

FORMER KLAMATH GIRL . . . Beverly Jean Kohn, June 20th bride of Anthony Pierno, in St. Mary's Catholic Church in Whittier, California. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kohn Jr., former Klamath Falls residents now of San Luis Obispo; and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Kohn Sr., 1217 Eldorado, are well-known longtime local residents.

BEVERLY KOHN BECOMES MRS. ANTHONY PIERNO IN DOUBLE-RING SERVICE

Klamathites will be interested in the marriage Sunday, June 20, in Whittier, California, of Beverly Jean Kohn and Anthony Robert Pierno.

Rainbow Mothers Club

The Rainbow Mothers Club met at the home of Mrs. Paul Tanner Tuesday evening, June 29. Plans were discussed for the Rainbow for Girls' swimming party and picnic to be held at Malin. At that time the Klamath Falls girls will meet those from Malin and Tulelake assemblies.

Sunday Dinner

LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Homer Roberts entertained with a Sunday dinner at their home in Langell Valley, June 27, in honor of their grandson Francis Roberts of Henley who is leaving soon for U.S. Navy boot camp at San Diego; and their granddaughter Mrs. Tom McAuliffe, husband and little daughter Jody who are here visiting from Washington. Tom is stationed at Fort Lewis.

were graduated earlier last month from Whittier College. The bride was president of the Associated Women Students and the Metaphorian Society. She was winner of the outstanding student award at graduation and both young people were listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." In addition he was president of the Lancer Society and graduated with highest honors.

She carried a lace covered Job's Daughters Bible on which lay a white orchid with a shower of staphanotis cascading from it. Lynette Kohn was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a gown of aqua lace and nylon net over taffeta. The bodice was of lace with a matching lace bolero and the full length skirt swept the floor. She wore a matching net headpiece.

The other bride's attendants, Mrs. Shirley Pope, Santa Ana, and Joan Reese, Long Beach, were dressed in the same fashion as the maid of honor. All three carried colonial bouquets of pink roses and white delphinium.

Best man was Steve Bartlett, Burbank; ushers were Jim Fritz and Bob Leverman, Whittier. Following the ceremony, the bride's mother received in a rose-gry brocaded taffeta gown with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a mauve rose dress designed with a velvet top and full net skirt appliqued with velvet.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Roberts and sister; Jerry Arant, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Howrey Roberts, Timmy and Joan, Malin; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown, Billy, Benny and Jimmy; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmoie, all of Langell Valley and the host and hostess.

Navy Couple Wed In Yuma

Mrs. Lucile Laskey Binns (Mrs. Fred), 1713 Lexington, announces the marriage of her daughter, Minnie Jane, to Henry Jackson Brown, son of Mrs. Mary Mozelle Brown, Montgomery, Alabama, at Yuma, Arizona, June 19.

Jane is a graduate of KUHS and the Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing in Portland. She continued after graduation there until she was accepted in the Navy Nurse Corps. She returned home and was on the staff of a local hospital until she reported for duty in September, 1953.

Brown is the son of Mary Mozelle Brown, Montgomery, Alabama. He has been in the Navy three years—two of them spent overseas.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Brown are both stationed presently at the U.S. Naval Hospital, San Diego.

Shower For Mrs. 'Bob' David

CHLOQUIN — A beautifully planned bridal shower was given for Sharon Curran, who on July 3 became Mrs. Randolph Robert David Jr. Hostesses were Mrs. Anton Zalina, Mrs. David Sutton, Sue Seaholm, Dona Clark and Sharon Zalina at the community youth center. The Thursday evening affair had all its entertainment carried out on a clever and hilarious bride and bridegroom theme.

The room was decorated in pastel crepe paper streamers. A bridal cake with "Sharon and Bobby" centered the refreshment table. Gift cards read with the following names: Mrs. Walter Schmidt, Lamola Falls; Mrs. H. K. Winn, Mrs. John Eifman, Mrs. Martha Nelson, Victoria Nelson, Klamath Agency; Mrs. Ivan Doak, Klamath Miller, Modoc Point; Mrs. Milton Lotches and Mary Lotches, Agency Lakeshore; Mrs. Vince Bodner Sr., Mrs. Vince Bodner Jr., Sprague River.

Assisting at the reception were Marty Whitney, Beverly Tester, Peggy Hayes, Beverly Butler, Florence Tetzloff and Larry Reed. For travel Mrs. Pierno wore a white handloomed suit with matching stole, a white hat and beige bag and shoes and the orchid from her wedding. Following a honeymoon trip to Big Sur, the couple are at home at 10027 1/2 Oval Drive, Whittier, where the bridegroom will be employed in the college administration office until he goes into the armed forces. He plans to continue his education at Harvard Law School. His young wife will teach the sixth grade at West Whittier School this fall.

DR. BEN LEMIRE . . . who lived here for many years and attended Sacred Heart Academy; and his fiancée, Mary Jones. He is the son of Mrs. John B. Lemire, now of Seattle; and the late John B. Lemire. They lived here during the time their children were growing up, and many family friends will be interested to learn of the forthcoming wedding plans, scheduled for August 28, in St. Anne's Catholic Church, Seattle.

Dr. Lemire attended Seattle University and is a graduate of the University of Oregon Dental School where he was affiliated with Delta Sigma Delta. He is now practicing in Forest Grove.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. Bert Jones and the late Bert Jones, Seattle. She attended the University of Washington; and at present is with United Air Lines.

A brother, Jay C. Lemire and his wife live here—he's office manager for W. D. Miller Construction Company and Station KFJI. —Photo by Maxine Reinard

MR. AND MRS. JOHN MCKINLEY BAKER . . . married in the First Presbyterian in Bend, June 13. Bride is the former Betty-Marie Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. Hunt, Bend; and her husband is the son of McKinley Baker, Ashland.

Hunt-Baker Vows Recited In Bend Church June 13

Betty-Marie Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall L. Hunt, Bend, became the bride of John McKinley Baker, son of McKinley Baker, Ashland, Sunday, June 13. The Rev. Jack M. MacLeod read the double ring ceremony at 1 p.m. before a setting of cream colored gladioli in First Presbyterian Church, Bend.

Mrs. Clarence Bush was organist; Forrest Hawley, soloist.

The bride was dressed in a ballerina length gown of lace and net over taffeta, with matching lace mitts. A halo of lace and seed pearls held her fingertip veil in place and she carried a bouquet of white carnations with pink Cecil Brunner roses. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the bridegroom.

Betty-Marie was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Mrs. William Korpela, Tacoma, matron of honor, who was Madsen, Bend, bridesmaid who wore a lavender gown.

Best man for his son was Mc-

Kinley Baker. Ushering were John R. Hunt, brother of the bride, Tacoma and Lynn Simpson, Coquille. The bride's mother wore a mauve colored suit with navy accessories and mink fur piece. Her corsage was a gardenia with pink Cecil Brunner roses.

At the reception in the church social room Mrs. M. Hebert, Bend, and Mrs. Bill McMonigal, Ashland, poured. Mrs. Carey Stearns, LaPine, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Ella Edmison, Bend, had charge of the guest book.

For travel, the new Mrs. Baker wore a navy linen dress with white accessories and a white three-quarter length coat. Her corsage was of Cecil Brunner roses.

Following a honeymoon at the House on the Metolius, the couple is at home at 721 Mitchell Street, Klamath Falls.

The former Miss Hunt teaches special education at Mills Elementary School; her husband is a student at Oregon Technical Institute.

Houseguests at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Waldron, postmaster at Oretch, were Mrs. Ollie Johnson, retired postmaster of Harriman; Mrs. Marie Furry, Phoenix postmaster; and Mrs. Vena Gillmer, postmaster of Macdoel, California. All were here for the recent postmasters convention.

Mrs. Pearl de Brauwere, Miami, Florida, arrived Saturday morning to spend the summer at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Waldron. Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. de Brauwere enjoyed a trip through the redwoods last week.

MRS. W. DOUGLAS GARDINER, at left, is houseguest of Mrs. Ken McEwan, right, 1426 Crescent. Husband Lt. Col. Gardiner and children are visiting with his mother, Mrs. Grover Love, Milbrae. The colonel recently completed a year at the Command, General Staff School, Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. The Gardiners will be stationed in Atlanta, Georgia, for the next three years. —Photo by Ellis

REFLECTIONS FROM Milly's Mirror

NEW LITTLE GIRL — for Jack and Lois Larson, in Klamath Valley Hosp July 7, 2:35 a.m., 6 lbs. 15 oz — named Jane Ellen after her newly married aunt Jane Brown (nee Binns) — Proud G-parents are Corinne and John Larson—513 Washington and Lucile Larkey Binns — 1713 Lexington.

RABBAN RETURNS — Don and Elva Kenyon are home from 11 days in Atlantic City where they stopped at the Chalfont-Haddon Hall on the boardwalk — Don, Chief Rabban of Hillah Temple, represented the local Shrine temple at the Imperial Council of the Shrine at the Atlantic City convention — More than 10,000 uniformed men were in evidence, they said, with more than 100,000 attending the meeting. Lavish entertainment was provided, including a personal appearance by Bob Hope. There were 756 representatives from 165 Shrine temples in North America. (That included two Canadian and one Mexican temple).

AFTER A MONTH — in KP at the Dr. Ray Oldenburg home visiting with Mr. Gene and family. Mrs. George E. Banks left June 30 for her home in Vancouver, B.C. — Her many local friends will be a bit surprised to learn that she caught her breath unpacked her suitcase — immediately repacked them — and left today by plane with her 8-daughter Betty Moss who was Jr. bridesmaid for just about a year ago — destination Nova Scotia, (Halifax) to visit two other dtrs Mrs. Henry Hicks (Pauline) and Albea Banks — both of whom have visited here. THIS visit for Mrs. B will be TWO months for her — Betty's mother, Mrs. Charles (Trudy) Moss is also from Halifax — now living in Vancouver.

HOME FROM JAPAN — and visiting at the Dr. Richard L. Curran home on Lawrence — is Alice Curran's sister Jane and her husband M-Sgt. Malbur D. Mudd — and son James — Sgt Mudd has been over there for 4 years and his spouse and son joined him 2 1/2 yrs ago — Another houseguest at the G domicile is Mark Halvorsen from SF — close friend of the Curran boys — high hopes are entertained that Mark, Charlton Curran and Jim will get to Scout Camp at Crescent Lake — the Mudd's will be here for about two weeks until he gets his new assignment.

HOLIDAY VISITOR — over the 4th — from Eugene was Mrs. A. O. (Sarah) Waller at the Frank Jenkins residence on Pacific Terrace — They used to just "step next door" in Eugene to visit before the Jenkins moved to KP — but they're "still neighbors" despite intervening miles.

MORE 4th — George W. (Bud) and Betty Morgan (the's the Klamath Falls Mr. Espee) and daughter, Billie Anne, spent the weekend in Washington. Bud and Betty returned on the Klamath Tuesday morning, leaving Billie Anne to visit her grandmother, Mrs. W. M. Price of Seattle at the Price summer home at Long Beach, Washington — Bud dropped by the office (charting his beautiful new yellowish-chartrouse Buick) to see if we could help him find some more pictures of the espee 5th of July parade float. Anybody help him out? RABBAN RETURNS — Don and Elva Kenyon are home from 11 days in Atlantic City where they stopped at the Chalfont-Haddon Hall on the boardwalk — Don, Chief Rabban of Hillah Temple, represented the local Shrine temple at the Imperial Council of the Shrine at the Atlantic City convention — More than 10,000 uniformed men were in evidence, they said, with more than 100,000 attending the meeting. Lavish entertainment was provided, including a personal appearance by Bob Hope. There were 756 representatives from 165 Shrine temples in North America. (That included two Canadian and one Mexican temple).

They made the trip from San Francisco to New York City on the new non-stop flight in a DC-7, covering the 3000 miles in 7 1/2 hours. On the Westbound flight Elva was delighted to find that the charming stewardess was Shirley Masten, daughter of the Stan Mastens who farm in Poe Valley. About that time Elva said she was mighty glad to see someone from the Klamath Basin.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY — on July 3 was celebrated by Zan and Alva Edwards at their home on the Keno Road — Very special to them was the large 4 layer "yellow nut" cake baked by 12 year old July Rae Gregory — dr of Laco and Olive Gregory — she decorated it with white frosting and added frosting flowers around the edges — Friends and relatives dropped in during the late afternoon to congratulate the couple.

MR. SAROYAN — the pet poodle belonging to the Edgar Pipers in Portland — is having a new haircut this week. Edgar wrote "the trim looks like pants with suspenders holding them up."

HIS HONOR — and Mrs. Paul Landry flew from KP Thursday to Seattle from where they will sail aboard the USS Baronoff for a tour of Alaska cities — Ketchikan on the 11th; Petersburg, 12th; Juneau, 13th; Seward, 15th. They will leave the 20th aboard the SS Alaska to return to KP by July 26.

"CHARLIE BANE'S MOTHER-IN-LAW" — has been here again. (Quoting Johnny Houston) — Margaret Bane's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Jossy of Portland, brought her house guest, Mary Hakanson, down this way to see the high desert country, Crater Lake and Bend where a son and his family live. Back to Portland today — Evelyn returned in April from her second trip to Honolulu which is Mary's home. (went over with Vera Sabin of Portland who also has many friends here). The tour of the Islands is still strong and she has reservations to return for another visit in October — Meantime, Mary flew up from Berkeley to visit her. The two plan a special table for Clara Inter's (Hilo Hattie) appearance in Portland next week. Mary does a mean hula herself and is making a fresh carnation lei to surprise Clara — Then Mary leaves by United Air Lines for Honolulu, she has just completed a trip by air to Europe, arranged by Father J. McDonald of Honolulu. The group visited Spain, Portugal, Italy (where they had an audience with the Pope in Rome), France, Holland, Switzerland and the British Isles.

Climax of their short visit here was a dinner party Friday evening at the Ponderosa Room at the Willard Hotel which Charlie and Margaret hosted.

LENORA — (Brownie) Palmer, wife of United Air Lines Manager Cy Palmer, came up to Klamath Falls with Cy the first of the week to spend a couple of months with him at 1428 1/2 Pacific Terrace — Brownie has remained at their California home while Cy has been on sort of "temporary" assignment here. She is supervisor for the Monterey peninsula of the Welcome Wagon service—and they have been on a weekend and holiday commuting basis back and forth in order to spend time together.

Melba's Salon of Beauty Opening Tuesday July 13 In New Location 1146 Pine Street Same Telephone Number, 5230

Back from the cleaners . . . spotless, fresh and looking like new . . . in time for that important date. Depend on us to pamper "difficult" fabrics . . . to give each garment individual care . . . to do a fine job — always. Send your cleaning with your laundry — just ph. 5111 CASCAD LAUNDRY & DRY CLEANERS Klamath's Finest Opposite Post Office