OTJ Annual Tea June 5th

By BETTY BOYLE

The home of Director and Mrs. Winston D. Purvine was the scene of the annual Faculty Wives and Women's Club Tea for graduating senior women and students' wives. It was one of the many closing events of this year on the mile-high campus June 5. Hours were from 2 to 5 p.m.

Table decorations were arranged by Mrs. Grant Bailey, who also made the beautiful corsages. Two small cap and gown dolls on a lace cloth backed by red roses and gardenias with white candles made the attractive and traditional centerpiece.

Blue iris and small lemon pom-pom chrysanthemums placed throughout the room carried out the school colors.

Soft background music was furnished from the extensive concert library of Mrs. Jerry Cote.

Invitations were sent by Mrs. Al Geiss with the assistance of Mrs. Don Adams, Mrs. Herb Madole, Mrs. Edwin R. Olson and Mrs. Winston D. Purvine.

In charge of the dainty pastries, sandwiches, candies, and delicious punch was Mrs. A. V. McVey and her committee members, Mrs. Earl Bailey, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Walter Hoag and Mrs. Jack La Grande.

Mrs. H. A. Pedersen was in charge of the china and silver service.

Mrs. Henry Swisegood, chairman of the kitchen was assisted by Mrs. Bud Zigler.

Mrs. Don Adams had charge of the guest book. Mr. Earl Bailey, silk screen instructor, designed and made the petit napkins.

Mrs. Purvine wore a lovely light green lace dress with a delicate pink corsage. The two assisting hostesses, Mrs. Herb Madole, general chairman of the tea, wore a light blue lace dress with a corsage of dark red rose and white gladioli, while Mrs. Robert L. Smith, president of the Faculty Wives and Women's Club, wore slate blue taffeta and corsage of pink roses.

Assisting the hostess at the door and throughout the room were: Mrs. Don Adams, Mrs. James J. Boyle, Mrs. Marion Brown, Mrs. Edwin R. Olson, Mrs. Walter Phillips and Mrs. Hal Rotrock.

Featuring during the afternoon were: Mrs. Wallace Gerling, Mrs. Vern Owens, Mrs. Carol Howe, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. Irvin Whit and Mrs. Oscar Paulson.

Including 12 uniformed nurses, all graduates were presented red rose corsages.

Many out-of-towners were included in the 140 guests.

THE HOME of Mrs. Winston D. Purvine on Klamath Circle was the charming setting for this year's OTJ Faculty Wives and Women's Club tea, June 5, for senior women and wives of students.

Faculty Wives At OTJ "Fun Night"

Tuesday night was "fun night" for the OTJ Faculty Wives and Women's Club when it met for the last time this school year, with husbands as guests.

After a potluck dinner which more than sixty enjoyed, the group played court whist. Prizes for women were awarded to Mrs. Don Adams and Mrs. Grant Bailey. Jack Douglas and A. V. McVey received the prizes for men.

A farewell gift from the club was presented to Mrs. F. L. (Skeet) O'Connell, whose husband is leaving the campus for private business.

The committee for the very successful party consisted of Mrs. Morris Anderson, Mrs. Harvey Ayers, Mrs. Hal Rotrock and Mrs. Milton Adams.

HENLEY BETHEL NO. 51 MEETING

At the Henley Bethel No. 51 of the International Order of Job's Daughters regular meeting, plans were discussed by Honored Queen Ruth Roenicke for the public installation to be held in the Poe Valley Grange Hall, June 12, at 8 p.m.

Maureen Lyon will be installed as honored queen; Sandra Dehlinger, senior princess; Beverly Hurlbut, junior princess; Linda DeLap, guide; Virginia Roenicke, marshal.

Junior Princess Mary Lou Craig of Bethel No. 8, was escorted to the east and given honors. Grand honors were given past grand guardian, Phyllis Poole. Guardian Reda Boudon and associate guardian, George Boudon of Bethel No. 8 were also escorted and given honors.

Honored Queen Ruth Roenicke presented guardian, Cole Brown, with a jeweled guardian pin from the Bethel to be worn during her term as Bethel guardian.

Alice Hatchet gave an interesting book report. A social hour was held after the meeting.

Parents, guardian and friends are cordially invited to attend the installation and a dance which will follow the ceremonies.
