Assistants Named To KUHS Staff

Two assistants were named to the Klamath Union High School athletic department Tuesday, as the school board elected Raymond Clarke Coley and Harry William Russell to the jobs of assistant basketball and football respectively.

Coley, 27-year-old University of Oregon graduate, will serve as basketball and Russell will work with John McGinnis as Pelican line coach during football season.

A graduate of Bennett High in Buffalo, New York, Coley is married and has one young daughter.

He attended Boise Junior College and the University of Oregon for his undergraduate work, and then worked towards his masters degree at Wyoming and Oregon.

At Boise he played two years of varsity basketball, and then played two years of baseball for the University of Oregon Ducks.

After his college baseball days he played with the Tri-City Braves in the Western International League for two seasons.

The ex-Navy man served as freshman baseball coach at the university this past season.

Russell has quite an athletic background behind him also, as he played four years of football and baseball at the University of Oregon and Vanport (Portland State College).

Russell, like Coley is married and is 26 years old, has been teaching at Gardiner, Oregon, the past school year.

Peterson and McGinnis were both out of town and it was impossible to get a comment from either of them, but they were the ones to recommend Coley and Russell to the school board for the assistant positions.

Cleveland Finds Cure To Problem

FT. LEE, Va. (AP)—Stan Pawloski, a fancy-fielding young fellow with no previous major league experience, could be just what the doctor ordered to cure the second base ills of the Cleveland Indians.

A star for two years with Ft. Lee's powerful Army team, Pawloski was due to report in Cleveland today for a chance to show he can fill in for Bob Avila, the American League's leading hitter, and Avila's understudy, Sam Dente, both sidelined with injuries.

Although Pawloski won't be 22 until September, he's put in four years in the minor leagues and two years at Ft. Lee, from which he now is on 30 days' terminal leave before being separated from service July 29.

He broke into organized ball at the age of 17 with Stroudsburg of the Class C North Atlantic League, where he hit .329.

He caught the eye of Cleveland Manager Al Lopez and General Manager Hank Greenberg when he topped the Class A Eastern League second basemen in fielding with .981 at Reading in 1952. Among those he out-fielded that season was Frank Bolling, now regular second baseman for Detroit. His batting average was .371.

In two seasons at Ft. Lee, in which the Army club has won 107 games and lost only 12, Pawloski batted .346 with 108 runs batted in for 111 games. He has hit .412 this spring with 38 runs batted in for 36 games.

Although a good hitter at Ft. Lee, Pawloski drew most of his raves for his fielding. He was rated one of the fastest glove men in service baseball, particularly in the art of pivoting on double plays.

Rocky Heavy Favorite To Keep Ring Crown

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—When a man has won 45 straight fights, 40 of them by knockouts, it becomes apparent that he carries a kick in his fists. It also becomes apparent that anyone who picks against that kind of a record is leaving himself open to comments by his friends.

For that reason, and because it's much the easier course, we are advising that Rocky Marciano looks like a cinch to beat Ezzard Charles tomorrow night and keep his heavyweight title. There is no valid reason why a fighter who has won 45 times should stumble over No. 46.

As long as Rocky is going to be the winner, it has to be by a knockout somewhere inside the scheduled 15 rounds. As to the exact point where Rocky will explode one against Ezzard's chin, it's hard to say, because the champion is somewhat unpredictable.

In his first bout with Jersey Joe Walcott in Philadelphia, the Brockton Buster took 13 rounds to lay old Joe among the daisies. The second time, in Chicago, he needed just over two minutes. Last September here it was the 11th round before Rocky caught up with Roland LaStarza and busted the former collegian open like a cantaloupe.

So Rocky is inconsistent, except that he always wins. The most widely accepted theory seems to be that it probably will take him a lot of rounds to tag Ezzard. We have heard several renowned experts predict it will not occur before the 14th or 15th round if Charles plays it cozy and doesn't at some earlier stage take it into his head to slug with Rocky.

Our own strong feeling is that the body punishment will get Charles as it did LaStarza. Ezzard never has been especially noted for his ability to take it around the middle. It is doubtful he ever has been hit there as hard and as often as he will be tomorrow night.

It is necessary to name the round to hold the license, we'll take a flier on the 12th. Wouldn't be much surprised if Ezzard is ahead on points when it happens either.

Klamath To See Florists

Klamath Falls will get a chance to see one of the top women's softball teams in the nation, when the Erv Lind Florists, of Portland, play an all-star delegation from the local women's softball league July 9 on Conger Field.

The Portland softballers have been called by many as the "New York Yankees of Softball," and will feature the outstanding pitcher, Betty Evans Grayson, who holds the honor of being selected on the All-American softball team seven times.

Besides "Bullet Betty," the Florist boast a team that will field eight all-Americans, including six times All-American Lois Williams, catcher, and two five timers in Robbie Mulkey and Margaret Dobson. Mulkey is the Florists' first baseman and Dobson gets the call for third base.

The "Fantastic Florists" have won the Northwest championship several times and have copped the World's Championship in 1944, and 1953. In 1948, 1949 and 1952 they were also represented in the world tournament.

In the 1948 world championship game, the Florists and their opponents drew 11,500 softball fans.

The 20-30 club of Klamath Falls is sponsoring the top notch sporting event of the season, and tickets will be on sale at a later date.

TIME OUT

"Quick! Tell us exactly where you were standing, sir . . . we may have a new world shot-put record here!"

Byrne KO's Andy Walker

PORTLAND (AP)—Jimmy Byrne, 215, Portland, floored Andy Walker, 198, twice in the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round heavy-weight boxing match here Tuesday and was awarded a knockout victory when the San Franciscan failed to answer the bell for the fifth.

Preliminaries:
LeRoy (Sugar) Hart, 193, Longview, Wash., knocked out Chuck Maxson, 191, Portland.

Kel Wayne, 157, Portland, knocked out Charlie Clem 152, Seattle (5).

Ralph Collin, 150, Portland, out-pointed Rockjaw Johnson, 149, Seattle (4).

Bill Parker, 174, Tacoma, knocked out Danny Go, 176, Eugene, (1).

Ralph Hill's U of O Mile Mark Broken

EUGENE (AP)—When Bill Dellinger won the mile in the Big Ten-Pacific Coast Conference track meet at Evanston Tuesday, he set a new mark for University of Oregon athletes.

His time of 4:10.6 was 1.6 seconds faster than Ralph Hill ran the mile in 1936. Hill's 4:12.2 stood as the Oregon record until Tuesday.

Dellinger came up from fifth place to outpace Lowell Zellers of Indiana by a stride at the tape. He caught Zellers 40 yards away and gradually edged in front. In doing so, he ran the fastest mile of his career, wiping out his previous mark of 4:13.8 made in winning the NCAA mile last weekend.

Dellinger is a sophomore from Springfield.

Solons Whip Beavers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It appears Portland should try to schedule all of its Pacific Coast League baseball games with Seattle.

The Beavers, battling desperately to get out of the cellar, won five out of six against the Rainiers last week, continuing the mastery they have displayed since the season opened. But their attack collapsed at Sacramento Tuesday night, and the Solons won 5-1.

But if the Rainiers thought their troubles were over when they finished with Portland, San Diego changed their minds. The Padres punched 16 hits off Seattle pitching and beat the Rainiers, 9-6.

Marino Pieretti racked up his 10th win of the season against three defeats in beating Portland. Red Adams went all the way for the Ports and gave up eight hits, while his mates got seven off Pieretti. Richie Myers, Sac shortstop, socked his fifth homer of the year in the second with John Ritchey on base.

At San Diego, Earl Rapp contributed two home runs to the Padres' victory. Bob Kerrigan needed help in the sixth but was credited with the win. The PCL's leading hitter, Harry Elliott of San Diego, smacked his seventh homer in the seventh with one on.

The league-leading Hollywood Stars had their difficulties, too, and that must have made Branch Rickey, major domo of the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, feel right at home.

Baseball's David Harum, who has grown used to seeing his Pirates pummeled elsewhere, visited the satellite club of Hollywood Tuesday night. This team has been called by some the best in the minor leagues.

Tuesday night it might have been mistaken for the Pirates—or were the Pirates ever that bad? Hollywood's Stars took their worst licking of the season as San Francisco pummeled them, 18-12.

Bobby Spicer, a little pitcher who throws just about every pitch known in baseball, went all the way for Los Angeles as the Angels whipped Oakland, 5-3. The Angels put over three runs in the ninth to win it.
