

DARING RIDERS of the Multnomah County Sheriffs Posse will put on their drill and stunt routine for the state convention of Loyal Order of Moose here June 20th at the fairgrounds. Better than 2000 people are expected to attend the annual convention. Sunday's show will be a part of the three day program that will wind up with the big barbecue at the fairgrounds, the show and installation of new officers.

Hollywood Actress Bares Finances In Court Fight

By JAMES BACON
BURBANK Calif. (AP)—Shapely Susan Hayward is due to talk about figures, financial ones, in divorce court today.
Another sort of figure, a nude one, dashing through her yard at 3 a.m. one day last July, was introduced in opening testimony.
The movie queen is expected to be on the stand most of the day under cross-examination by S. B. Hahn, counsel for her estranged husband. The actress seeks a divorce from actor Jess Barker, who has contested the trial, insisting that he wants a reconciliation.
Hahn set the pattern yesterday for much of the testimony to follow when he repeatedly quizzed Miss Hayward on a prenuptial agreement signed by the actress and her then husband-to-be.
She testified that the agreement was signed because she was in love with Barker and he didn't want to get married until he was better fixed financially.
"The document merely relieved him of the financial responsibility of a wife," the actress said, explaining that she was earning $1,700 a week at the time and her fiance was out of work.
"He didn't feel he was well enough set to take a wife, having no bank accounts and so forth," Miss Hayward said. "I told him I would relieve him of that financial responsibility. I could always take care of myself. The document merely stated that what he earned was his and what I earned was mine."
She now wants the court to rule her two-million-dollar movie contract and $240,000 in assets are not community property.
Testimony on business matters provided an anticlimax to opening testimony of Mrs. Loden Hazel Swain, a maid next door to the Barkers' Sherman Oaks home.
She told of how she was awakened by screams of a nude redhead, presumably Miss Hayward, screaming:
"Don't kill me! Help! Help! Don't kill me!"
A man who appeared to be Barker, the maid testified, was in hot and threatening pursuit, shouting, "You're going to sign that deal."
Miss Hayward spent much time on the stand telling of arguments over her husband's late sleeping habits and lack of work.
"I objected to his sleeping so late in the morning, sometimes until early afternoon," she said. "When I suggested that he should go out and look for work, he replied that he was an actor."
Barker's principal duties around the house, she testified, were buying groceries, turning the water on the fruit trees, buying the newspapers and occasionally helping her with lines from movie scripts.
"We had many arguments over his grocery shopping," she related. "Often he would run around and come home with bargains, things that wouldn't be fit to eat. I was always taught that one didn't save pennies on food because it does not pay to gamble with nutrition value. Besides there was no need to stint."

Wayne Morse Backs Demos

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon Monday again called for election of a Democratic Congress.
"The most effective check that can be placed upon the mismanagement of the country by the Eisenhower administration and upon the cancerous growth of McCarthyism is to place the committees of Congress under Democratic chairmen," Morse said in an interview.
One of the reasons he bolted the Republican Party was because of "Mr. Eisenhower's endorsement of Sen. McCarthy" (R-Wis), Morse added.
"I said then that he (Eisenhower) would 'ruin the day' that he endorsed the junior senator of this state. His endorsement certainly has come home to roost," Morse declared.
"McCarthyism is a clear demonstration of the moral bankruptcy of the Republican Party. It is one of the reasons why registered Republicans must, in the 1954 campaign, rise above their party and return Congress to the people by electing a Democratic majority," the Oregon senator said.

Police Seek Missing Bride

ROME (AP)—Italian police sources said today that Joanne Connelly Ortiz-Patino, New York socialite beauty who fled from a honeymoon with her millionaire Bolivian husband, may now be in Paris.
The fragile-appearing blonde, wed to 23-year-old Jaime Ortiz-Patino two months ago, vanished from a Rome clinic June 10.
Her husband set Italian and international police on the trail.
At a press conference yesterday, he said his 23-year-old wife entered the clinic to be cured of addiction to sleeping and stimulant pills.
No word had been received to day of the missing beauty.
Unofficial sources said they believed she may have gone to Paris with the intention of returning to the United States.
Ortiz - Patino said yesterday, however, he believed she still is in Italy.

'Copter Hunts Air Crash Area

TOKYO (AP)—Clearing weather late today permitted a helicopter to land two men near the site of a Navy plane crash on Yaku Island in which 17 men are believed to have died.
There was no immediate report from the two men.
The plane crashed Wednesday. Stormy weather and the jungle had blocked all efforts to reach it until today.

West Defense Warning Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther says "time may be beginning to run against us" in efforts to build Western Europe's defenses.
This view was made public yesterday in a summary of testimony which Gruenther gave earlier in the day at a secret session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.
Gen. Gruenther, commander of North Atlantic Treaty forces, testified on foreign aid.
He was quoted as saying the United States "may end up behind the eight ball" if it relaxes building Western defenses. The summary said he reported Russia is making its own forces more effective and is increasing substantially the number and value of satellite troops.

Actress Asked To Leave U.S.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Immigration and Naturalization Service has ordered British actress Simone Silva to leave the country within 60 days.
Miss Silva is the actress who caused a few photographers to fall into the Mediterranean when she stripped to the waist to pose with Robert Mitchum on the French Riviera.
Heriman Landon, district immigration director, said that although the actress entered the United States on a pleasure visa, she signed a movie contract and is receiving a salary.
Miss Silva asked for a work permit last week but Landon said "she did not make a sufficient showing to conclude that she is a person of unusual ability and talent or professional attainment."
Al Felker, independent film producer who says he gave her a film contract, said he would appeal the decision, which he characterized as "ridiculous." He said her acting ability had been amply established by the nine movies she made in England.

Cadillac

He's Ten Years Younger Today!

Here's a man who has just taken ten years off his age—insofar as his spirits and mental outlook are concerned.
He's going for his first ride in his first Cadillac—and he's a happy, happy man—with his hopes in the sky and his heart singing a song it hasn't recalled for a decade.
He's having an experience which we can't tell you about. You have to live it yourself—at the wheel of that first Cadillac—in order to evaluate it.
You know how it goes. You work and you worry and plan and hope. The years go by—and, bit by bit, you get things done. The insurance creeps up where you want it—the mortgage on the home goes into the fire—that nest-egg against the future and the college fund is in the bank.
And then, one day, you feel there's no further need for resisting—so you order the Cadillac—and wait for the happy news—"It's here!"
Your ride home will live in your memory forever. You've put the cap sheaf on your world of dreams.
Of course, this great sense of personal well-being is only the first thrill that comes with your Cadillac.
There's its magnificent performance—its marvelous balance and roadability—and its rare comfort and safety and handling ease. Every hour at the wheel is a privilege—and every journey is a wonderful memory.
Is the time about right for you to step up to a Cadillac?
If so—please come in and see us. The longer we're in business, the happier we are when we deliver a man his first Cadillac.
We'll be waiting to welcome you—anytime.
