Meetings Called To Plan Churchill, Ike Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower summoned Republican and Democratic congressional leaders and his chief military advisers to a series of huddles today to lay a solid foundation for his imminent talks with British Prime Minister Churchill.

French Warned About Wine

PARIS (AP)—France's Academy of Medicine warned parents today not to start children on wine too early. It makes them bad-tempered and even see strange things. The astonished academy came out in favor of a prohibition campaign — for children after Dr. Suzanne Serin told them about some of the juvenile bibbers she's encountered.

Thirty key Senate and House members were scheduled to meet with the President and Secretary of State Dulles and to hear a report by Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith on the deadlocked Geneva conference.

Those negotiations with the Communists on peace in Indochina are expected to figure largely in the Eisenhower-Churchill discussions which start Friday.

An hour and a half later, the National Security Council was ordered to a conference which the White House said was "necessitated" by the forthcoming Churchill visit.

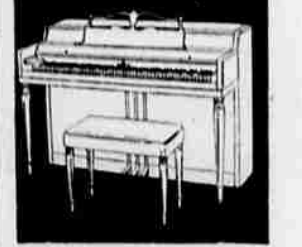

Still later, Eisenhower arranged to see Dulles in a more private conference. Eisenhower turned to another facet of this country's Far Eastern problems—the future of Japan in a speech last night to the National Editorial Assn. He told a convention of editors of some 5,200 weekly newspapers that Japan is the "key to the defense" of the western Pacific.

"So it becomes absolutely mandatory for us," he said, "that Japan does not fall under the domination of the Soviets or into the hands of the Kremlin."

And, he said, Japan cannot live in the free world unless something is done to help her make her way. He suggested that Japan might go Communist if this country does not

Judge Refuses To Lower Bail

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Three Communists convicted of harboring a fugitive remained behind bars after their wives failed to raise the bail to free them pending an appeal.

Mrs. Sophie Steinberg of New York bid $45,000 for her husband, Sidney, Tuesday but the court stood firm in its original request of $75,000.

Mrs. Marge Rose of Minneapolis offered $19,200 for her husband Carl, and Mrs. Edna Coleman of New York said she could raise $18,000 for her husband, Samuel.

But Chief Judge William Deanman stood pat on his original demand of $40,000 for each of the men.

"We have people who believe in escape. It's a runaway crowd," said the judge.

The three men were convicted of harboring New Yorker Robert Thompson, one of the country's top Reds who jumped bail while appealing his conviction of advocating forcible overthrow of the government. Thompson was captured with the three bail-seekers in a Sierra Mountain hideaway cabin by the FBI.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Robert Schnack argued against reducing the bail, contending the pattern of the participants was one of flight and support of those in flight.

4-H Club Names House Leaders

Three Klamath county 4-H Club members were elected to house offices at 4-H summer school as leaders were chosen in the living organizations.

They included Richard Burnett, social chairman, Beta Theta Pi; Steven Southwell, president, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Don Alt, song leader, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The 4-H summer school, held annually at Oregon State College, will end June 25.
