McCarthy Seeks Permission For Defense Plant Probe

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) called his Senate Investigations subcommittee to a meeting today which could boil up a fight over demands for staff firings.

He is seeking permission at the closed session to launch at once a new public investigation of what he calls infiltration of defense plants by 133 subversives. But a majority of the subcommittee's seven members have declared that a "house cleaning" of the staff should take precedence.

This is the group's first meeting under McCarthy's chairmanship.

Slayers Die In Nevada

CARSON CITY, NEV. (AP)—Frank Pedrini, tough-talking wisecracker to the end, and his frightened ex-buddy LeRoy Linden, went to their deaths Thursday in Nevada's first double execution.

The pair died in the prison gas chamber for the brutal robbery-slaying of Clarence Morgan Dodd, 39, a vacationing California carpenter, nearly a year ago. Dodd had given them a ride in his car through the Nevada desert where they murdered him. His partially decomposed body was found under a rock pile two months later.

Pedrini, who had been in trouble with the law all his 47 years, told prison Warden A. R. Bernard in farewell:

"Warden, you've been swell. I've been a heel all my life."

Pedrini, strapped in a chair next to 35-year-old Linden, wisecracked, smiled and nodded to many of the 31 witnesses of the execution.

Linden, appearing frightened and refusing to look at his former Potosi Prison cellmate, muttered short answers to Pedrini's apparent needling.

As the 30 cyanide pellets—twice the normal amount—dropped into the sulphuric acid, Pedrini breathed deeply and Linden choked in apparent fear of death.

Warden Bernard said Pedrini constantly needed Linden in death row, where they had adjoining cells. "He did it to bolster his own ego, or just to needle," Bernard added. "Pedrini was a pretty tough guy."

since its 36-day hearings into his row with top Army officials, on which the subcommittee has not yet handed down a verdict.

At the windup of the hearings four weeks ago today one subcommittee member—Sen. Potter (R-Mich.)—announced he believed each side had proved main charges, and that employees on each side should be dismissed. In advance of today's meeting, he told newsmen he still thought so, and added that some staff changes should have priority over any other subcommittee business. He has not mentioned any names.

Two of the subcommittee's three Democratic members, armed with proxy votes to cast for the absent Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.), declined to say what moves they planned. But Senators Jackson (D-Wash.) and Symington (D-Mo.) said they have not receded from their demands for "a house cleaning" among McCarthy appointees on the staff.

McCarthy reserved comment on the meeting, and on new developments in efforts by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.) to have McCarthy fired from chairmanships of the subcommittee and its parent Government Operations Committee.

Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate Republican leader, announced yesterday he will oppose Flanders' move. But Flanders told a news conference he thinks he has "an excellent chance" to get Senate approval.

In a Senate speech Flanders said such a step would "put an end to the destructive forces" he contends McCarthy wields, particularly in the subcommittee.
