Police Hold Man For Saw Theft

Ollie Stanton, 30, a transient, was arrested near the Southern Pacific depot Friday afternoon after police received a report the man had stolen a power saw from the Coca Cola plant on Spring Street. After telephoning police that he had seen the man running from the bottling plant with a saw under his arm, Nick Witte, 108 Spring, followed Stanton down the railroad tracks and recovered the saw that the man reportedly dropped along the right of way in his flight.

After being booked in the city jail on a vagrancy charge, Stanton was later transferred to the county jail and a larceny complaint against him was to be signed this morning.

COMPLAINT

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet armed forces newspaper Red Star complains that Russian army officers are shirking their setting up exercises and warns that one cannot afford to be flabby in this age of atomic weapons.

HERE TO ASSUME the pastorate of First Presbyterian Church is the Rev. Dale E. Hewitt, shown with his wife.

New Pastor Arrives In KF

The Rev. Dale E. Hewitt, pastor elect of the First Presbyterian Church of Klamath Falls, has arrived in this city with his family to begin his ministerial duties. He will be in the pulpit for the Sunday morning worship service at 9:30 a.m. this Sunday, June 13, speaking on "A Basic Faith."

The Rev. Hewitt comes here from Trinity Presbyterian Church, Tucson, Arizona, where he was one of four ministers active in a congregation of 2,450 members. There he was responsible for visitation and the evangelism program. He was also active in the work with young adults.

The new Klamath Falls minister participated in the work of the Tucson Council of Churches and the Tucson Kiwanis Club boys' program. He was chairman of the stewardship and promotion committee for the synod of Arizona and chairman of its committee on the building fund campaign.

A native of Chicago, Illinois, the Rev. Hewitt earned his bachelor of arts degree at North Central College, Naperville, Illinois, and his bachelor of divinity degree in 1945 from McCormick Seminary, Chicago. He held pastorates in Seminole, Oklahoma, and in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma, before going to Trinity Church in Tucson.

He succeeds the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. who recently accepted the pastorate at Santa Rosa, California. The Hewitts, with their three children, Patricia Ann, David Allen and James Dale, will be at home at 2030 Del Moro Street.

Pigg Relates Details Of Shooting

Arthur F. Pigg, 73-year-old night club photographer, and Lothario, of a sort, took the witness stand Saturday in Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg's court and gave a detailed account of his romance with Eulah Durham, 44, whose ex-husband, Roy, 48, the cameraman is accused of slaying.

"We were just neighbors," he said. "She used to sleep at my ranch sometimes and other times we slept at her apartment."

Pigg said when he first met Mrs. Durham last Christmas, he asked her if he could take her home. He testifies she said:

"No, you can't take me home. I'm going home with you."

Under cross-examination by District Attorney Frank Alderson, Pigg admitted he had been handling firearms since he was seven years old.

"Ever since I was seven I had guns," he said. "Back in Missouri, I used to shoot squirrels, possum and rabbits."

When he started his testimony under interrogation by Defense Attorney J. C. O'Neill, Pigg denied he intended to kill Durham when he fired the first of three shots in front of his Eleventh Street apartment the night of April 25.

"I brought Eulah and Billy Little home from the Canteen tavern," he said. "We just got in the apartment when Roy came in and pulled Eulah out the door. Billy and I stood in the doorway and listened to them arguing up the street. I heard Roy saying he was going to kill me. So I got my gun from under the pillow on my bed and stuck it in my belt."

"I went back to the door," Pigg continued. "Roy was coming down the street yelling threats against me. I pulled my gun and fired one shot into the bluegrass in the parkway in front of the apartment. He kept coming so I fired two more shots. Then he fell on his side."

Pigg's testimony contradicted statements made by the Durham and Little women. They denied they were in his apartment the night of the shooting.

It is expected the case will go to the jury Saturday evening.
