BRIDE-ELECT BARBARA SMETZ

Farewell Tribute Paid To Mrs. Myrtle Denton by CI Club

FORT KLAMATH — Business and pleasure were combined at the regular meeting of the Civic Improvement Club, Friday afternoon, May 21.

Reports by special committees were given on three successful fund raising projects in May. Next club project will be installation of new restroom facilities. Mrs. Joanna Taylor to head the committee.

The revealing of last year's secret pal names and the drawing of new ones was postponed until the second June meeting on the 18th.

A white elephant sale will be held instead, June 4; each member to bring a wrapped article for sale.

Plans were made for the first of the two annual birthday parties for club members. Committee members include Mrs. Dennis Knowles, Mrs. Jack Thomas, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Harold Wimer and Myrtle Denton.

Denton, now living in Ashland, will bring flowers for the occasion.

A tribute was paid to Mrs. Denton at the meeting and a gift of dinnerware was given her — with a gift of cash to purchase additional pieces of the same pattern. She has held the offices of president, secretary and treasurer at various times during her 25 year membership; and has lived on the Denton ranch for 50.

After expressing her thanks, Mrs. Denton gave the club a large wrapped package which proved to contain costumes worn by her in comic presentations several years ago. They were donated by Mrs. James Van Wormer and Mrs. William A. Page, who entertained with a humorous skit written especially for the occasion by Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams.

Refreshments were served from a white covered table centered with a crystal ball of water containing a large red apple (in keeping with the apple-patterned china gift). Arrangements of apple blossoms and red apples extended the entire length of the table.

Hostesses were Mrs. Hansford T. Williams, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and Mrs. James F. Van Wormer, assisted by Mrs. Harold Wimer.

Special guests were Mrs. Olene Briscoe, Klamath Falls, and her daughter, Mrs. Paul Wanpler, Chiloquin; Mrs. William Zumbro and her mother, Mrs. Harry Brown, visiting here at the Zumbro home from Porterville; Mrs. Martin Yegge; Mrs. Blaine Brattain and daughter, Mary; and Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, all of Fort Klamath.

Other members attending included Mrs. Walter J. Wright, Mrs. James Dyche, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Charles M. Noah, Mrs. Edith Moon, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. Dennis Knowles, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Neil Neilson, Mrs. Frank

Shower For Barbara Smetz

Mrs. Raymond Owens and Mrs. Bill Andrus were hostesses at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Owens, 3315 Alva Avenue on May 21 in honor of Barbara Smetz, bride-elect of Edmond Andersch.

The lace covered table was decorated with an arrangement of spring flowers, with pink candle holders and bride and bridegroom figurines in keeping with the bridal theme.

Several games were played during the evening; and prizes awarded the winners.

Guest list included Mrs. Tony Steinbock, Mrs. George Wright, Mrs. Ray Dingman, Mrs. Arnold Jarvis, Mrs. Harvey Ayers, Mrs. Otto Ellis and Linda; Mrs. A. E. Griffin, Mrs. Emilie Washburn, Mrs. Jack Holmes, Mrs. Stanley Newberry, Mrs. Ralph Liggett, Mrs. Charles Mann, Mrs. Walter Neupp, Mrs. Walter Andersch, Mrs. Jack Haynes, Mrs. Mathilda Ellis, Mrs. Patrick Pratt, Mrs. Axel Hedlund, Mrs. Leonard Matson, Mrs. Pat Kossman, Mrs. James Kelly, Mrs. Ralph Janson, Mrs. Joe Quinowski, Mrs. Josephine Sterritt, Clea Bratton, Frances Taylor, Kathleen Carrier, Pat Walker, Jonette Brandesky and Kathleen Gallagher.

Birthday Dinner For Joanna Taylor

FORT KLAMATH — The home of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Page was the charming setting for a birthday party given by Mrs. Page and Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine on Tuesday evening, May 18, in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Joanna Taylor.

Co-hostesses served a delicious Italian spaghetti dinner at seven o'clock, and an appropriately decorated birthday cake, a gift from Mrs. Taylor's "secret pal" in the Civic Improvement Club group, was cut and served as part of dessert.

Arrangements of gay daffodil and narcissus blooms handsomely decorated the Page living room and refreshment tables.

After dinner, the honored guest was given a handkerchief shower and birthday greeting cards from friends. She also received special gifts from the two hostesses, and others from friends not attending.

Bridge and pinocle was the diversion until a late hour. Prize for high score at bridge was awarded to Mrs. Harold Wimer; consolation to Mrs. Mildred Castel; and Mrs. William Zumbro had high score in pinocle.

Other guests of Mrs. Page and Mrs. Van Iderstine were Mrs. Harry Brown, a house guest at the Zumbro home from Porterville; Mrs. Richard O. Varnum, Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain and Mrs. Elmer (Dutch) Zembro.

Unable to attend, but sending Mrs. Taylor a birthday remembrance was Mrs. Gene A. Page. Special gifts were also received from two other friends, Mrs. Margaret Watson and Mrs. Mitchell (Mike) Beaulieu.

MR. AND MRS. LESLIE ALEXANDER . . . 4415 Peck Drive, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Ruth Mary, to Archie Overen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Overen, 3703 Summers Lane. The wedding date is set for June 13, in the First Presbyterian Church at 3 p.m. —Photo by Guderian

Year Ends For WSCS

The final meeting of the year for the Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church May 27 was largely devoted to committee reports and general business.

Mrs. Howard Hanka provided piano music before the opening hymn and prayer by the president, Mrs. Joe Bramhall.

Dianne Dennis was chosen youth representative to the summer school of missions convening this month at Camp McGruder.

Mrs. Fred Wade announced the opening of the summer Bible school June 7 through 18, Monday through Friday, at the church. Children from the ages four to 14 are invited to attend. Parents of these children are invited to attend open house the night of June 17. On the closing day, a picnic will be held for all children who attended.

Jurisdiction credit cards were received for the completion of three adult study courses held during the year.

The re-assignment of circle members was made.

Mrs. A. W. Cowman led devotions, basing her text on John, 3-16.

Mrs. Steve Moss, program chairman, talked on the theme, "The Might of Many." She was assisted by Mrs. Elsie Burton, Mrs. A. W. Cowman, Mrs. Fred Wade and Mrs. Bert Hegler.

Reports of delegates to the state conference held in Eugene April 23 and 24 were given by Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Lloyd Holloway.

Announcement was made of Mrs. Bramhall's election as president of the WSCS sub-district at the May meeting in Lakeview.

Mrs. Bramhall, after expressing her appreciation to her officers and the society for their work and support, introduced Mrs. John C. Mason, 1954-55 president.

Mrs. Lawrence Phelps presented a president's pin to Mrs. Bramhall and a gift to Mrs. Jennie Pelta who will move soon to San Francisco.

Tea, coffee and cookies were served to approximately 70 guests. Mrs. Yaden and Mrs. Bramhall poured.
