Finn Twins Held Guilty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A federal court jury has convicted the Finn twins on two charges which followed their citizens' arrest of a federal prosecutor.

A jury of six men and six women returned its verdict last night after deliberating five hours. Charles and George Finn were tried for conspiracy and for assaulting a government official.

Mountain Climbing Expedition Quits

NEW DELHI (AP)—Himalayan mountaineering sources said today Sir Edmund Hillary, conqueror of mighty Mt. Everest, is leading his New Zealand expedition out of Nepal after a siege of pneumonia.

Rotary Meet Marks Time

SEATTLE (AP)—The 45th annual convention of Rotary International marked time with routine business here Tuesday as the 8,000 delegates from 60 nations awaited the arrival of U.S. Secretary of State Dulles.

Dulles is scheduled to address the convention Thursday morning in what has been billed in advance as a major speech.

News Hawk Foils Robbery Try

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP)—A newspaper reporter frustrated a would-be robber here with the mere flick of his press card.

Chester Brooks, 18, a reporter for the San Angelo Standard-Times was waiting at a bus station when he was charged yesterday with assault with intent to rob.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A bill to authorize $2,620,000 for altering and reconstructing the interstate bridge across the Columbia River between Portland, Ore., and Vancouver, Wash., was introduced Monday by Rep. Mack (R-Wash).

Maverick Passes In Texas Town

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Maury Maverick, champion of the underdog, enemy of gobbydegoek and zealous Democrat, is dead.

The 58-year-old former New Deal congressman and stormy mayor of San Antonio died yesterday after 10 days in a hospital for a heart ailment. He left mourners on each side of every political fence.

Sheriff Owen Kilday, whose brother Paul defeated Maverick for Congress, said: "We were bitter political enemies but good personal friends. He did an awful lot for San Antonio."

Maverick was a descendant of trail blazers into the Old West and in his 58 years had packed experience as lawyer, hobo, business executive, congressman, political reformer, a u t h o r, tax collector, mayor and leader of his faction of the Democratic party in Texas.

He lost a bitter fight for recognition in the 1932 Democratic convention in Chicago when the delegation headed by Gov. Allan Shivers was seated. Maverick headed a "loyalist" faction sworn to support the Democratic nominee.

The squat, dynamic man said his career as a hobo may have formed the basis for organized relief which this country had during depression days. He roamed the hobo jungles in tattered clothes "to get to the root of unemployment" and took his finds and gave them to the national government.

He suggested establishment of camps for migrants, homes for juvenile delinquents and a broad-based relief plan.

Also elected by acclamation to the treasurer's post was Richard E. Vernor, another Chicagoan. It will be Vernor's ninth term as treasurer.

BOZMAN, Md. (AP)—Wally Cox, who went through a make-believe wedding ceremony recently on television as the shy, bumbling Mr. Peepers, was married here yesterday for real.

Cox shooed off newsmen, said he would deny it, then took Marilyn O'Connell, 30-year-old, red-haired Broadway dancer, as his bride. Cox gave his age as 29.

Flanked by a dozen close friends, the couple was married in an open-air ceremony at the waterfront home of Donald Seawell, New York attorney for many theatrical stars.

MERVYN SHUCK, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Shuck, Merrill, arrived here Wednesday after two years of duty on Guam. Mervyn has been discharged from the Navy following his enlistment in 1951.

Oldster Taking Bike Tour Of US

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Glen O. Miller, 74, of South Gate, Calif., is crossing the continent on a 1926 motorcycle. He's on his way to visit a stepson, Harold O. Miller, in Niagara Falls, N.Y.

Traveling only in daytime, the retired woodworker took 14 days to get here from California. He resumed his journey today after a week's visit with another stepson here.

SHIPS IN

PORTLAND (AP)—Four Navy minesweepers were to tie up in the Portland harbor Tuesday to be on hand through the Rose Festival.

These ships, and a heavy cruiser and a submarine, scheduled to arrive Wednesday, will be open to the public throughout the week.

LONG-BELL CLOSES Tulelake Yard

TULELAKE—The Long-Bell Lumber Company will close its Tulelake yard and retail store July 1, according to an announcement made this week by E. G. Phillips, Kansas City, assistant sales manager for the company.

Phillips stated that the reason for closing the Tulelake yard followed decision of the company to concentrate business at the Klamath Falls operations.

Keith Templeton, local manager will be transferred to the Klamath Falls location.

MEMORY

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Flint residents dedicated prayers and flew flags at half-staff today in memory of the 118 persons who died in the June 8, 1953, tornado which roared across the city's Beecher district.

Judge Ponders Morals Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—A stout, middle-aged mother, who police said "sold" her 13-year-old daughter's virtue for $20 a week and a basket of groceries, was convicted by a jury last night of neglect.

The man to whom the 46-year-old woman was accused of sending her daughter was "Papa" Joe Cremati, 57, operator of a reputed house of prostitution, Cremati recently was convicted of rape in the same case.

The child was found in Cremati's house last January in a police raid. Neither her name nor that of her mother has ever been published here.

According to Asst. County Prosecutor Dennis J. McGuire, the 13-year-old and five of her brothers and sisters frequently stayed over in the Cremati house. The girl had her own bedroom there.

POLICE CHIEF FRANK STORV made the statement about the woman "selling" her daughter for $20. The mother has described Cremati as a "good-hearted man" who volunteered to help support her after her husband deserted her. Juvenile Court Judge Albert A. Waldman deferred sentence on the woman until June 17. Maximum penalty would be a year in the workhouse and a $1,000 fine.
