

London Broil

A variation of this recipe (with-out illustrating photograph) has appeared on the food pages of the Herald and News. This is published as the answer to several telephoned requests.

- 1 top-quality flank steak (1½ to 2½ lbs.)
- One third to ½ cup butter or margarine
- 3 to 5 tablespoons dry red table wine

Cooked rice
Preheat broiler. Place unscored flank steak on rack with surface about three inches below the source of heat. Broil 2 to 3 minutes on each side. Do not salt. Meanwhile melt butter or margarine in a large frying pan. Add wine and heat until bubbling. Cut flank steak diagonally into thin slices. Drop into frying pan and cook one minute in the bubbling sauce. Remove to hot platter, surround with border of rice. Pour remaining wine sauce in frying pan over rice and steak. Serve at once. Serves six.

Note: If your family is exceptionally fond of rice, prepare a full recipe of rice, arrange on platter and place steak slices on top.

SALMON SALAD

When you want a quick salad that will be hearty enough to do for the main luncheon dish, combine a half-pound can of salmon, 2 cups finely shredded cabbage, two-thirds cups ripe olives cut into chunks and ½ cup mayonnaise. Toss ingredients lightly together. If you prefer a little more tartness, add 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

FLANK STEAK makes this simple but luxurious dish. A ring of fluffy rice, drenched in the Butter Sauce, is a garnish and a taste-teasing change from the more usual accompaniments. Serve with a crisp mixed salad and plenty of hot or iced coffee. Who could ask for a more pleasing meal?

CREAM CHEESE FROSTING adds the final touch to this Strawberry Spice Cake. Strawberry jam is included among the ingredients which are all whipped together in a jiffy. You'll like the flavor addition.

Strawberry Spice Cake

- 2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup sugar
½ cup strawberry jam
2 eggs
1 tablespoon vinegar plus
sweet milk to make two
½ cup shortening

Grease one 8-inch square or round cake pan and line with waxed paper. Sift together flour, soda, salt, cloves and cinnamon. Put sugar, strawberry jam and eggs into a large mixing bowl and beat together for 1 minute (or 125 strokes by hand, or moderate speed of electric mixer). Sift in dry ingredients. Add one-half the liquid and all the shortening. Stir until flour is moistened, then beat 1 minute. Add remaining liquid and beat 1 minute more. Turn into prepared pan. Bake at 375 degrees (moderate oven) 35 to 40 minutes or until center springs back when touched with finger. Cool about 10 minutes. Turn out on cake rack. Frost with Cream Cheese Frosting and garnish with sliced fresh strawberries.

CREAM CHEESE FROSTING

- 1 3-ounce package cream

PRETTY DESSERT
For a dessert as simple and pretty as it is good, layer fluffy quick-cooking tapioca pudding alternately with sweetened fresh sliced peaches in a dessert dish. Top with whipped cream if you wish.

PUDDING

When next you make pudding from vanilla pudding mix, add ½ cup semi-sweet chocolate chips while the mixture is still warm, stir just enough to give a marbled effect, and chill.
