

BROILED HAM on a platter with pretty garnishes provides a quick, easy main dish for lunch or dinner. Preparation time of the meal is held to a minimum. Any of the spring vegetables and any type of salad "goes with" ham. Fine canned hams (boned and precooked) are available in local markets in various sizes to fit any particular need. There is no waste and they are equally good hot or cold.

Thick Slice Of Ham Makes Easy Dinner

HAM CASSEROLE

Place a 1½ to 2-pound slice of smoked ham in a roasting pan or a large flat casserole dish. Sift a little flour, pepper and paprika over the potatoes. If you like, slice a layer of thin onion rings over the potatoes.

Half cover the above with milk. Place the covered casserole in the oven, setting the control at 350 degrees. Bake for about an hour. Uncover the last 10 minutes so that the top will brown.

HAM AND GRAVY

This recipe is an oldtimer, but always good. In a heavy iron skillet, caramelize ¼ cup of granulated sugar. When it has melted and is brown, put in a slice of ham, 1½ to 2 inches thick. Swish around in the pan, turn and repeat, getting both sides covered with thin coating of brown, melted sugar. Add milk to barely cover the slice of ham. Cover and cook over low heat until milk has cooked down and the ham is tender. Spoon the sauce over the ham to serve.

HAM AND GRAPE JUICE

Mrs. Fred G. Meyer, wife of the president of the Oregon chain of food stores which bears his name, named this as one of her family's favorite ways to serve smoked ham.

Brown the slice of ham in a heavy skillet on both sides, using butter. Then add grapejuice to the depth of the slice of ham and let cook down until the liquid is practically gone. The result is a flavor rather similar to that of wild game.

Sour Cream Dishes

When hot summer days take the edge off the appetite, it's time to make foods especially tempting and tasty. An easy way to do it is to use sour cream.

Sour cream is a versatile food. It makes delicious sauces, wonderful salad dressings, tender, melting cakes and cookies and adds a delightful flavor to meat dishes, vegetables and fruits. Here are just a very few samples:

FRIED TOMATOES WITH SOUR CREAM

Sliced tomatoes, dipped in seasoned flour or egg and crumbs and fried to a golden brown on both sides are extra good dressed up with sour cream sauce. After removing tomatoes from the frying pan, sprinkle two tablespoons of flour over the fat left in the pan. Mix well, then pour in a cup or a cup and a half of sour cream. Stir and cook slowly until thickened. Season with salt and pepper and pour the sauce over the tomatoes and serve at once.

Here in Klamath Falls, fried tomatoes are especially popular, particularly when the local tomatoes come on and green tomatoes are plentiful.

SOUR CREAM CHICKEN

1 frying chicken, cut in serving pieces
1 cup sour cream
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ cup fine crumbs.

Dip pieces of frying chicken in sour cream. Roll in seasoned crumbs. Place in baking dish and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, about an hour or until chicken is tender. This recipe will serve three persons.

SALAD DRESSING

1 cup sour cream
2 tablespoons tarragon vinegar

2 tablespoons chopped chives or onion

½ teaspoon salt

Pepper

Paprika

Mix and beat ingredients together with an egg beater, beating until light. Serve on finely shredded new cabbage or any vegetable salad.

ANGEL PETIT FOURS

Bake Angel Food Cake Mix as directed on package. When cool cut into fingers, squares or triangles. Split each piece in half and fill with apricot conserve, marmalade or tart red jelly. Then frost with fluffy frosting, tinted if desired.

ANGEL MOCHA DESSERT

Swirl pieces of angel food cake, made from mix, with mocha whipped cream, made by whipping together ½ cup heavy cream, 1 tablespoon sugar and 1 teaspoon instant coffee powder. Garnish with pecan pieces.

FLUFFY SALAD DRESSING

Serve this fluffy mayonnaise dressing with fruit salads. Beat 1 egg white until stiff and fold into 1 cup mayonnaise. Stir in one-third cup slivered toasted almonds.

Town & Country Shopping Center ANNOUNCES OPENING OF... ROBERTS HARDWARE

—the first step in a plan to bring Klamath Country the finest goods and services in one convenient location.

This is not a grand opening, but Innis Roberts has moved his complete stock of hardware and houseware into the first completed unit at Town & Country and is ready to serve you.

Roberts Hardware has been a business name to bank on since 1907. Innis Roberts has been active in the business for more than 20 years. He will cater with goods and "do-it-yourself know-how" to the householder and home mechanic as well as the professional builder. He will carry a broader line of housewares than ever before.

Town & Country hours will be from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., with all units open to serve the working man and woman and family shoppers at their convenience.

The Town & Country Shopping Center is happy to welcome Roberts Hardware, and to recommend your patronage in this first new unit of a great one-stop shopping center. It is typical of the fine, local stores and service establishments of every kind which will make up the Town & Country family.

Three more new units—for a complete sporting goods store, an electrical store featuring do-it-yourself supplies, and a fine jewelry store—are being finished up for openings soon.

Town & Country Shopping Center is located at 3800 South Sixth Street, handy to access from all areas . . . from Altamont Drive and Summers Lane on the south; the Alameda, Shasta Way and Crest Street route on the north; and Sixth Street both ways.
