Haven's Beet Sugar Kitchen, of the Western Beet Sugar Producers in California.

FILLING
2 cups blueberries
1 cup beet or cane sugar
4 tablespoons cornstarch
Combine blueberries, sugar and cornstarch in saucepan; cook until thickened. Set aside; cool thoroughly.

CAKE
3 eggs
1 cup beet or cane sugar
1-3 cup water
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
Beat eggs until thick and creamy (about 4 minutes); add sugar gradually beating well after each addition. Combine water and flavoring and beat into egg-sugar mixture. Stir in sifted dry ingredients — only until blended. Pour cake batter into jelly roll pan (10 x 15 inches) which has been lined with greased and floured paper. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 15 minutes; turn on tea towel dusted with powdered sugar. Peel off paper. Roll up; tie ends; hang up to cool. Unroll and spread with blueberry filling. Re-roll, slice and serve with whipped cream. Makes six 2 1/2-inch slices.

MINUTE STEAK
Minute steaks are steaks which are cut very thin, about three-eighths of an inch. These are cooked very quickly in a hot frying pan. By the time the steaks are brown on both sides they are done. Serve at once with browned butter on the steak.

VERSATILE SALADS
Salads play many roles and play each of them well. As an appetizer, molded salads made with fruit flavored gelatin are inviting; as a side dish, helpful; as a main dish, satisfying, and as a dessert, pleasurable.

SOMBRERO TAMALES make a delicious casserole of satisfying food which all the "cow punchers" in your family will praise. Place a 15-oz. can or jar of tamales and sauce in the bottom of a greased two-quart baking dish. Top with 3 cups cooked rice. Pour a 15 1/2-oz. can of chili con carne with beans over the rice. Add 3/4 cup water, and top with 1/4 lb. American cheese sliced. Place in a 350 degree oven for 30 minutes or until the cheese has melted and the tamales, rice and chili con carne mixture is heated through. If desired, save out three of the tamales and arrange them on top of the cheese in the shape of a sombrero as pictured. Do this about 10 minutes before the cooking time is over in order that these tamales may become hot.
