An auxiliary spokesman stated, "Her outstanding accomplishments as hospital chairman is a credit to the unit. She has personally made and sent 12 patches to Camp White Hospital; and has sent to the three veterans hospitals in Oregon, supplies of rug materials, ditty bags, mens' clothes, gift-shop gifts, cookies, cigarettes, magazines and books."

Job's Daughters

"Dad's Night," a special event for fathers was held by the Job's Daughters of Bethel No. 6 Thursday June 3. Besides the regular Bethel meeting the dads were treated to a solo "The Mystery of His Way" by Terry Hanson accompanied by Mary Ann Munson. Ray Shellhorn from Keno gave a humorous reading "Papa and the Boy." Pie and coffee were served by the refreshment committee.

Milly's Mirror

LT. COLONEL ZED BARNES' promotion party — to celebrate his increase in rank was a bang-up success according to a letter to Marion and Lucile Barnes from his spouse Arlene—They had no more than recuperated from the excitement of hosting THAT — when Zed was given a big farewell party—He's taking a 3 wks rest now before going to new assignment at Ulm—between Huttig and Munich in Germany—they've been stationed at Kaiserlautern; He'll be squadron commander at the new post — and mama and the sprouts will leave as soon as he finds suitable quarters for them — Zed has established himself as a successful trouble shooter — and is looking forward to the present challenge. Other items in the letter refer to a planned trip to Holland (to look at some tulips I guess)—another bit of "news" was that their cat who had returned beaten and battered from a spring hunt was just getting sleek and strong when he jumped for a moth one night and sailed right out an open 4th floor window—and all he's out is a couple of whiskers, one of his nine lives—and has a sprained leg.

Dorothy Reeder reported that her daughter, co-worker Berdina, of Orland, California, is ill. Mary Hershfield has also been quite ill at her Malin home.

The following officers for the new year were elected: Blanche Pies, senior regent; Evelyn Rush, junior regent; Betty Jo Brightman, chaplain; Myrtle Kucers, treasurer; and Rose Van Meter, recorder. Installation will be held at the next regular meeting on June 15.

Crismon-Adams Nuptials June 5 Is Social Event of Early Summer

One of June's first brides was Dorothy Lee Adams, whose marriage to James Hubert (Jim) Crismon was solemnized in the First Methodist Church, Saturday, June 5. The Rev. Lloyd Holloway read the 2 p.m. service in the presence of over 100 guests.

The striking brunette bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray R. Adams, Udall, Kansas. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Crismon, longtime residents of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Adams were unable to make the trip west because of illness; and their daughter was given in marriage by Dr. M. E. Robinson.

Large bouquets of gladioli in pastel shades were used for floral church decorations and alternate aisle pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride wore traditional white satin, lace and net; styled with a fitted bodice, long fitted sleeves of lace; with lace applique on the net yoke, achieving a deep sweetheart neckline. The full gathered net skirt featured a deep border of lace which extended into a full sweeping train.

A simple seed-pearl trimmed halo of gathered net held the fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of orchids and Stephanotis tied with white satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Robert L. Cooper. She wore a yellow tissue taffeta frock; with full walls length skirt; fitted midriff; and deep vee double cuff of the same material describing the neckline. Her flower headband was of carnations tinted blue; her satin slippers matched her dress; and her nosegay matched the headband.

The three bridesmaids, Ada Martin, Lavonne Haney and Jeanette Hayden wore dresses identical in style to the matron of honor's; except that theirs were forget-me-not blue. Headbands and nosegays were yellow; and slippers matched the dresses.

Flower girl was Connie Shipp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Shipp. She wore a floor length dress of net over taffeta and a matching bonnet of the same net.

Jim Robinson, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Robinson was ring bearer.

Ray Beauchamp served as best man; and ushers were Arnie Ellis, Jay Maxwell (Max) Wauchope and Marion Reginaldo. The latter two also served as candlelighters.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Crismon chose a navy blue ensemble, worn with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Guests were received at the Pelican Party Room immediately after the wedding. Mrs. Robert L. Cooper and LaVonne Haney were at the punch bowl; Mrs. Lila Martin presided at the coffee service; and Mrs. Carl D. Shipp cut the cake.

For travel Dorothy wore a smart navy and white silk ensemble with white accessories. The couple left after the reception for Udall to spend part of the wedding trip with the bride's parents.

She is a registered nurse in Dr. Robinson's office; and Jim is on the advertising staff of the Herald and News.
