Solon Hurls Accusation Of 'Traitor'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) accused Republicans today of trying to brand the Democrats as "traitors" and Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) retorted that the Democrats are becoming "crybabies."

This clash of expressions came amidst these political developments likely to have an impact on the November election battle for control of Congress:

1. House Republican leaders maneuvered for a compromise on the Eisenhower administration's flexible farm price support plan while Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas claimed victory for rigid supports in today's crucial house vote.

2. Both sides claimed a political victory in an administration defeat of a Senate Democratic move to cut income taxes, after the Democrats had scuttled a Republican plan for lesser cuts.

3. Democrats outnumbered Republicans in voting yesterday for passage of the administration's foreign aid bill, prompting Rayburn to remark that "it looks to me like we need more Democrats in Congress to help the President get his program through."

4. President Eisenhower called for bipartisan cooperation on foreign affairs, while declining to repudiate criticisms voiced by Vice President Nixon against policies of former Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Sparkman, the 1952 Democratic vice presidential nominee, commented that "there just isn't any bipartisan foreign policy because the Republicans still want the country to think the Democrats are traitors."

Ferguson, who heads the Senate GOP Policy Committee, said in a separate interview the Republicans have as much right to criticize what he called mistakes of past Democratic administration as the opposition has to differ on present foreign policies.

"The Democratic party is acting like a crybaby on these matters," the Michigan senator said. "Some of the Democrats are saying that if we criticize their past mistakes, they are going to pick up their marbles and go home and not cooperate on foreign policy."

Nixon recently contended that Acheson's policies were responsible for the loss of China and helped bring on the Korean War and the troubles in Indochina.

Asked about the speech at his news conference, Eisenhower said Nixon was entitled to his own opinions. At the same time, Eisenhower said he believes we must seek agreements among ourselves with respect to foreign policy that are not confined to any party.

Spud Inspection Plans Announced

Applications for certification of seed potato fields as well as grains, grasses and legumes are being accepted now at the Klamath County Agent's office, states Walt Jendrzewski.

Certification of potatoes includes two more field inspections. First field inspection this year will probably start after mid-July.

Applications should be filed before field inspection starts in order to permit inspectors to complete all inspections on one trip through each area.

Certification rules and application blanks will be mailed on request.

Judge Orders Lawn Cutting

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mrs. Wanda Cholewa, 35, got a home, custody of her three children and $28 a week for their support.

But until her husband had the lawn mowed she refused to sign a separation agreement for a divorce.

"He has a power mower," she told Common Pleas Judge Frank J. Merrick. "He took it with him when he left last February."

Her husband Leo, 32, a forging company foreman, wanted no part of the lawn cutting. It was two acres of land and she had the house. Let her mow the grass, he contended.

Finally, to end the stalemate, Judge Merrick suggested that Cholewa give her $100 to have the job done. He consented and Mrs. Cholewa signed the agreement.

The divorce was granted on grounds of gross neglect of duty.

Virginia Using Radar Checks

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Virginia state police officially used radar as a method of checking speeds for the first time yesterday and 41 motorists were given tickets for speeding.

Use of radar to catch speeders was legalized by the 1954 Virginia Legislature.

Man Sentenced For Wife's Death

BALTIMORE (AP) — Kenneth C. Kellar, who told a jury he accidentally shot his wife while embracing her, was sentenced yesterday to 18 years in the Maryland Penitentiary for second - degree murder.

The 23-year-old mother of two children was fatally shot in the head last January. Kellar said he was embracing her and stroking her hair with a hand that held a pistol.

He said the gun was discharged accidentally. Kellar, 24, is formerly from Parsons, W. Va.
