JOHN ELLIOT CLAIMS SALEM GIRL AS BRIDE IN CANDLELIGHT RITES

John Elliot, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. (Sid) Elliot, 103 Washington Street, claimed Kay Perrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Perrin, Salem, Oregon, as his bride in Knight Memorial Church in that city, May 13.

The 8 p.m. candlelight service was read by the Rev. Louis E. White in a beautiful setting of white dogwood and pink rhododendron blooms which were used in abundance for church decorations.

Tapers in floor candelabra were lighted by Vivian Chance and Doreen Cavender. Mrs. Lewis Mitchell, organist, accompanied Richard Smart, soloist.

The bride's floor length gown was styled with Chantilly lace bodice, long pointed sleeves, and a full net-over-satin skirt. A satin bandeau, illusion and seed pearl trimmed — held the fingertip veil of illusion. Her bouquet was of pink rapture roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Walter Reeve, wore a green organdy waist-length dress and carried a small fan arrangement of elf roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Bridesmaid, Trisha Perrin, sister of the bride, wore a dress identical to the honor attendant's. Ed Halberg served as best man.

SHOWER FOR MRS. R. HASKINS

CHILQUIN — Mrs. Robert Haskins, Sprague River, was guest of honor at a stork shower given recently at the Floyd Ohles home, by Mrs. Ohles and Mrs. Manuel Ochoa.

The evening party was attended by friends and relatives from Klamath Falls, Sprague River, and Chilquinn.

The guest of honor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Shadley of Sprague River, and since her marriage a year ago has been part of the time in Bremerton, where her husband was stationed with the Navy.

In an impressive afternoon nuptial service in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Florence Gertrude Calhoun and William Campbell Stewart exchanged wedding vows, June 6. The Rev. T. P. Casey, officiant, read the service at 2:30 p.m.

A background of pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums formed the effective background for the bride's gown of white Chantilly lace and heavy slipper satin. The molded bodice was made with a net yoke with a tiny Peter Pan collar and the extremely full skirt flowed into a full court train. A tiny sash can accented with seed pearls held the fingertip veil; and the bride carried a white prayer book topped with a pale lavender orchid and Stephanotis flowers.

Florence is the daughter of Mrs. Joe Calhoun, and the late Mr. Calhoun, 2804 Reclamation; and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Stewart, live at Kirk, Oregon.

Loren Calhoun, bride's brother, gave her in marriage, and escorted her down the aisle with alternate pews marked with white satin bows.

Mrs. Doris Smith, organist, accompanied soloist, Mrs. Robert Long.

Maid of honor, Esther Storts, wore a lavender waist length frock of embroidered nylon tulle; and carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Bridesmaid, Frances Valdez, wore a dress identical to the maid of honor's except for color. Her frock was turquoise, complemented with a bouquet of salmon-pink gladioli.

James A. Stewart served his brother as best man John Bradley, Sam Small (brothers-in-law of the bridegroom); and Bob Griffith, nephew of the bride, ushered.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Calhoun wore a powder blue suit with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Stewart, mother of the bridegroom, wore a lavender and white ensemble with a corsage of yellow rosebuds.

The reception was in the parish hall immediately after the wedding.

At the coffee service were Mrs. John Bradley, sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Edward Calhoun, bride's sister-in-law. Mrs. Eldon Baker, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Fred Dingman and Mrs. Loren Calhoun, sister and sister-in-law of the bride. Punch was served by Ruth Calhoun and Mrs. Charles Kendall.

For the wedding trip going-away ensemble, Florence wore a gold suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Florence is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy; and since graduation has been employed at the First National Bank.

Bill served four years in the U.S. Navy Air Force; and is planning to go to aeronautical engineering school this fall.

Mrs. Loren Calhoun was dinner hostess to the wedding participants at her home on Riverside after the rehearsal. She was assisted by Mrs. Eldon Baker.

Out of town guests here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dingman and son Bobby, of Redding; and their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Frost, same city. Mrs. Edward C. Calhoun and children were here from Ephrata, Washington; and Mrs. Bill Evans from Eugene.
