

Ilda Sari Weds Ernest A. Wyld June 19

—All photos by Guderian

THE BRIDE . . . was Ilda Marie Sari, before her marriage to Ernest A. Wyld, June 19, in Sacred Heart Catholic Church. She is the daughter of E. C. Sari; and bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wyld, Myrtle Point. She is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sari, a name well-known throughout the Klamath Basin and Northern California.

*Impressive Nuptial Mass
Unites Member of Well-Known Klamath Falls Family to Myrtle Point Man*

WITH HER FATHER . . . in Sacred Heart Church before the Nuptial Mass.

AT THE RECEPTION . . . in the parish hall, the new Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Wyld cut the first piece of their wedding cake — which was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom—faithful likenesses of the handsome couple.

TWO OF HER BRIDESMAIDS . . . Theresa Bruner, left; and Shirley Snider, right, raise the filmy veil before they let it fall over the bride's face. The wedding, a social event of June, was witnessed by approximately 300 guests. —All wedding pictures by Guderian

S
O
C
I
E
T
Y

By MILLY
RAMSBY

Bountiful Buffet Climaxes Yacht Club Dance

LAST YACHT CLUB DANCE of the season — and one of the "best" according to opinions expressed by members and guests who were out at the club last Saturday night. The "rainbow and pot-of-gold" decorating theme was expertly carried out by Mrs. Dave Liskey's committee; and set the tempo for a gay evening.
Some of the crowd are pictured, top left (l to r), Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dorlaque, and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Roseau, Tennant, visiting at her parents' home. Top right, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Carter, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy F. Carter. In circle, Arlene Frees, left, from Los Angeles, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Jesse Litwiller, right.
In other picture, Walt Kennett, center, with Mrs. Kennett, left; and Mrs. J. Martin Adams, right.
—All photos by Lee Stoner