

MRS. CLIFFORD RAY STILES, who before her marriage was Karen Rae Brollier, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brollier of 4756 Allamont Drive. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stiles, 4629 Austin Street. The marriage was solemnized Sunday afternoon, June 6, in First Christian Church with the Rev. George Alder officiating. —Photo by Guderian

Stiles-Brollier Nuptial Vows Said in First Christian Church

Afternoon nuptials Sunday, June 6, in First Christian Church united Karen Rae Brollier and Clifford Ray Stiles in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brollier of 4756 Allamont Drive; her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stiles, 4629 Austin Street.

The Rev. George Alder read the double ring ceremony before a background of tall lighted tapers and baskets filled with white gladioli and Marguerite daisies, yellow, pink and lavender colored. A similar arrangement was on the piano.

The bride recited her vows in a gown she made herself of slipper satin topped with lace. The skirt of lace over satin featured a long train. The bodice buttoned to the waist and had a small Peter Pan collar, also of lace. Long sleeves came to a point over her wrists.

A fingertip length veil was secured to a scalloped shell type headpiece with seed pearl trim. The bride carried a single white orchid with purple throat which rested on a white Bible, a graduation gift from her maternal grandmother. Streamers knotted with stephanotis were attached to the orchid.

Mrs. William Hamilton, organist, played the processional and recessional and accompanied the soloist, Ronnie Bryan, who sang "Through the Years" and the "Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Mrs. Curtis Lockrem, matron of honor, who wore a walls length gown of yellow colored net with satin bodice topped with a row of pleated net. The brief lace jacket was designed with capped sleeves and mandarin collar. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of yellow and lavender daisies and she wore a matching headband.

Bridesmaids were Shirley Anderson and Lillian Stiles, sister of the bridegroom. Their dresses were identical in style to that of the matron of honor. Shirley's gown and flowers were lavender colored; Lillian's were green.

Carolyn Jean Zarosinski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zarosinski, Medford, scattered white rose petals in the bride's path. She wore a pink dress similar in style to those of the senior attendants. Monte Brollier, young brother of the bride, carried the rings on a pillow made by Mrs. Ray Dingman.

Richard Lundsten served as best man; Dick Parker and Larry Lund ushered.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brollier wore a navy suit with white collar, a white hat with navy trim, white purse and blue shoes. Her corsage was of small red rosebuds.

The senior Mrs. Stiles wore a navy suit with white trim also. Her accessories were pink and a corsage of small pink rosebuds was pinned at her shoulder.

"Something old" for Karen was a handkerchief carried by her mother when she was married; "something new" was the bride's dress; her veil was borrowed; "blue" was a garter given her by Shirley Anderson and in her shoe was a penny.

Following the ceremony the new Mr. and Mrs. Stiles received guests in the church parlors where Mrs. Joe Zarosinski, Lois Balliet and Mrs. Edward (Gwen Balliet) Barron cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Floyd Stone and Mrs. Kenneth (Betty Redfield) Young poured punch; Mrs. Don (Wanda Carson) Anderson had charge of the guest book.

Later the bride changed to a pink and gray suit with white accessories and wore the orchid from her wedding.

Young Stiles is a graduate of Klamath Union High School with the class of 1953 and is employed at Northrop Aircraft Co. in Los Angeles, California, where the couple is living.

Birthday Dinner

BONANZA—A joint birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. O. C. Wells and Dick Pepple was held at the Pepple home in Klamath Falls on June 9. Beautiful cakes were on the dining table. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pepple, Pamela and Michelle Pepple, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pepple and Ted Pepple. Mrs. O. C. Wells, and Ruth Peyton.

Tavernier-Hoefler Rites In Zion Lutheran Church

PINK, WHITE AND PALE GREEN . . . were the colors chosen for the early June wedding in Zion Lutheran Church of Gloria Hoefler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Hoefler, 3128 Crest Avenue; to Boyd Tavernier, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Tavernier, Milesville, South Dakota. White gladioli and greenery was the effective background for the traditional white satin gown worn by the bride, escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. The long sleeved gown was made en-train and designed with seed pearl encrusted cut-out detail circling the round neckline. A heart-shaped effect was achieved in the halo of lace and seed pearls holding the fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book.

Her sister, Wanda Hoefler, was maid of honor, in full length pink net over taffeta, and carrying pink and white daisies. Clarence Welch, cousin of the bride, wore green and carried yellow and white daisies.

The Rev. R. E. Graef was officiant at the 2 p.m. ceremony. Roger Tavernier served his brother as best man; and Loy Welch, bride's cousin, ushered.

Mrs. Hoefler wore a navy blue ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The senior Mrs. Tavernier chose aqua with white accessories and her corsage was also of pink roses.

At the reception in the church parlors, Mrs. Sarah Michael and Mrs. Verland Huff poured; Mrs. B. M. Welch cut the cake; and Mrs. Roger Tavernier assisted. For the wedding trip north, Gloria wore a navy blue suit with red accessories. The young couple will live in Klamath Falls. —Photo by Floyd

WITH HER ATTENDANTS before her marriage Sunday to Clifford Ray Stiles is Karen Rae Brollier. From left are Monte Brollier, ring bearer, brother of the bride; Carolyn Jean Zarosinski, Medford, flower girl; Lillian Stiles, sister of the bridegroom, and Shirley Anderson, bridesmaids; Mrs. Curtis Lockrem (the former Carol Dingman), matron of honor. —Photo by Guderian

LEAVING THE RECEPTION are the new Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ray Stiles (the former Karen Rae Brollier) who were married in a 3 p.m. double ring ceremony Sunday, June 6, in First Presbyterian Church. The newlyweds will live in Los Angeles, California. —Photo by Guderian

EARLY HOTEL
115 No. 5th Phone 5165
MODERN ROOMS
COMPLETELY REDECORATED
Under New Management
Mrs. Jack R. (Johnny) Fugate

You can buy a 6 months auto insurance policy at reduced rates from Hans Norland, 627 Pine St.

ATTEND BIBLE BAPTIST CHURCH
—2244 WIARD ST.—

11 a.m. "Dedicated!"
7:30 p.m. "Voices from the Valley"
Sermons by N. A. Winegerden
6:30 p.m. Baptist League

ENROLL NOW
In A
Growing
Sunday School
9:30 p.m.

ENJOY THESE MUSICAL TREATS:
✓ Lively Congregational Singing
✓ Vocal Trio Selections
✓ Mrs. Boyd Sprague at the Organ
✓ Miss Jewel Larson at the Piano

Go West . . . in fashion

Where Brand Names in Western Fashions mean more --

The Town Shop

SHIRTS
Plaids, short sleeves$2.98 up
Western Fashions$3.98 up
Fancy Westerns$7.98 up
Trick Riders$14.98 up

FRONTIER PANTS
Western Riders, wool and cotton$7.95
Western Frontiers, cotton twill in color$7.95 - $8.95 - $9.95
Ladies Levi's Riders$4.95
Ladies Levi's$4.25
Frontiers, 100% wool in many fabrics$17.95 up

JACKETS
Western Suede Jackets$29.95

GAMBLER TIES
Western Ties of all styles$1.00

BELTS
Navajo Beaded Belts$2.98
Navajo Conchos$1.98 up

Klamath Basin
Roundup
July 3-4-5

The Town Shop
500 MAIN