grade at Roosevelt together. Places were set for 24 guests—with the honored guest's table especially set in all gold-and-yellow. A wedding group of Story-Book dolls included a bride and bridegroom and four attendants. Yellow pansies were featured in the floral background for the miniature figures. Large arrangements of red, white and pink peonies were dramatic color accents in the rooms. —Photo by Molatore

BUSY VACATION FOR MRS. BRATTAIN

FORT KLAMATH — Postmaster, Mrs. Eldon M. Brattain's annual vacation was from May 24 to June 7. During the two weeks, she entertained on two separate occasions at the Brattain ranch. Tuesday evening, May 25, the following friends were guests for dinner and bridge: Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine and Mrs. Elmer (Dutch) Zumbun.

Doralyn Parton Named As Nu Phi Mu 1954 Honor Girl

Nu Phi Mu sorority held its annual election for "Lynn Terry Honor Girl" recently. A secret ballot vote named Doralyn Parton the most outstanding girl in Zeta Chapter.

The girl receiving this high honor is chosen for her achievements, and qualities of character. The honor girl may be elected by a point system offered by Nu Phi Mu international or by observation and individual judgment of the sorority members. The latter method was used in the Zeta Chapter election, with the members using the following achievements as a guide:

For excellent cooperation with all chapter activities and interests unusual and constructive suggestions accepted for any worthy Nu Phi Mu activity which furthers the success of Nu Phi Mu; for special assistance offered to any chapter activity; for individual thought, time, and effort offered to promote special projects sponsored by the sorority; and for offering the personal talents of her words and deeds for the recognition of her sorority.

Doralyn Parton, the niece of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cramer of this city, received not only the "Lynn Terry Honor Girl" title, but also the honor of a unanimous vote from her sorority sisters.

She will be especially recognized at the chapter's formal ritual of the badge ceremony to be held at a later date.
