

Giants Listed As Incredible

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Incredible!

That is the only word which describes the surprising deeds of Leo Durocher's New York Giants.

During the last three weeks the Giants have won 18 of 21 games, and a majority of those have been won in the Giants last turn at bat.

Last night's game with the Milwaukee Braves was typical. Trailing 2-1 through eight innings and limited to six hits by Gene Conley, the Giants erupted for three hits and, with the aid of a walk and a sacrifice, tallied two runs to nip the Braves 3-2.

It was an important victory, for coupled with Brooklyn's 13-1 defeat at the hands of the Cincinnati Redlegs earlier in the day, it boosted the Giants' first-place lead to two games over the Dodgers.

Willie Mays and Monte Irvin shared the laurels last night. Mays, whose homer No. 21 had accounted for the Giants' first run, drove in the tying run with a double. Irvin, hitless in his last 26 times at bat, and riding the bench because of a severe batting slump, stepped up to the plate as a pinch hitter and knocked in the winning run with a two-out single to right center.

That's the way it's been going since the Giants began their spectacular climb to the top. Just two weeks ago to the day, it was a double by Irvin that scored two runs in the ninth to give them a 6-5 triumph over the Braves.

Two days later, Bill Taylor's pinch-hit homer in the 10th beat Conley and the Braves 1-0. A week ago yesterday a three-run homer by Hank Thompson with two out in the ninth against the Reds enabled the Giants to turn defeat into victory.

Last Saturday, it was a pinch-hit homer by Hoot Evers with two out in the ninth that enabled the Giants to clinax a comeback victory over the Cardinals. The next day, another couple of pinch hits—Bobby Hofman and Dusty Rhodes—claimed homers in the same inning to nip the Redbirds 7-4.

Instruction Schedule Completed

Tennis lessons will be given from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at the Moore Park courts, according to the head instructor Jo Widness.

Tuesday and Thursday mornings will be open for practice and individual instruction from one of the three instructors who will be on duty at all times except in the afternoon and evening hours when the courts are opened to free play.

Adult instructional classes will be held Sunday afternoon starting at 1:00. This will give the adults of the Basin area a chance to learn more about the court game. Other arrangements can be made by the adults by contacting Jo Widness if they are unable to attend the Sunday afternoon classes.

There is no charge for the lessons and those interested will just have to bring their shoes and rackets. If a racket is needed, the recreation department has a few for instructional purposes that can be used.

ATHLETIC'S ACE DOWN TO LAST MOUND CHANCE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Little Bob Shantz was down to his last hope today of getting back on the mound for the Philadelphia Athletics this season.

Shantz went to Baltimore yesterday to be examined by Dr. George T. Bennett and was told he apparently is suffering from a pulled tendon behind his left shoulder.

Shantz said the physician told him to lay off all pitching activity for the next three weeks. After that, he is to try throwing slowly and carefully. If he experiences any pain at all, he is to quit for the rest of the season.

Bearden Blanks H'Wood

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Manager Jerry Priddy tapped lefty Gene Bearden to work for Seattle Tuesday night as the Rainiers opened their first Pacific Coast League baseball series with Hollywood.

It was a wise choice. The former American League ace limited the league-leaders to four scattered hits as he posted a 3-0 shutout.

After a disastrous week at Sacramento, Portland also hit the victory trail, upsetting the potent Oakland Oaks, 7-3.

The Sacramento Solons, who took four of seven games from Portland last week, pushed Los Angeles all over Wrigley field and humiliated the Angels 12-3. San Diego whipped San Francisco 2-1.

Bearden was in rare form at Seattle as the Rainiers' white-washed Hollywood. Bearden gave up only four hits, while his rival Roger Bowman, was touched for all the Seattle runs before he gave way to Gordy Matzberger in the eighth. Clarence Maddern drove in two Seattle runs and Leo Thomas the other. Bowman was gunning for his ninth straight victory.

Bill Bogmler pitched Portland to up 10 hits but was given good support and two double plays helped when the Oaks seemed about to rally. The big blow of the game was a homer with two on by Fletcher Robbe. The Portland victory deprived the Oaks of an opportunity to cut down San Diego's hold on second place in the standing.

San Diego's win over San Francisco reduced Hollywood's hold on first place to five games, while Oakland slipped to seven games behind.

Seattle Purchases Bob Hall

SEATTLE (AP)—Bob Hall, who wore a Hollywood uniform only last week, may be pitching against the Pacific Coast League leaders in their series at Seattle this week.

The Rainiers announced Tuesday they have purchased the husky righthander from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Hall pitched for Seattle in 1951 and 1952 and was drafted by the Pirates in 1953. The Pirates optioned Hall to Hollywood after baseball commissioner Ford Frick voided a deal that would have returned him to the Rainiers in mid-season last year. He has won four and lost nine at Hollywood this season.

Garrison was an all-Northern Division guard at Idaho last season and Fulton was a reserve center. Hall, a sophomore, was out of action in 1954.

J. E. Buchanan, university president, said the transcripts will be forwarded to Mississippi Southern but he indicated the NCAA may be asked to investigate.

Hodges comes to Idaho from Murray State College, Ky.

Herb Flam Faces Tough Job

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Dangerous but slightly rusty Herb Flam today becomes the first American in the current Wimbledon tennis tournament to clash with one of the top Australians.

The crew-out Beverly Hills, Calif., youngster goes against third-seeded Ken Rosewall in a second-round match on the famed center court.

This is a tough assignment for Flam, a semifinalist here two years ago, and he knows it. But it also is a big opportunity for an unseeded player to polish off a high-ranked performer.

Flam is a seaman in the Navy now and came here on a 30-day leave. At his San Francisco station, he played some weekend tennis but has been out of tough tournament competition for some time.

Still, if he can come up with a victory, he will add a big splash of prestige to the American contingent which is engaging in a personal battle with the Australians for the title.

Two other second-round matches also will occupy the attention of the experts. Top-seeded Tony Trabert of Cincinnati opposes Owen Williams of South Africa, and Lewis Hoad of Australia plays Ignacy Tloczynski a Pole now living in England.

Both Trabert and Hoad are expected to breeze through and most observers here think they'll wind up battling for the title.

Merrill, Gun Store, Poole's Win

Merrill, Gun Store and Poole's all posted victories in the first set of Cub Baseball games at Conger Field last night in the official opening of the summer recreational program.

In the first game Merrill's pitcher, Laney pitched a no-hit-two run game over Joe's Sport Shop, and won by a 6-2 score.

The Gun Store outscored Chiloquin 12-7 in the second contest of the evening's action, and Poole's turned in their win by dumping Malin 3-1.

Poole's Carney pitched a one hit game for the winners and hit a home run in the third to score two of the Poole's runs.

Hoop Players Follow Coach To New School

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP)—Three Idaho basketball players are preparing to follow their former coach, Chuck Finley, to Mississippi Southern, Finley's successor learned Tuesday.

Harlan Hodges, arriving here to pick up the reins dropped by Finley when he accepted the Mississippi Southern post, was advised that Bob Garrison, Orin Fulton and Dee Hall, the players, and student manager Ralph Litton have asked Idaho to forward their school transcripts to the Southern school.

Garrison was an all-Northern Division guard at Idaho last season and Fulton was a reserve center. Hall, a sophomore, was out of action in 1954.

J. E. Buchanan, university president, said the transcripts will be forwarded to Mississippi Southern but he indicated the NCAA may be asked to investigate.

Hodges comes to Idaho from Murray State College, Ky.

baseball commissioner Ford Frick voided a deal that would have returned him to the Rainiers in mid-season last year. He has won four and lost nine at Hollywood this season.
