Lakeview Hears Neuberger
 LAKEVIEW (AP) - Richard L. Neuberger, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate from Oregon, was principal speaker Saturday at the dedication of the new Lake County courthouse.
 He described what he said was recent timidity in political thinking. "Yet the Declaration of Independence was a new idea, the Emancipation Proclamation was a new idea, and the Oregon State Constitution of 1859 was a new idea. Are we to say that no new ideas are palatable?" he asked.

Accountants Name New Officers
 PRINEVILLE (AP) - Martin A. Fitzgerald, Portland, is the new president of the Oregon Assn. of Public Accountants.
 Serving with him will be Robert D. Benjamine, Grants Pass, vice president; Richard P. McRae, Prineville, secretary; and L. W. Garlock, Portland, treasurer.
 Named to the board of governors at the convention here Saturday were: Alton Lenhart, Eugene; Harley G. Young, Portland; William T. Wall, Astoria; Emil Mueller, Tillamook; and Hugh McCredie, Portland.
 Next year's convention will be at Corvallis.

Fourteen Dead In Air Crash

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) - An investigation was under way today into the crash of a big Air Force refueling plane on Box Springs Mountain early yesterday with a loss of 14 lives.
 The KC97 Strato Tanker of the 95th Bomb Wing at Altus Air Force Base, Okla., struck the mountain at the 3,000-foot level while groping through a heavy overcast for a landing at Norton AFB at San Bernardino.
 The pilot had asked permission to land at March AFB here, 12 miles south of Norton. But because of a local overcast, the plane was directed by radio to land at Norton. Box Springs Mountain is between the two bases.
 After striking the mountain, the four-engine plane slid into a boulder ridge and burst into flames. Ninety minutes later ground rescue units from March AFB reached the scene and radioed that there were no survivors.
 The plane was on a routine training flight from Altus. In addition to the regular crew of seven, it carried seven passengers.

Archeologist Probes Tomb

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) - The recently uncovered Saqqara Sarcophagus proved to be empty yesterday but its discoverer thinks he will find the real tomb of an ancient Pharaoh deeper within the pyramid.
 Archeologist Zakaria Goseim, who found the sarcophagus May 21 beneath a step pyramid he had discovered last December, said last night it was a "symbolic tomb" and he expects to find the real one somewhere else in the pyramid.
 "Any possibility that the tomb had been robbed should be ruled out," he said.
 The tomb was opened amid great secrecy yesterday, but a communiqué from the Education Ministry said it was empty. The ministry said work in the area, some 20 miles south of Cairo, would be suspended until late fall.
 After Goseim found the seven-ton sarcophagus, he told newsmen he hoped to find inside "a royal mummy with gold." He believed it the last resting place of Sankhet, a 3rd Dynasty monarch who reigned over Egypt about 2,750 years before Christ.

Passengers Escape From Air Crash

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) - John G. Rankin ate breakfast today with just his right hand. His left hand was still wrapped in heavy bandages from friction burns received last night when he and 39 other passengers slid down a rope from a burning American Airlines plane that crash-landed after colliding with a Navy Beechcraft here.
 Two Naval Reserve officers died in the crash.
 Rankin, 34-year-old Louisville, Ky., employe of a fishing tackle firm, slid to safety after a woman passenger stalled in front of him, afraid of the 25-foot rope plunge.
 "Lady," he told her, "we've got to go."
 He said he grabbed her with his right arm and slid down the rope by his left hand. He suffered severe hand burns.
 Eyewitnesses on the ground said the Navy plane exploded in a "ball of fire," spattering burning debris in the dusk, then crashed just east of the Port Columbus Airport.
 The dead were identified as Lt. Cmdr. John R. Hoerath, 35, of nearby Westerville and Lt. Cmdr. Donald G. Edgar, 48, of Columbus.
 Capt. J. C. Pollard, 32, of Nashville, pilot of the American Airlines passenger Convair, brought his ship safely to earth.
 Its wings were flaming from gasoline spilled in the crash and the left engine was torn loose. Crippled and burning, the Convair skidded across the Port Columbus runway on its nose.
 Trapped inside by a damaged exit door up front near the nose, the passengers and three crew members escaped down a coarse rope 25 feet to safety.
 The safety door was forced open by slim, Auburn-haired stewardess Martha Jane Gunn, 24, of Nashville, Tenn.

Burma, Red China Plan Conference

NEW DELHI, India (AP) - Red China's Chou En-lai flew to Burma today for the second phase of his campaign to enlist south Asian neutrals into a Peiping-organized "alliance for peace."
 The Chinese Premier plans to spend two days in Rangoon for talks with Prime Minister U Nu, before pushing on to Peiping.
 His three-day visit to India left stern-faced Chou well entrenched with Prime Minister Nehru's government.
 Chou clinaxed his stay here by suggesting that Asian chiefs of state get together periodically to work for peace and to evolve "mutual respect" pacts similar to the one India had signed with China April 29 to govern relations with Communist-occupied Tibet.
 Chou's proposal for an Asian get-together drew no distinctions between Communist and non-Communist nations. He said it applied to the "principal Asian countries."
 He told newsmen in a press conference statement: "It is my view that, in order to seek common measures for the maintenance of peace and security in Asia, it is desirable for the appropriate persons of the principal Asian countries to meet occasionally and to consult with one another."
 Both Chou and Nehru intimated that their declarations of mutual friendship and cooperation were only a beginning in closer relations.
 Sources close to Chou's tight-mouthed delegation arrived at this estimate of the Chinese leader's plan.
 Chou hopes with India's active assistance to build a stout Asian wall both politically and economically and thus oust Western interests.
 The keystone of his program is "Asia for the Asians" and its aim is to combat so-called colonialism.
 Economic cooperation will play an equal part with political understanding, because Chou is under orders to find through Asian sources a substitute for China's needs blocked by Western embargoes.
 The informants said that was why Chou brought a group of economic experts here to sound out the possibilities of expanded economic relations between the two countries.
