

ALL STRUNG OUT and no place to go is the fate of this little calf when a couple of queen contestants slapped a rope on him and held him for the cowhand with the iron.

New TV Color To Be Shown

Advance for 10 a.m. EST June 22
BOSTON, (AP)—More than 40 major CBS television network programs will be broadcast in color beginning Aug. 22, Hubbell Robinson Jr., vice president in charge of network programs, said today. In an address to the Advertising Federation of America, Robinson said the first color telecast will be of Ed Sullivan's Toast of The Town on Sunday, Aug. 22. About three or more different programs will be presented in color each week, he said. The programs will originate in New York City and Hollywood, Calif. CBS presented a sample of its color shows today, a 15-minute closed circuit telecast of The New Revue, originating in New York and seen on 10 receivers in the Hotel Statler here. By early fall, Robinson said, between 60 and 70 stations affiliated with CBS television will be equipped to broadcast the color programs.

Cops Ordered To Wear Name Tags

WALTHAM, Mass. (AP)—Police men are under orders from Chief Asa E. McKenna to show the words "Waltham Police" on their name tags, shirts and blouses. The idea is to keep people from confusing them with taxi drivers and gas station attendants, Chief McKenna said.

SEES GAME THE HARD WAY
RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Richard Ashworth, 9, wanted to see the Richmond Virginians of the International League play against Ottawawa. Not having any money, he attempted to scale the left field fence. Instead he snagged his leg on a piece of wire. After emergency treatment Richard was given a box seat by the team's physician, Dr. E. E. Haddock, who is also Richmond's mayor and a team booster.

PERFECT RELIEF JOB and relief hitting, too. Pitcher Gerald Wooten of Shawnee in the Sooner State League perfect job of relief pitching — was called in from the bullpen and hurled four innings of no-hit ball. His home run with the bases loaded in the ninth inning won the game 11-8.

STRIKES OUT ON BENCH

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Randy Randle of the Lakeland Pilots struck out while sitting on the bench in the dugout during a Florida State League game here. Rain was falling in the fifth inning and Lakeland, trailing by seven runs, wanted the game called. Umpire Roth Belbeck refused and when Randle didn't come to bat, Belbeck ordered Orlando's Charlie Holt to pitch. Belbeck called three strikes on Randle while he sat on the bench. Orlando won, 10-1.
