Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McGuffin entertained relatives over the holiday weekend when her mother Mrs. D. W. Nussel accompanied another daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Dedeker, Yuba City, for a visit at the McGuffins'.

Mrs. McGuffin's mother, who is 82-years of age, got acquainted with her little grand son Billy Woods. Billy celebrated his first birthday and the four generations were present on this occasion.

Billy's parents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woods, Lakeview, were also present and the day was spent visiting. They left Monday for their homes in Yuba City.

DINNER PARTY

MERRILL — Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bradshaw entertained with a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. Felix Rush and sons Don and Robert on Tuesday, June 29; the occasion being the 15th wedding anniversary of Felix and Evelyn Rush; the 19th wedding anniversary of Jim and Olga Bradshaw, and Mrs. Bradshaw's birthday anniversary.

Calling later in the evening to offer congratulations and having dessert were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brightman and children, Sherril, Dennis and Janice.

Madelon Adler Becomes Mrs. Eugene Petroff In St. Paul's

Impressive afternoon nuptial rites in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, June 27, united Madelon Frances Adler, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Adler, 1305 Pacific Terrace, in marriage to Eugene (Gene) Petroff, son of Mrs. V. Petroff, Portland. The wedding was a highlight in the calendar of summer weddings.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white tulle and Chantilly lace over satin, styled with a fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar and buttoned down the back. The sleeves of lace were pointed at the wrists. The full skirt of tulle fanned into a long sweeping train outlined in a wide band of the lace.

Her fingertip veil, also lace trimmed was gathered to a dainty, lacy seed pearl crown. Madelon carried a white orchid atop a white Bible, which had been given her by a former classmate at the University of Oregon, Helen McFridge.

White gladioli and greenery were used in the effective background for the 2 p.m. service, the Rev. Galen Onstad, officiant.

Marie Obenchain, organist, accompanied Exine Anderson, vocal soloist, from Eugene. Colin Onstad, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Galen Onstad served as acolyte.

Sheila Adler was maid of honor for her sister, and wore an orchid hued waltz length dress of embroidered organdy and a Watteau brimmed picture hat. She carried a nosegay arrangement of yellow and orchid gladioli.

Bridesmaids, Nadine Small, Salem; Virginia Petroff, sister of the bridegroom, Portland; and Mrs. Carl C. Coulson Jr., Merrill, all were dressed exactly as the maid of honor, except that their dresses were yellow. Their nosegays were duplicates of the maid of honor's.

Flower girl, little Luvia Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Callahan (Joan Campbell) wore a pastel dotted Swiss with ruffle trim on the full skirt and a perky crownless bonnet framed her face. She and her parents came from Portland for the wedding.

Best man was Boris Gorgeff; and Bob Day, Jim Borge and Dick Lall, all of Portland, ushered.

Mrs. Adler wore a powder blue lace waltz length dress to her daughter's wedding; and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Petroff, wore blue net and lace. Both wore fuchsia orchid corsages.

Wedding guests were received immediately after the ceremony in the parish hall. Mrs. W. C. McArthur, bride's aunt, was at the coffee service. Mrs. Marvin Nerseth presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. Ray Oldenburg and Mrs. T. F. Farley cut the cake; and assisting were Mrs. Fred Coles, Harriett Coulson, Mrs. R.

FRUIT SALAD DRESSING
If you're looking for a different dressing for your party fruit salad, mix 1 tablespoon of maple-blended syrup into 1/4 cup mayonnaise, then fold into 1/4 cup cream, whipped. You'll get 3/4 cup of dressing.

Birthday Party

CHILOQUIN — Judy Adamo, ten years old July 1, celebrated with her first birthday party since she was five.

Her mother, Mrs. Joe Adamo, entertained the following young guests: Sally Ravizza, Linda Cline, Cherry Wolff, Sheila Riddle, Connie Jones, Connie Wampler, Mary O'Neil, Donna Robinson, Faye and Patsy Stanfield, Marlene Norris, Donna Kircher, Millie Riddle, Janet Hall, Jimmy Lynn Doak and Louise Humphrey.

Assisting her mother was Barbara Adamo.

SECRET PALS

It is estimated by the makers of Hallmark Cards that 3 1/2 million American women are members of club groups which exchange "secret pal" birthday and anniversary greeting cards and gifts annually.

POURING AT THE TEA . . . for the opening of the Community Lounge in the new location on Seventh Street were Mrs. Earl Mack, seated, and Mrs. Wallace Thompson, both of the Henley district. Open house was held July 2. The lace covered table was centered with an arrangement of summer blossoms. Women from all communities in the Klamath Basin registered during the afternoon and evening. The lounge was first opened to the public four years ago in the building on 8th Street sold recently to the Klamath Falls Post, American Legion.
