Alturas Garden Club Stages Outstanding Flower Show

ALTURAS—The Alturas Garden Club's spring flower show June 5, was a delightful success. The theme, taken from Hiawatha, was carried out in the stage setting in a mural painted by Mrs. Lura Wardwell of Alturas, and depicted a mountain scene with Hiawatha in the foreground. The tea tables were decorated with rare and beautiful Indian baskets loaned for the occasion by Fred Hufman, Bailey Dorris and Ralph Laird. All committee chairmen were dressed in colorful squaw dresses. Mrs. O. D. Morgan and Mrs. Guy Young were chairmen for the tea served during the afternoon.

A program was presented by Ruby Golden, Mabeth Starr, Phyllis Lynch, accompanied on the piano by Erlene Zeger. Judges for the flower show were from the garden club of Klamath Falls; they were Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, Mrs. D. McKenzie, Mrs. C. Cheyne, and Mrs. C. M. Nyhart, who were very complimentary to the Alturas club for the beautiful exhibits and arrangements.

The program in the evening was presented by the Alturas Allamanders who entertained with square dances. Specimen awards for arrangements were won by the Cedarville Garden Club, Mrs. George Stockman and Mrs. Guy Young of Alturas.

Junior arrangement awards were won by Lynn Flournoy of Likely, and Colleen Young of Alturas. Two blue ribbon awards for arrangements were won by Mrs. Kenneth Flournoy.

In the specimen specials, awards were won by Mrs. Guy Young and Willetta Blevins for iris; Camilla Acosta won an award for her coleus plant; Mrs. Cecil Baker for her bushrose; Mrs. P. W. McKinney for a bleeding heart plant, and Mrs. Forrest Doyle for a delphinium. Blue, red and gold ribbons for first, second and third, and yellow ribbons for special awards were given for many beautiful entries.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Larsen, Long Beach, California, were overnight guests at the home of Mrs. Larsen's cousin, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, while enroute home from a tour of Wisconsin. Another cousin, Mrs. Vivian Sheaks, Yakima, arrived Wednesday for a visit. She and Mrs. Taylor left Sunday evening for Reno, stopping enroute to have dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Booth, Klamath Falls and Roy and Glenn La Prairie. Mrs. Sheaks visited friends in this vicinity Friday and Saturday while she was a house guest at the Williamson River ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McQuiston; she also saw other old friends in Klamath Falls before returning home to Sacramento Sunday.

Calling on old friends Sunday was Wilfred Donnelly, Millbrae, California. His daughter, Gwendolyn is married and living with her parents while her husband is overseas. Donnelly, accompanied by a friend, will enjoy a week's fishing before returning home. Donnelly is a salesman for the Firestone Co.

Mrs. Elizabeth Loosley spent Saturday night in Klamath Falls as guest of her granddaughter, the Howard Hollidays.
