Gus Bell Placed Above Brooklyn, Giant Stars

NEW YORK (AP)—Cincinnati's Birdie Tebbetts, a freshman manager in the National League, is highly impressed with the all-around abilities of the Dodgers' Duke Snider and the Giants' Willie Mays, but he said today he "wouldn't trade Gus Bell for either."

"Understand, I'm not knocking Snider or Mays," he emphasized. "They're fine ballplayers. But I'd rather have Bell on my team than any other center fielder in the National or American League."

The 25-year-old Bell, whom the Reds obtained from Pittsburgh in 1952, is batting an even .350—seventh highest in the center circuit. He has slammed eight home runs and driven in 44 runs.

"Bell does everything you can ask of a player," Tebbetts continued. "He hits equally well against lefty and right-handed pitchers. He's a fine fielder and throws out his share of runners on the bases. There's only one thing wrong, I guess—he doesn't get all the publicity that Snider and Mays do."

Birdie is too concerned with the problems of lifting his club out of sixth place to worry about the upcoming All-Star game, but he thinks it would be a shame if Bell or Ted Kluszewski were left off the squad.

"Show me a better first baseman than Kluszewski," he said. "He bats .300, knocks in over 100 runs and comes up with 40 homers. What more can you ask?"

"If he played in the Polo Grounds he would hit 60 home runs for the Giants. They say he's not much of a fielder, but every time I see a ball hit his way, he comes up with it and he digs those low throws out of the dirt too."

Marciano Breaks Training Camp

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK (AP)—The long, hard months of training were over. Now the hours grew longer for heavy-weight champion Rocky Marciano and challenger Ezzard Charles as they sweated out the mental torture of waiting for the opening bell at Yankee Stadium Thursday night.

This is a bad time—the waiting—for most fighters. And most observers feel that it will affect the boxer—Charles—more than the slugger Marciano.

"It's the long ride to the stadium the night of the fight that gets the boxers," said Marshall Miles, who managed the great Joe Louis and saw many of the boxer's opponents freeze before the battle. "They die on that ride."

Miles picked Rocky in 10 or less. "Charles probably will lead for seven or eight rounds," said Miles. "and then Rocky will connect just like Joe used to do."

The odds are 1-2 that undefeated Rocky will make the former champion from Cincinnati his 41st kayo

Vancouver Setting Pace In WIL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The problem of keeping the Spokane Indians in the Western International Baseball League has taken the spotlight from Vancouver in recent days but the Caplans have gone on winning and now lead the pack by 4½ games.

The Caps, league pace-setters almost from opening day, opened their widest margin to date Tuesday night by whacking Victoria, 2-1 and 4-1. The double win stretched their latest streak to five straight.

The Indians, starting what will be their last road trip if the Spokane fans fail to develop a satisfactory community ownership plan, turned in a 7-5 win in 10 innings at Edmontone. The orphan Indians, whose franchise was declared forfeited last Sunday, are expected to leave the city in the direction of the stadium Thursday night with between $150,000 and $400,000. He held to his prediction of a $500,000 gate "or more" with a break in the weather.

The fighters will share in another $100,000 or so from the coast-to-coast theater - television and $25,000 from the network radio broadcast.

There will be no home television of the 9:30 p.m. test 18-revision. A canvas cover will be hung over the ring in case of a drizzle late Thursday night.

In the event of a weather postponement, the bout will be held the following Thursday.

If Leo Duracher's bank balance holds out there's no telling what heights the New York Giants may reach this season.

Leo's personal investment in the rapid rise of the Giants mounted to $200 today as he hauled out his checkbook and paid off Bill Taylor and Hank Thompson.

Taylor got his hundred for a home run in Milwaukee last Thursday, the only run in a 10-inning victory that moved the Giants into a first-place tie with Brooklyn.

Thompson got into the act last night with a three-run homer after two were out in ninth. It gave the Giants a 3-1 victory over Cincinnati and sole possession of first place.

In neither case did Duracher tell the hitters of his offer before they went to bat.

"The Giants came home last night and went into the last of the ninth against Cincinnati trailing 3-2. Wes Westrum coaxed Harry Perkowski for a walk to open the ninth. Hoot Evers popped out trying to bunt but Whitey Lockman also drew a walk.

Howie Judson came in to erase Al Dark, who had collected three hits. Then lefty Jackie Collum was brought on to face the left-handed-hitting Thompson.

As Hank ran the count to 2-0 Duracher turned to the bench and said: "If he hits one I'll give him a hundred too."

Thompson and Gardner will be on hand today to collect.

"Why in the world from the seventh inning on that Brooklyn had lost to Milwaukee 7-6, meaning that first place was theirs if they could beat the Reds. Milwaukee took third place as Philadelphia bowed to St. Louis 3-1.

In the American League Cleveland stretched its lead to three games over the Chicago White Sox by whipping Washington 9-3. The White Sox never quite found out what hit them as they fell to the Philadelphia Athletics 11-4. New York defeated Baltimore 6-4 and Detroit downed Boston 4-1.

The Dodgers, who lost only 17 games at home all last season, dropped No. 11 last night to the Braves. It was the third straight time Milwaukee has beaten Brooklyn in Ebbets Field this year.

The Braves combed three Brooklyn pitchers for 14 hits and put together four singles in the eighth for the tying and winning runs. Hank Aaron got Milwaukee away to a 2-0 lead with a first-inning home run but Brooklyn led twice, 3-2 in the third after a two-run triple by Junior Gilliam, and 6-5 in the fifth after Duke Snider's 14th home run with two aboard.

Vic Raschi scattered six Philadelphia hits in winning his sixth game for the Cardinals. He gave up a run in the first on two walks and a single by Granny Hamner and helped get it back when he singled in the third in front of a home run by Rip Repulski.

Cleveland's sixth straight victory featured the return to limited action of Al Rosen. The heavy-hitting first baseman, who has been sidelined since June 4 with a fractured finger, appeared in the eighth inning against Washington as a pinch hitter and unloaded a three-run double. The hit helped Art Houtteman post his sixth victory.

The suddenly ferocious Athletics won their fifth in a row, this time at the expense of Bob Keegan, the American League's winningest pitcher. Keegan had won nine and lost only one but against the Athletics he lasted only against the fifth inning.

Bill Wilson, White Sox property until last week, homered in the fifth. Bill Renna hit a two-run homer in the sixth off Don John-
