Marlon Brando To Portray Napoleon In Movie Role

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marlon Brando says he is doing another film role because of a vow to his dying mother.

The actor has reported to 20th Century-Fox to portray the young Napoleon in the film version of the best seller "Desiree." He has returned in glory to the studio where his name was mud only a few months ago.

When he failed to report for shooting of "The Egyptian," the studio replaced him with Edmund Purdom. Then it sued Brando for two million dollars. The suit was canceled when Brando agreed to appear in "Desiree" opposite Jean Simmons.

Brando told me the deal came about because of his mother. He explained:

"She was very ill when the whole thing happened. She was very upset by the innuendo and sniping at me after I left the picture. She made me promise to patch up the trouble. So I agreed to do 'Desiree'."

"She's dead now. But the deal is still on."
 He gave no indication that he was any happier with his current

Oregon Ace To Visit Home

PORTLAND (AP)—The Oregon ace, Lt. Col. Marion Carl, claimant of the world's altitude record, files home Friday for a visit with his family at Hubbard and to take part in a celebration at Cascade Locks.

Carl, credited with downing 18 Japanese planes in World War II, will go to Cascade Locks for a public dinner Friday night, and will take part in the Cascade Locks Fly-in Sunday, when scores of private pilots will land at the airport there.
