Ft. Klamath Club Hears Speaker

FORT KLAMATH — Victor Sisson, fire control officer, U.S. Indian Forest Service, Klamath Agency, spoke at the regular meeting of the Civic Improvement Club, Friday afternoon, June 4. He asked for community cooperation in cleaning up the garbage dump. In its present condition it constitutes a serious fire hazard to the nearby stands of reservation timber. Members voted to take the responsibility of correcting this condition with the aid of local ranchers and equipment.

Sisson announced the purchase of a modern fire truck by the Klamath Agency and that all fire fighting equipment would be available in case of fire here.

Preliminary plans were made for the fourth annual western style street dance to be held Saturday evening June 17. General chairman will be Mrs. Harold L. Wimer; Mrs. Elizabeth Loosley and Mrs. Warren More are in charge of concessions; Mrs. Joanna Taylor and Mrs. William A. Page, tickets.

Local cattlemen, Emmett Sismore and Fred L. Pope, will set up the chuckwagon and take charge of the coffee making detail. A committee of local club women, dressed as pioneers, will serve beans and other refreshments; they include: Mrs. William C. Martin, Mrs. Walter J. Wright, Mrs. James F. Legget, Mrs. Donald Veatch and Mrs. Steward (Bud) Strong, chairman of the work crew.

Walter Wise and Ben Corona, will assist with construction and labor involved in preparing for this popular annual event. Senior cattlemen of the Wood River Valley will be asked to welcome guests, that will be announced at a later date.

Patricia Hescoek, Mrs. Allen Summers and Mrs. Gail Culver were welcomed as new members. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Jack Thomas and Mrs. Dennis Knowles to Mrs. Charles Noah, Mrs. Ober Brown, Mrs. Wilbur Hescoek, Mrs. Elizabeth Loosley, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. Eldon Bratton, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Allen Summers, Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine, Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer and Patricia Hescoek.

A GRADUATE of Mooseheart in 1929, Charles G. Skill has been state director of the Loyol Order of Moose in Oregon since 1948. Under his direction, membership in the order has increased from 5000 to 11,500. He will be present here June 18-20 for the annual state convention.

Wayne Angel Wins Award

Wayne Angel, talented young Klamath Falls violinist, graduated June 7 with a class of 487 high school seniors from Grant High School, Portland.

Wayne received the McDowell Orchestra Senior Award in Music, the Strathmore National Art Award, and a $25 award in art from Carnegie Institute.

He will remain in Portland through June and July to continue his study of music with Rex Underwood and to teach a summer music class at Grant High. He plans to enroll in Portland State in the fall.

Attending commencement were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Angel, his brother and sister, Rex and Lynette and his grandmother, Mrs. Velma Krauss, all of Klamath Falls.

East Langell Bridge Closed

Residents of East Langell Valley and vicinity are warned that the bridge across Miller Creek, one half mile north of the Lloyd Gift ranch, will be closed for repairs approximately two weeks beginning Monday, June 14.

The announcement was made this morning by Ed Propst of the county road department.

'Your Store' Remodeled

Your Store, "Klamath's Own," specialized department store, and distinctive gift shop, will present a brand new appearance Friday, June 11 and Saturday, June 12, at the grand opening that will celebrate a complete face lifting operation.

There will be free double orchids for the ladies and special values in every department. Opening hours will be 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The store has been completely remodeled and redecorated. Soft shades of the newest colors background both the first and second floor and the mezzanine. All floors have been rearranged to permit easier, roomier shopping. The background of the display window has been lowered to give a street view through the length of the main floor. New lighting has been installed and an office on the second floor has been enclosed.

Mrs. Jean (Bernie) Rawlins and Earl R. Isaac, owners, have been in business in Klamath Falls for 15 years. Prior to opening Your Store both had long experience in merchandising in other fields.

The present store is located at 721 Main Street. Staff members on the main floor are Mrs. Neoma Kampe, Mrs. Ollie Holzgang and Mrs. Ella Lee. This department includes silver, jewelry, bric-a-brac, lamps, leather goods, electrical household appliances, pictures, hostery and hundreds of other items.

In charge of china and crystal on the mezzanine is Cecelia Snively.

On the second floor in linens, rugs, draperies, are Mrs. Maudelle Gaskins, Mrs. Mable Johnston and Mrs. Velda Rucker. Mrs. Eve Orr is in charge of the office.

Frank Douglas was building contractor. Painting was done by Roper and Roper and the electrical wiring by the East Side Electric.

ELECTIONS

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Early returns from Iraq's parliamentary elections indicated Thursday that 19-year-old King Faisal II and his advisers will hold the balance of power in the nation's new chamber of deputies. The results assured continuation of Iraq's pro-Western policy.
