Prize Diamond Story Told On Dave Philley

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—One of the prize stories of the past spring baseball training season concerned the arrival of Dave Philley, a fairly undistinguished outfielder, at the camp of the Cleveland Indians in Tucson, Ariz.

Seems that Philley, a forthright native of Paris, Tex., who had been shipped to the Indians during the winter by the Philadelphia Athletics, showed up wearing his 273 lifetime batting mark like a shield and said he believed he knew what had been ailing Manager Al Lopez's club. This was interesting, inasmuch as the Indians had just finished second to the

Compton Hosts Big Track Meet

COMPTON, Calif. (AP)—Compton's Ramsaur Field, a small, cramped and improbable site for a major event, welcomes some of the world's greatest track and field athletes tonight.

The place boasts of one attribute, if nothing else—one of the fastest racing tracks in the nation. Over it will run the mighty Wes Santee of Kansas, taking dead aim at Roger Bannister's 3:59.4 mile record in the feature event of the evening.

"I'm going to try real hard," Santee promised.

Coasting interest with the Santee appearance will be events featuring shot-putter Parry O'Brien, ready to improve on his mark of 60 feet 5 1/2 inches; pole vaulter Bob Richards; half-mile runner George Rhoden; discus star Fortune Gordien; sprinter Andy Stanfield; and long-distance runner Horace Ashenfelter.

Santee, whose college career ended with the second fastest mile in history, a mark of 4:01.3 set last Saturday, repeated on his arrival here that he hopes "to run faster—the best time I've had ever."

Byrne Signed For Portland Ring Battle

PORTLAND (AP)—Jimmy Byrne of Portland and Andy Walker of San Francisco were signed Thursday for the 10-round main event of a boxing card to be held here June 15.

A six-round heavyweight semi-final will match Chuck Maxson of Portland and LeRoy (Sugar) Hart of Longview.

Giant Comes Out Of Slump With Homers

Thompson Duplicates HR Record

By BEN PHILGAR
AP Sports Writer
If a hitter in a slump came to the New York Giants today for advice he probably would get pretty confused.

Hank Thompson can recommend highly 10 days of rest.

Willie Mays would prescribe going "all out" for 10 games.

Both ways have worked miracles for the Giants' stars.

Thompson's idleness wasn't by choice—he was sidelined with a banged-up knee—but obviously it did him a world of good. When he got hurt against Pittsburgh May 25 the third baseman was hitting a puny .237 with six home runs and only 11 runs batted in.

Last night in St. Louis he came back to the lineup and smashed home runs into the right field pavilion in his first three times at bat. He was walked purposely the fourth time as the crowd boomed. He singled home a run on his fifth appearance.

He accounted for eight runs and raised his average 25 points to .292. The three homers in succession equaled the modern National League record shared by 16 other players but not duplicated since 1950.

Ten games ago Mays was hitting .260. Now he has a 10-game hitting streak working during which he's collected 23 safeties, 12 of them for extra bases and 8 of them home runs. He hit his 15th and 16th last night as the Giants walked the Cardinals 13-8. This gave him a tie for the league lead with Hank Sauer of the Chicago Cubs.

Mays drove in 5 runs to raise his total to 42, of which 22 have come in these last 10 games.

Three other games in the National League were postponed because of rain.

In the American, the Chicago White Sox moved within a game of first-place Cleveland as they beat Boston 9-6 while the Indians were dropping a 2-1 verdict to the New York Yankees. Washington edged Detroit 4-3 and Philadelphia and Baltimore swapped seventh and eighth places again as the Athletics beat the Orioles 6-2.

The Red Sox battered Virgil Trucks and Don Johnson, both of whom had beaten them on shutouts earlier this year, for 15 hits but left 13 men on base. The hits included Ted Williams' fifth home run and Harry Agganis' fifth.

Cleveland collected 11 off Eddie Lopat and the Yankees got only four off Bob Lemon. But one of the four was a home run in the eighth inning by Joe Collins that gave the Yanks their first victory at home over Cleveland this season.

All four Washington runs were unearned as Ned Garver gave up seven hits. Two of the three Detroit tallies also were tainted by errors. Maury McDermott was the winner.

Don Larsen, who figured to be one of Baltimore's leading pitchers lost his sixth game against only two victories. Joe DeMaestri honored for Philadelphia. Bob Young for Baltimore, both with the bases empty.

What Dave said, in effect, was that he had been a great admirer of the Indians, with reservations. They had looked to him like a club which should win the pennant. He was hanged if he knew they hadn't been winning it, unless it was just that they needed to have a fire lit under 'em. He said quite sincerely that he hoped to do just that.

Partly on the fine defensive play and timely bat of the A's castoff and partly to several imaginative moves made by Manager Lopez, such as shifting Al Rosen to third base and installing rookies at third base and in left field, this year's Cleveland club is a different looking outfit. Whether Philley personally lit the fire it would be difficult to say, but somebody did.

It is not simple to peg this outfit. It seems to have given up some of its fearsome power by sending huge Luke Easter to Ottawa and by benching Dale Mitchell, whose 315 lifetime batting average is second only to that of Ted Williams one of the rawest rookies in the land. Rudy Regalado, at third, and Al Smith, who hit only .240 in 47 games with the Indians last year, in Mitchell's old job in left field.

But, it's winning the very kind of games that the "old" Indians made a practice of doing. It has a new spirit. Few more thrilling games have been played than the opener of the current series with the Yanks, in which the Indians spotted the champions seven big runs in the first inning and came on to lick them 8-7 in the 10th. Before the shakeup, the Indians simply did not do such things. Or, perhaps we should have said, before Philley.

Interservice Club Tourney
Kiwanis and Rotary met on the Beames Golf Course Wednesday afternoon in an interservice club tournament with the Kiwanians taking a 15-12 verdict from the Rotarians.

Although the Kiwanis Club won in the point basis, Rotary captain Ralph Davis protested because the winners didn't field a full team, and his team did. In that case it would have finished in a 15-15 draw.

John West of Kiwanis led his team with a 77 and Carl Woods posted the best Rotary score with an 81. Second places went to Martin Swanson in Kiwanis with his 81 and to Rotarian Frank Tarr with his 82.

Guy Barker was the Kiwanis captain, while Davis handled the Rotary Club's golf team.

Eduardo Lause Meets Rindone
NEW YORK (AP)—Eduardo (KO) Lause, Argentina's wild swinging Kayo artist, is a 1-4 favorite to rack up his 17th straight victory against balding Joey Rindone of Boston in a midweight 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

PORTLAND (AP)—Promoter Tex Salkeld figures a rematch here between Don Cockell and Harry Matthews would draw from $150,000 to $200,000.

That's the bait he's using to lure Cockell, the British Empire heavyweight champion, to the Northwest for another meeting with the Seattle Kid.

Cockell took a close decision from Matthews at Seattle last summer and repeated at London last Tuesday. After the London match, Jack Hurley, Matthews' manager, asked for a rematch in the Northwest and Cockell's manager agreed to consider it.

Thompson Claims Card As Cousin

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Hank Thompson of the New York Giants was convinced today, after tying a modern National League home run record, that there's no pitcher he'd rather face than Gerald Staley.

Thompson tied the modern league mark for consecutive home runs in a single game, by rapping out four baggers in the successive times at bat, as the Giants overpowered the St. Louis Cardinals 13-8 last night.

The 28-year-old New York third baseman also singled and, in all, drove across eight runs.

"I kinda like Staley's pitching," Thompson said after the game.

He explained his homers came on three different types of pitches—the first one a curve, the second on a change-up pitch and the third on a fast ball.

Then, grinning, he recalled he hadn't hit a home run since May 18 until he belted his three last night. That May 18 clout was off Staley too, Thompson's home run total is nine.

The Negro infielder missed a chance to equal the major league record of four consecutive home runs in a single game, set by Lou Gehrig, when he was walked intentionally in the seventh on his fourth time up. The pass was ordered with a man on second and none out.
