

Mexico To Back U.S. Red Fight

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico, a chief critic of U. S. efforts to fight communism in the Americas, stood ready today to join in a hemispheric study of charges that the Reds boss neighboring Guatemala.

Acting Foreign Minister Jose Gorostiza announced last night his government would go along with the "general sentiment" among the American republics for such a review.

Since Mexico has been one of Guatemala's staunchest defenders in this hemisphere, her consent virtually assured the holding of an inter-American conference to find out what is going on in the banana-producing republic 1,000 miles northwest of the Panama Canal.

Gorostiza's statement recalled that under the Rio de Janeiro defense pact any country is entitled to ask for a meeting to discuss defense matters. Thus, he said, Mexico "is in accord" with recent informal proposals for a session.

There was no indication yet who would call the conference. The United States would like to see one of the Latin republics take the lead.

At the Inter-American Conference in Caracas last March Mexico was one of three countries which did not support a U. S.-sponsored resolution condemning Red infiltration in the Americas. She abstained along with Argentina. Guatemala voted against it.

The United States argued that establishment of a Communist government in the Americas was interference from abroad, to be countered under the terms of the Rio defense pact.

Mexico's Foreign Minister Luis Padilla Nervo argued that it was a country's own affair if it wanted to set up a Red government.

The apparent reversal of this policy by last night's announcement raised speculation here about Padilla Nervo's future. The foreign minister has not been at his office for the past week and is reported suffering from "nervous exhaustion."

American concern over Communist influence in Guatemala came to a head last month when the Latin-American republic on Mexico's southern border received 10 million dollars worth of arms shipped from Red Poland. The United States promptly increased arms aid to neighboring Nicaragua and Costa Rica.

Aero Board To Buy New Plane

PORTLAND (AP)—The State Board of Aeronautics took up plans Thursday to buy a plane for Director Earl Snyder and his staff, and to build an office for the staff at the Salem airport.

The board voted to call for bids for a four-place plane. No action on the office building was announced. The board has been using temporary quarters in Salem.

A $25,787 contract for paving an airstrip at Pacific City was awarded to Caulkins Crushing Co. of Delake. The board said the paving will protect the airstrip from periodic floods of the Nestucca River.

Snyder was directed to make a survey and estimate the cost of developing an airport at Toledo. The town said the site will be donated, and asked the board to do the work.

Britain Okays Sale Of China

LONDON (AP)—Britain has tentatively okayed the sale to Communist China of thousands of items, including light machinery, medical supplies and scientific instruments. All were described officially as nonstrategic goods.

The list of permitted items was published last night in the official Board of Trade Journal. The announcement emphasized, however, that the government retains the final say in the licensing of even these goods for shipment to China.

On the list were manufacturing equipment of many kinds, light vehicles and trucks, rubber goods, plastics and food.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains sold off early and then spent the rest of the session recovering the early losses on the Board of Trade Friday.

Wheat fell the most in early dealings, responding to a larger boost in estimated winter wheat production by the Agriculture Department than had been expected. However, the loss was recovered on short covering.

Strongest contract on the boards was July soybeans, up around 8 cents at one time. Oats also acted quite firm, being the first of the major cereals to turn upward.

Wheat closed 1/2 cent lower to 1 cent higher, July 194 1/2-195, corn 1/4 lower to 3/4 higher, July 1953 1/2-1954, oats 1/4 higher, July 7 1/4, rye 1 1/4-1 1/2, lower, July 1 0 1/2-1 1/4, soybeans 1/2 lower to 7/4 higher, July 3 7/8-3 7/4, and lard unchanged to 32 cents a hundred pounds lower, July 16-16 1/2.

Correction

In the Fort Klamath story appearing on Page 5 of Thursdays Herald and News, the news items should have read: "Preliminary plans were made for the fourth annual western style street dance to be held Saturday night July 17."

YOUR STORE, ON MAIN STREET, newly remodeled and redecorated, was opened to the public this morning for a two-day greeting to Klamath Falls. Orchids go to the ladies. Your Store has been in business here for the past 15 years with Mrs. Bernice (Jean) Rawlins and Earl R. Isaac as owners. This is a picture of the lower floor taken from the mezzanine.

Pigg Trial

Eulach down to the jail as witness, he continued, "I was still half drunk when we left but I was sober when I got to the jail."

Judge Vandenberg announced there will be another night session of the trial Friday. A session was held from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Thursday which was attended by a capacity crowd of spectators.

Crash Injures Car Passengers

Two passengers, Faye Pressler, 3729 Butte and Lloyd Johnson, 812 Oak, were treated for cuts and bruises at the Klamath Valley hospital after a car in which they were riding failed to make the curve at the intersection of Main and South Riverside, shortly after 10 p.m. Thursday.

City police reported the vehicle operated by Ralph Wilford Johnson, 23, 812 Oak, traveling at a high rate of speed, failed to negotiate the curve and took out all of the guard railing on the west side of the street.

The driver was arrested for violation of the basic rule and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge in police court Friday morning. The accident occurred when the accelerator stuck and he was unable to keep control, Johnson stated. His hearing was set for 4 p.m. Friday.

Camp Fire Girls Camp To Open

Mrs. Earl Clark, Camp Fire Guardian, will direct the day camp at Moore Park which opens Tuesday, June 15. Mrs. Clark directed the day camp last summer, and before that served as unit counselor.

This year the day camp program will be a part of Camp Fire's national program theme for the year, "Let's Be Different Together." The first session will be "Gypsy Week," and the second session "Cowboy Week." During Gypsy Week colorful costumes, legends, campfires, gypsy sew, singing and dancing will be a part of the program. Cowboy Week, June 22 to 25, will set the stage for the Klamath Roundup Days. Assemblies will be held at the roundup corral, and food and supplies will be available from the chuck wagon. Cowboy songs will fill the air, and cowhand yarns will be spun at rest time. There will be contests to discover the all-around cowgirl and, of course, food will be cooked in an old tin can.

Day camping sessions sponsored by Camp Fire Girls are open to all girls living near Klamath Falls, and Klamath Bus Company buses have been chartered for transportation to and from the park. There will be two bus routes: One serving the south suburban area, Hot Springs and Oregon Avenue; the second running from the Weyerhaeuser Hotel to Fourth and Main Streets, and Conger and California Avenues. Bus time schedules are given to campers at time of registration, which should be done at the Camp Fire Girls office before Monday noon. The fee for two weeks is $3.75.

Assisting Mrs. Clark with the program will be Mrs. Fred Coles; Mrs. Harry Lanphear, Mrs. J. M. Woodward, Mrs. Harold Brisco, Maureen Kovak, Betty Sue Taggart, Mary Irving, Margaret Ogie, Delight Willard and Norma Brallier.

KF Shriners Attend Meet

The Klamath Falls Shrine Drum Corps took to the air today, aboard a chartered plane for Seattle to attend the annual Northwest Shrine Association session, convening this weekend. Air time was 9:10 a.m. with arrival scheduled at Seattle for 12:00 p.m.

The meeting, an off-shoot of the Imperial Council, including the entire United States, will draw several thousand Shriners. All Shrine Temples are taking uniformed units to take part in various musical performances.

Klamath Falls takes 21 members who will don the new gold and green uniforms purchased recently.

Following a banquet on Friday, June 11, there will be a pageant in the Seattle stadium for all musical units, followed by commercial entertainment for the visitors.

Saturday morning there will be a parade at 10:30 a.m. across town to the civic auditorium where an initiation of new members will be staged.

The group will include, C. W. Murdock, manager of the Klamath Falls Drum Corps, Dr. Harry Leonard, assistant manager; Joe Halousek, Malin, drum major; Andy Loney Jr., music director; Oscar Anderson, secretary-treasurer; Bernice Rawlins, quartermaster.

The organization members have just returned from a tour to Eugene, Roseburg and Cottage Grove. In Cottage Grove a concert was given. In Eugene, they participated in a parade and the Southern Oregon district meeting.

Pastor Plans Sermon Series

The Rev. Wesley Orial, pastor of First Church of the Nazarene, has announced a series of sermon subjects for the summer months titled "Sunday Evenings with Christ."

The second in the series will be given Sunday, June 13 at 7:30 p.m. on "Christ's Care for the Young." The first, delivered June 6, was on the subject, "Christ and His Church."

Junior ushers, junior choir and testimonies by those under 12 only will be featured at Sunday's service. Many personal written invitations have been addressed to complete families to be special guests of the pastor when he speaks this Sunday. An open invitation has been extended to all who may be interested to attend.

Subjects for future sermons include "Tragedy in Three Acts," youth night; "Home—Oasis in the Desert;" and "Long Distance Calls From the Lord."

The Copco story is a story of the West

YOU are the umpire...

COPCO, as a public utility, is directly responsible to your official representatives. Five regulatory agencies have jurisdiction over the Company's operations...from the establishment of service rates and the licensing of hydroelectric projects to the issuance of corporate securities.

You, the people we serve, are ably represented by the Public Utilities Commissioner of Oregon; Public Utilities Commission, State of California; Hydroelectric Commission of Oregon; Federal Power Commission and Securities and Exchange Commission. And in the fulfillment of its obligations, COPCO welcomes this type of regulation as appropriate and in keeping with the American tradition of fair play.

Public utility regulation...based on the principle that the best service at the lowest rates is obtainable through an exclusive territorial franchise, properly controlled...serves you well. These government agencies, created to safeguard your interest through the application of sound, constructive policies, have made a real contribution to the inexpensive, dependable electric service brought to you by COPCO.
