Joseph Kircher Honored On 80th Birthday Anniversary

CHILQUIN — Joseph Kircher was honored Sunday, July 11, at an open house on the occasion of his 80th birthday. Hosts were his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kircher, at whose home the party was held; and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kircher. Glen is a grandson of the guest of honor. The white lace-covered refreshment table was centered with a formal and attractive arrangement of yellow and white flowers highlighted by red gladioli.

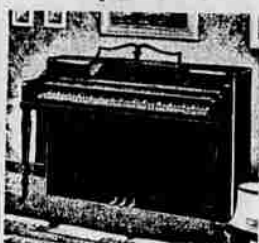

Kircher has two sons, Dwight of Chilquinn and Lloyd of Yreka; four grandsons, Glen of Chilquinn; Al of Camas, Washington, who though unable to attend sent a telegram; Lee of Portland; and David stationed in Memphis, Tennessee, with the navy; and two granddaughters, Diane and Donna, of Chilquinn. There are two great-grandchildren.

Attending Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kircher, Yreka; Mr. and Mrs. James Rodgers and Becky Lou, Sprague River; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kellison, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Layton Hoback, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glenger, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Markward, Mr. and Mrs.

Walter Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whiting, Mrs. Ida Hoppe, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wampler, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Freid and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Niehaus.

Unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Glenger, Sprague River; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolf, Williamson River; Mrs. Lanore Flurry, and the other three grandsons.

PINK RICE — yet!!! — Sky and Jack Marin are just back from niece Ann Lawrence's wedding to John Cotkamp in Pendleton — and I'm convinced that the honey-mooners left "in the pink" and up in the clouds — It was a big wedding with a large reception and a follow-up party given by her dad Bill Kilkenny (married to Sky's sister Betty) at Dr. E. I. (Manny) and Vivian Silk's home — the newlyweds had time to change after the reception and drop by before taking the plane for Portland — Came plane time and a slew of people were still at the outdoor party — and a slew of them left to escort the couple to the plane — including the some 50 relatives of John's from Portland —

When the new "Mr. and Mrs." boarded the plane — Vivian Silk produced a huge garden basket of "gergus" pink and white corsages — AND boarded the plane, too, in the shower of PINK rice which pelted Ann and John. ON the plane she distributed the corsages — and it was a PINK letter day for THAT United Airliner! — all the passengers were made it seems — but they and all the crew — even the captain — sported one of the corsages — The plane was held over 10 minutes at the airport for the festivities and picture-taking —

Another item — that Sky said intrigued her — was the table for the "bride's book" — The book was open for the guests to sign — in front of a fair sized model of a dream-honeymoon cottage — "dressed up" by Vivian S. and Mrs. James (Nell) Sturgis) which was "cutely" PINK and white. At the side of the front door was a plaque with Ann and John's sorority and fraternity pin-linked by their guard chains — and below them a small sign which read "S.O.L.D." That's right — her color scheme for the nuptial event was PINK and white! — Ann has been coming here to see her Aunt Sky and Uncle Jack since she was a chee-did — and has made further local contacts at the U of O — before she and John were graduated from there this June — From Portland they were headed for a date John has with Uncle Sam — in I think — New Mexico.

THE WEAVERS . . . Elsie and Frank — have very special guests at their home on Auburn Street — Connie, 9 — and Alan — 7 — ditto — young sister Mary stayed in Stockton with a favorite baby sitter — while Clark and Mary are gone on a three weeks jaunt which includes Bermuda — for free — he won the trip in a three months contest staged by the Personal Finance Co — he's Stockton branch manager — the contest was based on an increase in the percentage of volume over the same period the previous year — so he really earned the trip for him and his spouse — and the g-p's Weaver have the young ones to themselves.

THE LITWILLERS — Jesse and Florence — will be joined in early August at their new home in Portland by daughter Ariene Frees — who is presently in LA with Lumberman's Insurance — Also at the new address — 2736 NE 12th Ave will be the "real" boss of the household — their big black Peruvian kitty — Ember — Jesse will be in the trust dept of the 1st Nat'l Bank of Portland.

NEW ADDRESS — for the Charles W. Fryck — another KP loss to Portland is 3400 NE Beakey — Chuck and Camie and son Dick — 12 and dir Linda, is left in short time before the Litwillers — School arrangements have been made — Dick to Beaumont — and Linda will go to Grant High.
