Cascade Crest OES Chapter 159 25th Anniversary In Chiloquin

CHILOQUIN — The twenty-fifth anniversary of Cascade Crest chapter 159 OES in Chiloquin Saturday, June 19, was a formal evening program held at the high school gymnasium. Banks of silver and pink tinted manzanita edged the floor and the stage. Roses on a white trellis were accent touches. The pink hues of rhododendrons were reflected in the large "Memories" backdrop and completed the decorations.

Worthy matron, Rosalie Hoback, and Worthy Patron, Dwight Kirchner, were escorted to the East by the marshal, Sayde Page, following an organ prelude.

Grand officers introduced from the East by worthy matron during her welcome speech were H. Fay Ambrose, Portland; past grand matron, Doris Caldwell, Medford; Grand Adah, Helen McCornack, Klamath Falls; grand representative of New York in Oregon; and Letha Murphy, Klamath Falls, grand committee member. James Zeller, Glendale, Oregon, member of the local chapter, gave the invocation which was followed by an organ solo by Athel Roser, and a talk by Ethel Zimmerman, chairman of anniversary arrangements. She was later given a gift by the planning group, the past matrons. Mrs. Zimmerman then introduced Edna Coons, Prineville, first worthy matron, who told of the early history of the chapter.

Later history was given by Myrtle Myers, Williamson River, assisted by star points, Ruphane Mannering, Hazel Deffenbacher, Cordelia Hoback, associate patron, Layton Hoback; and associate matron, Helen Wing. Ruphane Mannering presented two solos, "My Moonlight Madonna" and "Pretend," before short talks were given by the distinguished guests, who were presented by worthy patron, Dwight Kirchner, after he announced the purchase of the Spanish Castle by the Masons and Star as their first owned home in 25 years.

The worthy matron conducted the closing of the program which featured eight local girls, members of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 6, of Klamath Falls, in a beautiful dance, "Anniversary Waltz." Dancing were Sue Seabolt, Sharon Zadina, Linda Pope, Gail Mannering, Barbara Adamo, Louise Niehaus, Dona and Janet Clark. Charter members of the star present were Marie Buell, Edna Coons, Edna and E. E. Evans, Elvina and Roy Gienger, Henrietta Markwardt, Grace Wells, and Ethel Zimmerman. Other members were J. Q. Buell, Rebecca Davis, Olive Ervin, Leah J. Huntington, Alta V. Johnson, Cornelia and B. E. Peden, W. C. Wells, Daisy Warren.

Special honor was paid to the past matrons and patrons of the chapter who have been: 1929, Edna Coons, E. E. Evans; 1930, Ethel Zimmerman, E. E. Evans; 1931, Edna Davis, H. A. Davis; 1932, Marie Buell, William Morande; 1933, Henrietta Markwardt, William Morande; 1934, Grace Wells, Philip Cole; 1935, Grace Cole, Paul Mudge; 1936, Mazie Morande, Guy Staiger; 1937, Hazel Staiger, William Morande; 1938, Ida Grimes, Glen Hale; 1939, Marian Mudge, Ralph Lou; 1940, Lillian Lou, William Morande; 1941, Orpha O'Donahue, Paul Mudge; 1942, Virginia Brown, William Morande; 1943, Helen Parsley, Paul Mudge; 1944, Margaret Hosley, Ernest Hosley; 1945, Geneva Bratton, Lou Kellison; 1946, Audrey Kellison, Crawford Lewis; 1947, Mary Norval, William Morande; 1948, Athel Roser, Lou Kellison; 1949, Elizabeth Zel-
