Vote Rebukes Syngman Rhee

SEOUL (AP) — South Korea's newly elected National Assembly today handed President Syngman Rhee a stiff and unexpected rebuke by refusing to confirm his new Cabinet.

Many of Rhee's own Liberal party members bolted to join independents and Democratic Nationalists in withholding confidence from the slate of ministers.

The vote was 98 for the Cabinet and 74 against, with 10 abstaining, 9 votes invalid and 12 absent.

The 98 votes were four short of the absolute majority, 102, needed for Cabinet confirmation in the 203-seat Legislature.

The opposition was led by Rhee's two strongest political enemies in the Democratic Nationalist party—former Assembly President P. H. Shimicky and Chough Pyong Ok.

The two were particularly critical of two holdovers from the previous Cabinet—former Finance Minister Pak H. Hyun, newly appointed commerce and industry minister, and Paik Han Sung, re-appointed home minister.

They accused Paik of police interference and intimidation in the May 20 general election, and blamed Pak for "a growing inflationary trend" in South Korea.

Under the Constitution, newly named Prime Minister Pyun Yung Tai, just promoted from foreign minister, must submit a new cabinet approved by Rhee.

Sacramento Mill Resumes Work

According to telephoned word received this morning from Sacramento by Pine Industrial Relations Committee, 31 employees returned to work about 9:30 a.m. at the Sacramento plant of Dorris Lumber Moulding Company.

The plant had been on strike for about two weeks when 50 union members were called off the job.

Those who returned to work today are working under the same terms as before the strike, PIRC stated.

EXPELLED

HONG KONG (AP) — Twenty-six Roman Catholic foreign missionaries were thrown out of China during June, leaving only 137 remaining. Before the Communists took over, there were more than 5,000.

ENLISTEES IN THE U. S. Marine Corps, Erwin Bleak (left) and Earl Petty, left Tuesday for Portland to be sworn in prior to assignment to boot training in San Diego. Bleak is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bleak, 5308 Altamont Drive; Petty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Petty, 123 Wendling Street. Both boys were employed in the circulation department of the Herald and News prior to their enlistment.

KF Youths Join Marines

Sgt. William M. Allen, one of the local Marine recruiters, has announced that three more Klamath Basin men joined the ranks of the Marines June 30.

They are Thomas E. Cunningham, 17, son of Mr. Robert A. Cunningham, P.O. Box 81, Bonanza; Earl A. Petty Jr., 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Petty of 123 Wendling Street and Erwin L. Bleak, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Bleak, 5308 Altamont Drive.

All three men are now undergoing recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, California. The training will last for ten weeks at which time the men will receive recruit leaves before reporting to their next duty station.

Sgt. Allen noted that June was a record month for enlistments from the Klamath Basin for the Marines in as much as 22 men were enlisted. This figure includes 20 men enlisted from Klamath Falls, 1 from Bonanza and 1 from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Six more enlistments were still pending but were not effected during the month of June.

SP To Enter Parade Float

A miniature diesel electric train will be featured on the Southern Pacific float in the Roundup Parade.

The train, which will accommodate adults or children, runs on a circular track about 100 feet around. It has a real whistle and about seven cars, and is patterned after a full size S.P. freight train.

The miniature was built for Beverly Stone by her father, A. L. Stone, 133 Hillside Avenue, Klamath Falls. It was used in the Dunsuir Railroad Days parade and in other central California celebrations.

In the local parade, the train will be used as part of a float representing Klamath Falls Industries. Immediately following the parade, the train will be on display at the Southern Pacific Passenger Station, according to an announcement from the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks. The public is invited to see the train in the parade, and to view it at closer range at the passenger station.

Mexicans Face Flood Damage

PIEDRAS NEGRAS, Mex. (AP) — Emilio Sandoval sat slumped in a straight-backed chair in the doorway of his ruined hotel. He rubbed the three-day stubble of black and gray on his jaw and glanced back at the bare room, at the warped boards cluttering the stone floor, at the five-foot water mark on the walls.

"You will forgive me, please, if I don't get up," he said. His clenched fist made a circular motion over the pit of his stomach.

"I am upset by this," he said. "I have a bad feeling in here."

Monday night Sandoval had been hurrying to clear the 10.75 of his hotel, before flood waters moved in. He was trapped in the hotel when the rising water took a sudden surge.

"I never thought to see it happen," he said. "Nothing like it ever happened before — to see the water racing down that street."

That is why Sandoval is like most of the living and the dead in Piedras Negras — they never thought to see it happen.

Now the border sun bakes the caked mud in the streets and shimmers off the foul waters still standing in many places. There is no water system left in the town of some 35,000 across the Rio Grande from Eagle Pass. Children squat and scoop water, out of the streets to quench their thirst, and old women bending double to wash their clothing in the pools bring it up coated with slime.

Across the border south Texans have gathered up donations of food and a helicopter assigned to the Red Cross by Gary Air Force Base, San Marcos, Tex., brings it across, trip after trip. But the only distribution system is to pile the food in pickup trucks and drive it to camps that sprawl squalidly over the hills around town.

Mexican authorities bring in tank trucks full of pure water from inland towns but there isn't enough to go around.
