

RADIO CONVENTION PLANNERS got together recently to map an outline for the Oregon Amateur Radio Association convention slated for Klamath Falls June 26 and 27. Shown here (left to right) seated: Bill Fink, Roy Felix, Helen Lee, Luryne Conner. Standing: Pauline Stemler, Fay Stanley, Joy Ustick, Lew Stanley, Gertrude Felix and Frank Robison. Some 300 "hams" are expected to attend and will be offered a full schedule during their day stay in the Basin.

BASIN BRIEFS

Meeting — Shasta View Home economics club will meet Tuesday, June 8, 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gladys Cress, 2949 Hilsbee Street. All members and friends are urged to attend.

Correction — The Beneficial obituary should have read, surviving, his mother, Evrena Clark Benefield, Lakeview; three daughters, Mrs. George Jaaki, Lakeview; Mrs. Dalton Johnson, Klamath Falls; Mrs. L. H. Showman, Paradise, California.

Catholic Daughters — regular meeting will be held June 14 instead of June 7 as announced.

To Yreka — Felisberto Laureano, Merrill, spent Sunday in Hawkinsville, attending the annual celebration that included contests, games and modern and old time dancing. This is the 54th year of celebration.

Vacation — Dr. and Mrs. Jack Martin, 2903 South Sixth Street, are leaving today for a six weeks vacation trip to Alaska and British Columbia. They plan to travel the Alcan Highway and return the inland route.

Away — Hettie Champagne, switchboard operator at the Herald and News, will spend two weeks on vacation in Southern California. During her absence the board will be in charge of Inez Iverson, former employee of the paper.

Visiting — Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fowler, Ford, Kansas, are guests of Mrs. Fowler's mother, Mrs. Dora Stone and other relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Book, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James Brownfield and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stone. The guests who have extensive wheat land farming interests in Kansas, drove west.

Dinner Meeting — Tuesday, June 8, 6:30 p.m. at Harold's Club for members of the Klamath County Democratic Club. New officers will be elected. None of the incumbents.

Dorothy Lowell, secretary; Blanche Petroff, president, Dorothy Buck, treasurer or Don Tremblay, vice president, are up for reelection. Mrs. Lowell is running for state representative. Tremblay has moved to Medford and others have given pressure of business as the reason for declining.

New Assistant — at Red Cross headquarters is Mrs. Maryanne (Ed) Granas, resident of Klamath Falls for 20 years who has accepted a position with the Red Cross, succeeding Mrs. Barbara Cooper, resigned. Mrs. Cooper, with her position for four years, will attend summer school at Oregon State College. She will teach next fall in Klamath County.

Visitor — Mrs. Vance Hutchins, 1622 Riverside, Klamath County pioneer, was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Casey near Bly. The Casey cattle ranch is at the head of Whiskey Creek. During Mrs. Hutchins' visit she was taken to see an unusual tree on the flat land, that is the only specimen in that area of its kind. The tree, surrounded by junipers, with needles similar to a juniper, is dark green in color, and some 40 feet high. The late Mr. Hutchins was one-time editor of the old Merrill Record.

Sojourners — will install officers at the regular meeting at the Willard Hotel, Wednesday, June 9. Reservations for the special luncheon at 12:30 noon, must be made by tonight with Allison Hoag, phone 9441.

June 12 — will be the last meeting of the spring Siskiyou County Historical Society. Dr. Kenneth O. Young, of the Yreka schools, authority on geology, will speak, illustrating his talk with colored slides and charts. A field trip will be held Sunday, June 13. The bus will leave the county library at 10 a.m. for a trip through Willow Creek and Little Shasta areas. Jerome Ager, James Hohrer, Harry Cash, Joseph Heasig and others will share their knowledge of this primitive country. About 50 points of interest will be seen. Take lunch to be eaten at the Little Shasta grange hall. Charlie Masson is field chairman.

Visitors — over the weekend in Klamath Falls were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Slaymaker of Portland. He is a retired artist of the Oregon Journal.

Enlisted — Gerald D. Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Case 3903 Harvard, has enlisted in the U. S. Air Force and is stationed at an air force base in Texas. He was formerly employed at Mouldcraft, Inc.

Scholarship — The Republic Carloading and Distribution Company, Inc. has established an annual $700 scholarship to be awarded to an outstanding junior or senior majoring in traffic management and transportation at the University of Oregon. Further information may be obtained from the university.

DAY Convention — All Gold Star Mothers are invited to be guests at a tea in their honor at Jen-Ea's on June 9, from 3 to 4 p.m. Those wishing transportation are asked to call 6184 or 2-2518.

Bly — A safety rally to be held Tuesday evening, 8 p.m., at Bly Theater, is being sponsored by Bly Grange No. 771. All residents are urged to attend.

Home — Mrs. J. H. Carnahan has returned to Klamath Falls after spending two years with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Haines, in Florida. For the present she is staying with Mrs. Walter Thompson, 1545 Sargent Street.

Stationed — S-Sgt. Vernon C.

Dillstrom, son of Mrs. and Mrs. E. Dillstrom, 1919 Worden, is now stationed at Mountain Home Air Force Base, Idaho. He is assigned to the 9th Armament and Electronics Squadron at the Idaho installation. He entered the army in September, 1952, and has recently returned from a tour of duty in the Far East.

Korra — Cpl. Lemuel Z. Lewis, son of Mrs. Olive E. Lewis, Hubbard, and husband of Bernice Lewis, Canby, recently received the Good Conduct Medal while serving in Korea.

KASRU — meets at the Pilots Club Lounge at the municipal airport Wednesday, June 9, at 8 p.m.

In Far East — Navy Chief Boat-swain Robert J. Derra, son of William Derra of Malin is serving aboard the refrigeration store ship USS Polaris in the Far East.

Civil Service — announces an examination for substitute clerk to fill a vacancy in the Merrill Post Office. Applicants must actually reside within the delivery of that post office. Applications should be filed with the Director, Eleventh U.S. Civil Service Region, 302 Federal Office Building, Seattle 4, immediately.

STUDY WASHINGTON (AP) — An extensive scientific study of the causes of rainfall is being planned for Hawaii in October and November. Scientists from many parts of the world are scheduled to participate in the research which they hope will unfold the secrets of rainfall formation and perhaps lead to ways to control rain.

People Do Read SPOT ADS — you are!

OSC Grant Totals Told

OREGON STATE COLLEGE — Grants and gifts to Oregon State College, totaled more than $762,000 this school year. This is some $294,000 more than last year. The agricultural experiment station and agricultural research foundation received $230,329 of the total. Single gifts and grants ranged in value from $1 to $39,200. The smallest represented library pamphlets and the largest was a fund for wheat research. In its second year, the Science Research Institute received $61,500, nearly double last year's research income from grants.

Malin Holds Commencement

MALIN — Commencement exercises of Malin High School were held at the Broadway Theater, Wednesday, June 2, at 8 p.m. Senior class roll included, Nada Derry, Ruth Douglas, Janet Elmore, George Evans, Flo Johnson, Jo Johnson, Ruth Kalins, Darlene Kessler, Ron Loveness, Martha McAuliffe, Stanley Miller, Pearl Ottoman, Edward Pierce, Virgil Rick, Barbara Salyers, Darla Sarutski, Shirley Schofield, Shirley Travis and Don Unruh.

Exercises were opened with selections by the high school band under the direction of Charles Dobry, including the senior procession.

The Rev. Carl DeMott led the audience in the invocation. The salutatory address was made by Janet Elmore. The senior gift, $55, to be used toward the purchase of a new trophy case, was presented to Marvin Macken by Stan Miller. The boys chorus, under the direction of Don Miller, presented two numbers and the girls chorus, under the direction of Jean Gahn sang several numbers.

Rev. Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction, spoke on individual personality development. Diplomas were presented by Carrol Howe, county school superintendent.

Shirley Travis gave the valedictory address. Shirley also won the coveted Elks scholarship. Darla Sarutski received the OSC Dad's Club award and Ruth Kalins received the award for the best school spirit. Other awards received by students at the school assembly May 28, have been announced and published. Class advisor was A. E. Street.

On The Record

BIRTHS KENNEALLY — Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kenneally, June 5 at Klamath Valley Hospital, a girl weighing 3 lbs. 8 oz.

WILES — Born to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wiles, June 6 at Klamath Valley Hospital, a girl weighing 7 lbs. 15 oz.

BEAUCHAMP — Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beauchamp, June 6 at Klamath Valley Hospital, a girl weighing 5 lbs. 9 oz.

BLASOR — Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blasor, June 6 at Klamath Valley Hospital, a boy weighing 7 lbs. 8 oz.

Keno School Holds Services

KENO — Graduation exercises for the eighth grade were held Wednesday, June 2. Graduates were: Georgia Ager, Roger Boyd, Phyllis Cain, Mickey Granas, Delbert Powell, Maxine Scherer, Robert Scherer, Earnest Smith, Warren Bohrokoff, Darrell Wick and Donald Carroll.

Special intramural sports awards were presented to Beverly Scherer, Earnest Smith, Lorraine Clark, Duane Hinshaw, Georgia Ager, Delbert Powell, Phyllis Cain, Warren Bohrokoff and Joe DeGrande.

Robert Scherer and Phyllis Cain were presented the citizenship awards and Delbert Powell the scholarship award.

The program followed with John Ely playing the processional and recessional with additional organ selections during the program.

The 6th grade chorus sang and Rev. Melvin Griffith gave the invocation. Awards were presented by Stan Sevrak, principal, with the Rev. George Alder giving the commencement address.

Richard Jameson, chairman of the school board, presented the diplomas and the program closed with the Rev. Melvin Griffith giving the benediction.

EFFORT

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Foreign Minister Richard G. Casey said Monday night Australia will continue to strive for a settlement of the Indochina fighting by negotiation.

DAV Planning Memorial Rite

Olive Adamson, department chaplain for Disabled American Veterans in Oregon, has announced plans for memorial services to be held in connection with the DAV convention in Klamath Falls June 9 through 12.

Memorial services will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at First Christian Church.

The program will include an organ selection, Mrs. Arthur Denison; color presentation, DAV honor guard; invocation, Charles Poole; Scripture text, the Rev. George Alder, minister at First Christian Church. Vocal solo, "Lord's Prayer," Dean Stevens; message, "God Makes the Difference," Mrs. Adamson; vocal solo, "Beyond the Sunset," Stanley Kendall; In Memoriam (roll call of deceased members); "Largo," First Christian Church choir directed by Charles Uhlig; closing prayer, the Rev. Alder.

Mrs. Adamson has extended a personal invitation to everyone in the Klamath Basin to attend the memorial services.

Advertisement for 'Look For This Sign' featuring 'Kryofalkote ALBUM PRINTS Photofinishing'. It includes a graphic of a camera and a sign that says 'RECEIVE YOUR PHOTOPRINTS LIKE THIS AT YOUR DEALER'.

Large advertisement for 'EMIL'S SUPER MARKET'. It features a list of products and prices: Tomatoes 2 lbs. ? (Holiday), Red, Ripe; Sweet Clover BUTTER lb. ? (Chase & Sanborn); Delicious Sliced Bacon lb. ? (Good Quality); Beef Roasts lb. ? (Fed. graded "Good" & "Choice" Beef from our own feed lot); Margarine 3 lbs. ?; Coffee lb. - 2 lb. ?; BROOMS each ?; Beef Boil lb. ? (Lean and meaty). It also includes the address '9th and PINE' and a note 'No phone calls, PLEASE'.

Advertisement for 'SAVE TIME' featuring 'UNITED AIR LINES'. It lists flight schedules: Southbound Mainliners (Leave at 4:10 P.M. SAN FRANCISCO . 3 hrs. LOS ANGELES . 5 1/2 hrs.) and Northbound Mainliners (Leave at 9:10 A.M. PORTLAND . . . 2 1/2 hrs. SPOKANE . . . 6 hrs. SEATTLE . . . 3 3/4 hrs.). It also mentions 'Fast, luxurious flights to "all the East"' and provides contact information for travel agents.

Large advertisement for 'Old Quaker Straight Bourbon Whiskey'. It features a portrait of an elderly man holding a bottle of whiskey. Text includes: 'I like the best for the least—Old Quaker is my choice!', 'He's "The Price-Conscious Type"', 'What attracted him to Old Quaker was... low price. What holds him is: Straight Bourbon of fine quality. A Bourbon Man—he naturally chooses "The Bourbon-man's Bourbon!"', 'Old Quaker The Bourbon-man's Bourbon Fine Straight BOURBON Whiskey 6 years old at no extra cost'. At the bottom, it says 'STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY, 65% PROOF, OLD QUAKER DISTILLING CO., LAWRENCEBURG, IND.'.

Advertisement for Greyhound buses. It features the slogan 'You Pay So Little and Get So Much... by Greyhound!'. It includes a list of 'SAMPLE LOW FARES FROM KLAMATH FALLS': Portland, Ore. $ 5.85; Vancouver, B.C. $12.45; Spokane, Wash. $12.45; San Francisco $ 6.10; Los Angeles $10.40; Reno, Nev. $ 5.90; Salt Lake $18.15. It also lists benefits: 'Air Suspension Ride on many schedules!', 'Thru Express Buses to & from more places!', 'Service to all 48 states, Canada too!', 'More frequent, convenient departures!', 'Choice of more routes... go one way, return another!', 'Close-up scenery at its best!', 'Downtown to downtown service!', 'No traffic worries, no parking problems!'. It concludes with 'Greyhound alone offers you so much for so little!' and contact information: 'Agent, J. K. SAYRE 904 Klamath Phone 5521'.