In Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Saturday morning, June 12, Kathleen O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Denis O'Connor, 133 Grant, and John Moran, San Francisco, were united in the sacrament of holy matrimony.

The bride's parents invited approximately 500 guests to offer the Mass with them.

Celebrant for the Solemn High Nuptial Mass was the Rev. Father Aloysius O'Connor, O.D.C. (Order Discalced Carmelites), a cousin of the bride, from Alhambra, California. Deacon was the Very Rev. Father T. P. Casey, pastor of the bride's parish. The Very Rev. Father John Phelan, pastor of St. Augustine's parish, Merrill, was sub-deacon; and the Rev. Father Patrick Meskill served as master of ceremonies.

Catholic nuptials are distinguished in the church as one of the two occasions when a priest may interrupt the canon of the Mass to impart special blessings on the bride. The other occasion is in the ordination of a priest.
