

IT TAKES MUSCLE and plenty of it when you're working in a branding corral. And a couple queen contestants proved they had it while helping Marshall Poole and Bob Moisie slap the iron on these calves.

HORSES GOTTA REST, TOO, so the queen contestants tied them up to this hay trough for a well-earned snooze during the lunch hour.

BULLDOGGING IS A ROUGH and tough form of sport, but the experts make it seem easy. Here Gene Pruett grabs for the horns while Lakeview's Ross Dollarhide hazes for him.

Life Savings Stolen From Can

BALTIMORE, (AP) — Several months ago, Dominick Nescl decided to hide his savings of $10,000. So the 68-year-old retired rail-roader pried the caps off 10 four-

Gambling Halls Closed By Raid

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP) — Heavily armed civilian and military raiding parties seized more than $20,000 in gambling equipment here last night in a crackdown on vice. Twenty-two slot machines and an equal number of pinball gaming tables were confiscated in three swift raids on a honky tonk and a warehouse in the city and another night spot outside of town.

Rain Damages Strawberry Crop

PORTLAND (AP) — Because of recent rains, a few strawberry growers in the Gresham area report that they have given up picking because their berries were unmarketable. Others reported losses, because of decay and mold, at between 25 and 40 per cent. The grower price here was reported Monday at 14 cents a pound.

Carolina Golfer Sizzles

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Arnold Palmer, young Wake Forest College golf star, has found the Carolina Country Club course here to his liking. Early this spring he shot a 7-under-par 64 to tie the course record. A few weeks later he posted a 62, which included seven birdies and an eagle.

Release of Atomic Information Seen

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — The man who helps the Atomic Energy Commission decide what technical information should remain secret predicts that "it is inevitable that peacetime nonweapons technical information will in time be essentially completely unclassified." In fact, declared Dr. James G. Beckerley, director of classification for the AEC, "at the present time it is apparent that a restrictive policy on the publication of nonweapons technology is of questionable value" because of demonstrated Russian progress in the weapons field.

SAFETY FIRST!

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — Fire engine sirens interrupted a civic club safety meeting where Sgt. Joe Jenkinson, city safety officer, was speaking. Jenkinson's car was ablaze. The fire started from a portable spotlight he had left burning on the seat.
