

Ring Fans Numbered By Daffy Rulings

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—It used to be that the great majority of the country's boxing fans had to depend upon somebody else to tell them of the daffy things that occur in the prize ring, but now they are privileged to see for themselves, and they must be getting quite an education.

Take the latest little cameo, in which two large men who supposedly were fighting to see which would get a shot at the heavyweight championship were forced to cease and desist because one of them was wrestled to the canvas in the second round. He wasn't knocked down, mind you, he was pushed.

Millions of those who were enjoying a free ride must have wondered how the poor blokes who had paid their way into the Garden felt when they saw the referee halt the scramble and declare Nino Valdes of Cuba the victor over Hurricane Jackson of another world. We can tell them. Such things have been happening to the paying customer for so long that he's practically numb and seldom feels anything at all.

There is nothing much wrong with the law in this state which calls for an automatic knockout when a man goes down for the third time in the same round. That is, it's a sensible measure when it is properly applied, which is when a boxer is in danger of being seriously hurt. It is waived in all championship bouts, and the referee always has the last word as to whether there have been three

Out Of Doors With The Sportsman

By CLAYTON HANNON
 This seems to be one of those weekends which the basin outdoor man can go in just about any direction and have some sort of good luck while fishing the streams and lakes in this area, and the entire state.

A quick glance over the state wide situation, salmon fishing on the coast seems to be at its best at Winchester Bay and Coos Bay, while the Suslaw and Alsea are producing well on outthroat.

The big Deschutes has been improving on fly fishing as has the Rogue and its tributaries. The best news for anglers who will be taking a vacation in the Willowa mountains the next few weeks, that excellent fishing waters are now open and the Willowa trails are free of ice.

while spin fishing. Last weekend both managed to hook some large ones that scaled between three and eight pounds.

Again the Little Deschutes and Crescent Creek near Crescent were good, but near the Highway 97 bridges, the mosquitos were very heavy and the fish were not too numerous.

Fly fishing with the grey and yellow hackle seemed to be the most prosperous method of angling these streams in the Crescent area, while some luck was being gotten from the garden hackle or worms with a medium sized hook.

Another spot which has been good for the fly fisherman is the Sprague River, both the North and South forks. The same menu of flies, the grey and yellow hack-

Moore Replaces O'Neill As Philadelphia Manager

CINCINNATI (AP)—"Amateur" Terry Moore had a major league ball club to manage today and the Philadelphia Phillies were hopeful the former center fielder of the St. Louis Cardinals' Gas House Gang, can rejuvenate the Whiz Kids.

Moore was handed his very first managerial assignment yesterday in a surprise road-trip shift, "Gentleman" Terry took up where rough-hewed Steve O'Neill left off—directing the endeavors of a ball team in third place in the National League, 15 games behind the first-place New York Giants and a far piece from preseason expectations. General Manager Roy Hamey called sportswriters together and announced that Moore was being called up to replace O'Neill in hopes he might be able to instill in the cooled-off 150 National League pennant winners some of the "alert" type of play that characterized Moore's own tenure with the Cards.

Hamey said the selection of Moore was "a shot in the dark," decided on after only 48 hours of serious deliberation.

O'Neill, veteran manager of long standing and onetime catcher with the Detroit Tigers, said the announcement that he was through came as a "bolt from the blue."

Moore had little to say. He pointed out he had seen the Phillies play only twice in the last two years.

Moore, who also played baseball for the Cardinals following his 11th season as an active player, had planned — until tapped by Hamey — to retire and devote all his time starting next fall to a dance hall, bowling alley and cocktail lounge he owns near St. Louis.

He took over immediately after the press conference and his first day at the helm was marred with a double defeat at the hands of Cincinnati. The Redlegs won a twin-night double-header 2-1 and 4-3.

Moore was signed to a one-year contract, salary undisclosed. Hamey said, adding that one-year pacts would be a Phillies policy with managers from now on. O'Neill will receive the pay coming him for the balance of this year, the extent of his contract.

O'Neill packed and left the club last night with no apparent hard feelings. He wished his successor "better luck than I had. I hope you will be there for a long, long time."

Other than the club's failure to hold down the No. 1 spot in the league, the main reason for the Moore appointment seemed to be a belief in the oft-tested precept—if the team isn't doing so well, get a new manager.

That was the way Hamey expressed it.

Senators Sweep Series From Tri-City

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Three-hit pitching by Ernie Dumenichelli gave Salena a 6-1 win over Tri-City Thursday night and a sweep of the three-game Western International League baseball series.

Dumenichelli pitched no-hit ball for seven innings. Terry Carroll was the first to reach him, connecting for a double in the eighth. The Braves picked up two more singles in the ninth.

Tri-City's only run was scored in the first inning and came without a hit. Carroll crossing the plate on an infielder grounder after walking and advancing on a sacrifice.

Front-running Victoria handed Wenatchee its 11th loss in 12 starts, 5-4. Charlie Beason, the Chiefs' hardluck righty, took the loss. Beason pitched himself out of several jams but forced in the winning run by walking Eddie Lake in the ninth inning with the bases loaded and one out. Five Wenatchee errors helped the Braves as they posted their fifth second half win against a single loss.

Edmonton and Yakima battled 10 innings before Edmonton pulled out with a 4-3 decision. Edmonton sent the game into overtime with a three-run outburst in the ninth. Vern Campbell scooted home with the winning run in the tenth when shortstop Dick Briskey threw wild to first while trying to complete a double play.

Briskey started at the plate, hitting for the cycle; a single, double, triple and homer. John Albini also homered for Yakima, and Bobby Brown and Andy Skurki hit four-masters for Edmonton.

Lewiston's Clint Cameron cleared the bases with a four-run homer in the fifth inning to pace the Broncos to a 13-5 victory over Vancouver.

The homer was off Bob Roberts who relieved Arnie Halgren after Halgren had given up 10 bases on balls in four and one third innings of pitching.

The contest opened a five-game series at Vancouver.

THIS WHOPPER was taken from the Wood River last weekend by C. H. Swift, 3118 Crosby, as the local angler was fishing the stream with single eggs. The giant rainbow, one of the largest reported this season, won Poole's Big Fish contest with a cleaned weight of 12 pounds 12 ounces.

Manakiki Golf Meet Wide Open

CLEVELAND (AP)—The race for the $5,000 top prize in the $25,000 Manakiki Open Golf Tourney was a wide-open free-for-all today.

Headed by veteran Denny Shute, who carved out a 31-35-46 in yesterday's opening round, 45 hole-shots were massed in the par-or-under bracket. All of them, and some who were above the magic figure, were given a chance to win.

Some experts were pointing the "favorite" finger at Freddie Haas, the lanky club designer from New Orleans, who zoomed in with a 35-32-27 for second place. In last year's final round Haas scored a 62, giving him 129- or 15 under par—for his last two jaunts around the 6,651-yard layout.

Shute, a 49-year-old grandfather from Akron, Ohio, making one of his few tournament appearances, won the 1938 and 1937 PGA titles and the 1933 British Open.

The big casualty in the first round was Jimmy Clark, the ex-Marine from Huntington Beach, Calif., who was disqualified for posting a wrong score after deadlocking Shute for the lead with 33-34-66. One portion of the card, kept by former Open champion Julius Boros, showed Clark with a 44 score on two consecutive holes when he actually shot 5-3.

On the heels of Shute and Haas, with 68 each, were Harold Williams and Herschel Spears, both of Alabama. Deadlocked at 69 were Felice Torres, St. Charles, Ill.; Jack Burke, Klamath Falls, N.Y.; Al Bessellink, Merchantville, N.Y.; and Chick Harbert, Northville, Mich.

Seven were tied at 70: Tommy Bolt, Houston; Dutch Harrison, St. Louis; Fred Hawkins, El Paso; Bob Inman, Tulsa; Jerry Barber, La Canada, Calif.; Joe Guysick, Hartsville, Ohio; and Mike Krak, Louisville.

Ed Betsch also countered with a good sized trout from the Wood. Although his was not as large as Swift's, it was also a dandy tipping the scales at seven pounds 10 ounces. Betsch was using the Little Fender lure.

From the Williamson comes word that those who use spin fishing and bait fishing seem to have the best results at this time. Wobble Rites and Dare Devils are working the best of the spinning jures, while dark single eggs and night crawlers are working for the bait fisherman.

Ron Owings and Lew Erbes, two local anglers, have both been doing very well on the Williamson

The Sons of Norway baseball team moved into the lead of the Pony League last night without hitting a bat and through the aiding hand of Mallin.

Tulelake forfeited to the Sons, when they did not show up for the scheduled league game, and Mallin whipped Merrill by a 11-2 score.

Mallin's Owens threw a no-hit ball game at Merrill, while Lavon Travis homered in the sixth inning to lead the winners to their first league win.

camping fun. Trolling in Lake of the Woods and Fish Lake seems to be the best while bait fishing in Four Mile should be good.

In last week's Klamath Sportsman's Association spin-fishing contest, Doug Dewiss won the accuracy contest with Bob Stern placing second. The distance event was won by Ray Billings with an average cast of 158 feet. Second place went to Dr. Lester Brookshire with an average toss of 143 feet. Brookshire also had the longest cast of the day with a 181 foot throw.

Mrs. Doug Dewiss won the women's division, and Virgil Davis and Bert Bohu, who donated most of the equipment for the Collier Park tournament, served as judges.

The local detachment of the Oregon State Police made five arrests this past week for violation of state and federal game laws. Four were for exceeding the daily bag limit of 10 fish per day or 20 in any seven consecutive days, and the fifth was for false application of the Oregon anglers license.

A man and his wife were picked up on Long Creek last weekend for having 33 trout, eastern brooks and rainbows, between them. He was fined $35.00 plus court costs and her fine totaled $20.00 plus the court charges.

In the other incident another man and wife were picked up by officers on the North Fork of the Sprague with 52 trout in their possession consisting of rainbow, german browns and eastern brooks. They also were fined, according to the state police office.
