Democrats To Hold Rally

PORTLAND (AP) — Oregon Democrats will hold their big rally, featuring Adlai Stevenson, in Eugene on July 10.

Howard Morgan, state Democratic chairman, announced the date for the previously planned rally and confirmed here Wednesday that the Democrats' 1952 presidential candidate would be the principal speaker.

The party's candidates for top state offices also will appear, including Richard L. Neuberger, Portland, state senator seeking to unseat U. S. Sen. Guy Cordon; Joseph K. Carson Jr., Portland, candidate for governor; Norman O. Nilsen, Portland, candidate for labor commissioner, and the congressional candidates:

Donnell Mitchell, Willamina, first district; Albert Ullman, Baker, second district; Mrs. Edith Green, Portland, third district; Charles O. Porter, Eugene, fourth district.

Morgan said Stevenson also plans to spend several days in Oregon, either before or after his Eugene appearance.

The party's state central committee will hold its biennial organization meeting at Eugene that day, Morgan added.

Two other party meetings were announced. Mrs. Katie Loucheim, director of women's activities for the Democratic national committee, will speak at Portland, June 19, and at Bend, June 21.
