Actor Gives Views On Scandals

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A man is judged by the company he keeps, figures Robert Ryan, and the same goes for Hollywood.

Ryan, one of the screen's solid citizens, today lashed out at some of his fellow townpeople for attaching themselves to figures who bring bad publicity to Hollywood. For instance, Porfirio Rubirosa, the 20th-century Don Juan.

"I think a guy like that should be shunned when he comes to Hollywood," said Ryan, an ex-Marine who speaks plainly and has muscles to back up his statements. "Instead, people rush for the opportunity to throw him cocktail parties and receptions."

He said the loutish current amour, Zsa Zsa Gabor, hasn't profited from the headlines. Her film salary is still small.

"And that's just what she's worth, as far as ability is concerned," he said.

"During my career, I've often wondered if I shouldn't go after the more sensational stuff," he said. "Every actor thinks about it, especially those who are 'dull copy' like myself. I have a wife and family and lead a very quiet life. I've never been in any scandal."

"It's just as well nothing like that ever happened to me. After all, you have to live with yourself. And I'm convinced that scandals don't help a career, despite thinking to the contrary."

"I've done a lot of traveling on the road in the past few years, talking to theater men and ordinary citizens all over the country. I found out that Rita Hayworth's career was actually hurt at the time of her romance with Aly Khan."

"I don't know about Bob Mitchum, but I imagine he was hurt during his scandal. Afterwards? Well, that's a different matter. People have short memories."

He observed that Hollywood has changed in recent years, advancing somewhat favorably in the direction of respectability. This is a good thing, he said.

BEATTY'S BILLY DUFFY, saddle bronc rider, gave the crowd a thrill on Common White Man last year at the Fourth of July rodeo, sponsored by the Beatty Roping Club. This year's rodeo will be Sunday and Monday, July 4 and 5, beginning at 1 p.m.

Japanese Patrol Boat Enters Russian Waters

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese Coast Guard today ordered one of its cutters into Russian waters to rescue 14 shipwrecked Japanese fishermen stranded on a rocky point in the Soviet-held Kurile Islands.

The fishermen have been radioing for help from barren Shishiro Island, about 400 miles northeast of Japan's northernmost island, since their boat was wrecked in a dense fog June 29.

The 70-ton patrol boat Tenryu was ordered to land a rescue party on the island, a Coast Guard spokesman said.

"We have also kept requesting Russian authorities to extend help to the Japanese fishermen, but so far have received no answer," the spokesman said.

"The Tenryu is now proceeding at full speed and is continually radioing to Russian authorities that it is entering Russian territorial waters because of imminent danger to the fishermen and because of lack of a Russian reply," he said.

No Japanese ship has been sent into Russian waters around the Kuriles since World War II.

Geary Speaks To GOP Group

CHILQUIN — Republican State Representative E. A. Geary, speaking to the Wood River Unit, Council of Republican Women, at a meeting June 24 in the home of F. R. Markwardt, Chilquin, reminisced about his and Mrs. Geary's trip to New Zealand.

He cited that country as being an example of an almost totally socialist country, with the government owning and controlling most of the industry and agriculture.

The country is under complete price control, labor organizations are powerless, living standards are low and wage scales correspond.

No new buildings and homes have been built for the past 30 years and there is no incentive to build any.

People have little ambition in jobs as everyone works for the government and there is nothing to be achieved by extra effort.

The island is beautiful, green, and covered with verdant pasture. The people are amiable and friendly to Americans but content to be taken care of under the paternalistic system.

Mrs. William Lorenz presided over the short business session. Plans were discussed for the Klamath County Republican picnic to be held the middle of August. The committee appointed from the Wood River Unit was William Lorenz, Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Mr. Guy Staiger, Mrs. Eva Cook, Ray Loozley, F. R. Markwardt, John Joderholm and Ben Murphy. This group will assist the Klamath County Republican Club.

Mrs. Fred Markwardt, was appointed to head a committee to put on a cooked food and white elephant sale in July to help raise funds for the picnic. Any contributions to this sale will be appreciated.

Mrs. Edward Prialux will be in charge of the program for the next meeting.

Out of town guests accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Geary were Mrs. Geneva Duncan and Mrs. Eva Cook, Klamath Falls.

Sockeyes Hit Lures

According to Clyde Malone of 5816 N. Montana Street in Portland it just isn't so. Mr. Malone had reference to the common belief that blueback salmon don't bite on their migration up the Columbia.

To prove his point he brought a fine specimen into the game commission office that he took on a cherry bobber off the Kalama bar in the Columbia. He stated he knew of five others taken in the same area within a few days. He also had seen one taken at Reeder Beach on Sauvie Island.

Malone, an ardent angler, said the sockeye put up as good a fight as any fish he'd ever had on the end of his line.

The sockeye is noted for its lack of interest in fishing lures, but it will hit one occasionally. Milt Guy, one of the game commission staff, says he has taken them in Alaska but that he could never depend on them to fill out his creel.

Trout Killed By Dredging

Further information on the effects of gold dredging on the recreational value of Powder River streams has been received from Homer Campbell, game commissioner, stationed at La Grande.

In taking bi-monthly readings to check the amount of silt in the river caused by the dredging operations, Campbell found greater concentrations than ever before recorded. Past tests showed that heavy silt in the river killed 100 per cent of the rainbow trout eggs exposed to the silt and 57 per cent of the rainbow fingerlings held below the dredge.

The most recent figures obtained by Campbell show that in the past month concentrations of silt immediately below the dredge, considerable silt was recorded in the river as much as 47 miles below the dredge.

About 40 miles of the Powder River has been eliminated for recreational use near the town of Sumpter by workings of dredges.

Pentecostal Revival Stated

An old fashioned Pentecostal revival will be conducted nightly for an indefinite time beginning Saturday, July 3, by the Rev. Nolan Ledbetter.

The tent is pitched on the vacant lot about one block south of the Tower Theater on South Sixth Street, where the pony rides are located.

Services each night will start at 7:30 p.m.

Everyone is welcome and is encouraged to bring the sick.

Awards Given By Merchants

The gay little cowgirl outfit, fringed skirt, shirt, weskit, hat, boots, gun and holster, won in the "Name the Shetland Pony" contest by Roxanne Galey and gifts presented to the other two winning contestants, Barbara Evans and Lar-Captain Jack," were presented by Klamath Falls merchants.

Those contributing were Van Orman's Shoes, the J. C. Penney Company, Woolworth's, Marvin's and Warren Poole.

Church Women To Repair Swim Suits

Old bathing suits will find new use by youngsters who cannot get their own, since women of Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church have offered to mend and repair any old suits turned in to the Red Cross office.

Persons having old suits or suits too small for their children are asked to turn them in to the Red Cross. These suits will be repaired and made available to under-privileged children.

Suits should be in the Red Cross office by July 12.
