New French Premier Hopes For Early Indochina Peace

PARIS (AP)—Pierre Mendes-France set about organizing a new French government today to deliver the Indochina peace he has promised within a month. But his Cabinet apparently will not include Foreign Minister Georges Bidault, the nation's negotiator at the Geneva conference.

The National Assembly approved Mendes-France as premier early today after the 47-year-old Radical Socialist (moderate) outlined a three-point program, including a promise he would reach an Indochina settlement before July 20 or resign. The vote was 419-47, with 154 deputies abstaining. Communists supported him.

The new Premier declared, however, that every possible precaution would be taken to safeguard France's forces in Indochina. He also declared his plan did not envisage a surrender.

"France does not have to accept and will not accept conditions for settlement which would be in conflict with its most vital interests," he declared. "France will remain in the Far East. Neither our allies, nor our enemies must harbor the least doubt on the meaning of our determination."

Today's Assembly vote saw Communists, Socialists, Radical Socialists, a big bloc of De Gaulleists and scatters from other parties lined up behind Mendes-France. Independent Republicans and MRP members mostly abstained, but eight MRP's disobeyed party orders to vote for confirmation.

Mendes-France told the Assembly: "If the conflict in Indochina is not settled—and settled quickly—it is the risk of war, of an international war and perhaps an atomic war—that must be envisaged."

He did not outline any precise plan for achieving peace beyond continuation of the Geneva talks and a promise that "no measure will be neglected that shows itself necessary to this end." This implied direct negotiations with Ho Chi Minh, Moscow-tutored leader of the Vietnam rebels in Indochina. Mendes-France has consistently urged such negotiations in the past.

Today's Assembly vote saw Communists, Socialists, Radical Socialists, a big bloc of De Gaulleists and scatters from other parties lined up behind Mendes-France. Independent Republicans and MRP members mostly abstained, but eight MRP's disobeyed party orders to vote for confirmation.
