KASRU Flies To Cedarville

Fifteen KASRU planes participated in a fly-in to Cedarville Sunday morning, June 20. The Cedarville group provided transportation for the visitors and a first on the program was a bountiful picnic lunch served in a mountain area picnic ground some distance from town.

Later in the day the youngsters in the party were entertained at a swimming party.

The next fly-in will be an update get together at the Odell-Crescent Lake airstrip July 11.

Ben Burgess reported Cedarville tops for hospitality and entertainment. Eldon Alt is president of KASRU.

National GOP Committee Member To Tour Oregon

A busy week is planned for Bertha S. Adkins, assistant to the chairman of the Republican National Committee and director of the committee's program for women's activities on her coming visit next week to Oregon.

Miss Adkins will be met in Portland by Mrs. Olive Cornett, Republican National Committeewoman from Oregon, who will accompany her on her speaking tour.

Miss Adkins, a national committee woman in her home state of Maryland since 1948, is a member of a prominent family of practicing politicians on the Eastern shore.

She has crossed the country many times before and in the 1952 campaign, met frequently with other politically-minded women. She is a convincing speaker, served eight years as dean of women at Eastern Maryland College and four years as dean of residence at Bradford Junior College in Massachusetts.

She is an alumna of Salisbury High School and the Baldwin School in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, holds an AB degree from Wellesley College, and a master's degree from New York's Columbia University.

She will arrive in Portland Sunday, June 27, and will attend a luncheon meeting in Tait, Monday, when residents of surrounding counties are invited. Tuesday noon she will be at Coquille and that night will appear at Coos Bay. Wednesday night she will speak in Portland. Thursday night she will attend a smorgasbord dinner at the auditorium of the Clackamas County Fairgrounds and Friday noon will be in Washington County.

While in Portland she will be entertained by the central committee at the Portland Golf Club near Hillsboro.

These meetings are being sponsored by the central committees in each county. Miss Adkins visits, assisted by the Republican clubs in each area.
